

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
"Doctor Death:" Medical Ethics and Doctor-Assisted Suicide "Perfect Baby": An ABC Nightline Special with Barbara Walters on July 19, 1990 (1990)	1990	DVD VHS	28 minutes	"Dr. Jack Kevorkian is surely not the first or the only physician to assist his patients in committing suicide, but he is certainly the first to publicize his work. In this specialty adapted Phil Donahue program, the man dubbed "Dr. Death" offers an in-d This program includes interviews with Dr. Lander and Dr. Arthur Caplan.	Films Media Group, Inc. (Films for the Humanities & Sciences)
"Please Let Me Die": The Wish of a Severely Maimed Patient [The Dax Cowart Case]. (1974) [Restricted Use]	1974	VHS	28:51 minutes	Dax Cowart Case. Interview with Dr. Robert B. White and Donnie [Dax] Cowart, May, 1974.	Mary Lou Montgomery, Department of Psychiatry, University of Texas Medical Branch, Galveston
"Reflections on My Forty Years in Science": James Watson (1988)	1988	VHS		Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
...And Nothing But the Truth (1993)	1993	av	11 minutes	This program highlights ethical dilemmas arising in truth-telling and the disclosure of information to children who are patients. The video is a "discussion opener" that is accompanied by a discussion guide and an annotated bibliography. It was prepared to	Bioethics Department, The Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto
[helps renal patients approach their family members about becoming donors]		VHS		This program was conceived by the Cleveland Clinic which received a grant to create a videotape to help renal patients approach their family members about becoming donors. The video was produced by the National Kidney Foundation. See http://www.livingdo
18 Ways to Make a Baby (2001)	2001	VHS	56 minutes	This documentary provides an historical overview of a variety of assisted reproductive techniques woven around the personal stories of three or four couples. Scientists and clinicians working in the field of reproduction comment. The narration and perso	WGBH Educational Foundation
1984 (1984)	1984	VHS	115 minutes	"Appropriately grim, well-cast version of the Orwell classic, with Hurt as the government functionary who illegally falls in love, Hamilton as his bedmate, and Burton -- excellent in his final feature -- as the party official who somehow seems human even	Virgin Cinema Films, Ltd.; USA Home Video
1986 Bioethics Forum: Caring for Patients with AIDS (1986) [re-edited version]	1986	VHA
A Battle Over Life Support: In Re Michael Martin (2002)	2002	VHS	45 minutes	"Today, medical technology enables us to keep people alive in situations that once would have meant their deaths. This situation often leads to painful decisions on how far we should go to keep seriously hurt or ill patients alive. Michael Martin was so b	Choices, Inc.; Amazon.com

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
A Beautiful Mind (2001)	2001	VHS	136 minutes	A Beautiful Mind stars Russell Crowe as brilliant mathematician John Forbes Nash, Jr. who was on the faculty of M.I.T.. On the brink of international acclaim, Nash began to manifest symptoms of paranoid schizophrenia and began to believe others were cons	Universal Studios
A Case of Need (1989)	1989	VHS	16 minutes	A six-year old child in need of a liver transplant receives full media coverage, flying to Pittsburgh for the operation, and then being welcomed back to Maine, etc. The process is discussed by the Dartmouth Institute of Ethics in terms of fair and just re	Fanlight Productions
A Case Study in Xenotransplantation: The Use of Animal Organs for Human Transplant (1999)	1999	VHS	26 minutes	One video in the North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]'s annual series. A discussion guide accompanies the video.	North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]
A Catholic-Christian Response to Euthanasia & Assisted Suicide (1993)	1993	VHS	88 minutes	The Rev. Benedict Ashley, OP, STD, PhD, offers an historical background of the Catholic church's position on suicide, discussing early martyrs and limits to individualism. Other panel members describe common assumptions and the common good, definitions of	Archdiocese Office of Communications
A Child on Her Mind		VHS	83 minutes
A Child's Gift: Pediatric Organ Donation		DVD	10:09 minutes	This program "looks at young children who need a transplant to go on living -- and parents who found the courage and compassion to donate their own child's organs"	Nicholas Green Foundation
A Choice Among Risks: Physical Restraints Rejected (1991)	1991	VHS	31 minutes	"This video examines the ethical and practical issues involved in developing innovative, restraint-free environments to maximize resident autonomy and well-being. It can be used effectively with students of nursing, gerontology, social work and ethics,
A Choice for K'Aila (1990)	1990	DVD	30 minutes	This program tells the story of Francois and Leslie Paulette of Alberta, Canada who decided to let their newborn son K'aila die naturally from liver disease [biliary artresia or giant-cell hepatitis] rather than have him undergo a liver transplant. Their p	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) Learning, PO Box 500, Station A, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5W 1E6; t el. 1-866-999-3072; 416-205-6384; fax. 416-205-2376; email: cbclearning@cbc.ca
A Closer Look at the Institutional Ethics Committee (1985)	1985	VHS	28 minutes	A simulated hospital ethics committee meeting begins with a physician presenting a problem case for consideration. A nurse, a social worker, a minister, and others present their multi-disciplinary views in an effort to reach the most helpful solution for	University of Akron AV Services
A Closer Walk (2003)	2003	DVD	85 minutes	This program offers a view into the international aspects of the AIDS epidemic. It is comprised of interviews, stories, portraits, and vignettes of children, women and men with AIDS living on four continents. The film was directed, written and produced b	Direct Cinema Limited
A Closer Walk (2006)	2006	DVD	85	This new PBS version is now available. It includes an updated section on AIDS in the African-American community, the most recent global public health statistics, and Ethan Zohn from Grassroot Soccer. A Closer Walk is the first film to depict humankind's c	PBS

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
A Death of One's Own (2000)	2000	VHS	90 minutes	More and more Americans are looking for opportunities to exert some measure of control over where and how they die. In this program, Bill Moyers unravels the complexities underlying the many choices at the end of life, including the bitter debate over ph	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
A Different Kind of Care (2000)	2000	VHS	90 minutes	"At the end of life, what many Americans want is physical and spiritual comfort in a home setting. In this program, Bill Moyers presents the important strides being made in the area of palliative care at pioneering institutions such as New York's Mt. Si	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
A Fate Worse than Death? (A Documentary about Withdrawing Artificial Life Support)	1990	VHS	50 minutes	"Advances in medical sciences sometimes make life and death choices more, rather than less difficult. This powerful documentary follows several families through the process of deciding whether to withdraw artificial life support from a loved one in a com	Fanlight Productions
A Father's Faith: The Tyrell Dueck Story (1998)	1998	DVD	22 minutes	"Thirteen-year-old Tyrell Dueck of Saskatchewan was at the centre of a medical controversy. His father chose not to have his son's malignant bone cancer treated with conventional medical treatment. Instead he chose to rely entirely on his faith in God.	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
A Healthy Baby Girl (1996)	1996	VHS	57 minutes	When pregnant with her, filmmaker Judith Helfand's mother took the synthetic hormone diethylstilbestrol (DES) to prevent miscarriage and ensure a healthy baby. Born in 1963, twenty-five years later Ms. Helfand was diagnosed with DES-related cervical can	Women Make Movies
A Hospital on Trial: Zion v. New York Hospital	2001	DVD		"Libby Zion died in New York Hospital on the morning of March 5, 1984. That in itself is not an unusual fact - hospitals, after all, are the scene of many deaths. But Libby Zion was only 18, and when she entered the hospital the night before she was compl	Choices, Inc.
A Man of Endurance: The Amazing Story of Dax Cowart (1999)	1999	VHS	approximately 2	This news segment reviews the history of the propane explosion that left Donald (Dax) Cowart severely burned and killed his father, summarizes Mr. Cowart's unsuccessful efforts to refuse treatment, and brings the viewer up-to-date on Mr. Cowart's life.
A Matter of Trust (1989)	1989	VHS	12 minutes	The work shows good and bad examples of physician-patient communication in simulated dialogue concerning upcoming surgery.	FOIP Service Corp.
A Moral Foundation for the Helping Professions: Medicine, Law, Ministry, and Teaching, Edmund Pellegrino, M.D.; The 24th Annual J. Philip Clarke Family Lecture (2009 March 27)	2009	DVD		Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D., Professor Emeritus of Medicine and Medical Ethics at the Center for Bioethics at Georgetown University Medical Center, gave the annual lecture as part of the 24th Annual Notre Dame University Medical Conference "The conference	Notre Dame University Medical Center
A Place for Annie (1994)	1994	VHS	98 minutes	As head nurse in a pediatric ward, Susan Lansing (Spacek) has cared for hundreds of newborn babies... but none has touched her like Annie, an abandoned baby girl whose chances for adoption are destroyed when she is diagnosed with a fatal illness. Unable	Republic Pictures

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
A Portrait of Elie Wiesel (1988)	1988	VHS	60 minutes	Author, writer, Holocaust survivor, and Nobel peace prize winner Elie Wiesel appears sitting at his desk in a small office, giving his views about his work, his religion, and his life.	PBS Video
A Question of Genes: Inherited Risks (1997 - air date of September 16, 1997) / If You Could Know Your LifeStory, Would You Want to Know How it Ends?	1997	VHS		Program includes teacher's guide and covers seven vignettes regarding genetic testing and genetic information. During the program, Barbara Biesecker, Genetics Counsellor at NIH, is interviewed. Case Study 1 "New Choices, New Dilemmas" and concerns prenatal	Oregon Public Broadcasting
A Request for Voluntary Euthanasia	1989	DVD			Concern for Dying
A Right to Life or Death: Michigan v. Anderson (2002)	2002	VHS	45 minutes	"This case of convicted murderer Michael Anderson asks questions about two of the more important issues in the criminal justice system. First, should a person be given a new trial if it is shown that at the original trial his attorney was incompetent? S	Choices, Inc.; Amazon.com
A Special Lady (1987)	1987	VHS	24 minutes	Noel P. Keane, who is a lawyer who represents surrogate mothers and possible parents, produced this dramatization of several situations when surrogacy helped produce a healthy child for happy parents. There is no reference to the well-known Baby M surrog	Noel P. Keane
A Time to Change (2000)	2000	VHS	90 minutes	Whether they want to or not, four out of five American will likely die in hospitals or nursing homes, and the care they get will depend on both who is providing it and who is footing the bill. In this program, Bill Moyers introduces crusading medical pro	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
A Time to Choose	1990	VHS	20 minutes	The film is directed to patient viewing and speaks to the issue of planning for future health care decisions. At the conclusion of the film, ethicist Ruth Macklin discusses the options for planning. Accompanying the video is a small pamphlet containing	Choice in Dying
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Joanne Ciulla (1990)	1990	VHS	29 minutes	Joanne Ciulla, professor of business at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, is interviewed by Moyers about ethics in business and the meaning of work in our culture. She thinks that persons in America are defined by work which they want to b	PBS Video
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Leon Kass (1988)	1988	VHS	58 minutes	Two different programs have been combined on one cassette. Part 1 offers Dr. Leon Kass, philosopher and physician, giving his views on the moral life and the human soul which he believes is the part of man beyond the body, e.g., love, kindness, excellenc	PBS Video
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Maxine Singer (1988)	1988	VHS	29 minutes	A former molecular geneticist at the National Institutes of Health, Maxine Singer is president of the Carnegie Institute of Washington. She laments that science is not an integral part of education in America, and goes on to discuss developments in genet	PBS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Michael Josephson (1988)	1988	VHS	29 minutes	Mr. Josephson, a lawyer and former law professor, founded the Josephson Institute of Ethics because he saw a "slippage in the moral climate" and "creeping corruption." Noting that every culture, whether religious or secular, has had a sense of what is	PBS Video
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Sissela Bok	1988	VHS	29 minutes	Sissela Bok, a philosopher whose work is devoted to trust, discusses breaking and keeping the public trust, particularly how lying gains power over others through manipulation. She thinks the human race needs to concentrate on common moral principles, avo	PBS Video
A World of Ideas with Bill Moyers: Willard Gaylin (1988)	1988	VHS	29 minutes	Psychiatrist Willard Gaylin, a founder of the Hastings Center, discusses the dignity and worth of the individual and the value of life, saying that we must rediscover community and back away from individuality. He notes the irony of scientific successes w	PBS Video
Abortion Denied: Shattering Young Women's Lives (1990)	1990	VHS	60 minutes	The June 1990 United States Supreme Court case, Webster v. Reproductive Services, is discussed, pointing out possible difficulties women might have if they wished to obtain an abortion after this decision. Christine Pickles moderates this film focusing o	Feminist Majority
Abortion for Survival (1989)	1989	VHS	29 minutes	Actress Christine Pickles narrates this film about abortion in different parts of the world. Statistics presented indicate high loss of female lives in countries where abortion is illegal. RU486 and contraceptive information are discussed.	Feminist Majority
Accidental Advocate (2009)	2009	DVD		"The Accidental Advocate profiles Dr. Claude Gerstle, a surgeon and athlete who suffered a tragic bicycle accident in 2003 that left him quadriplegic. The film is a wheelchair odyssey bringing him and his daughter Jessica, an award-winning television news	http://theaccidentaladvocate.com/
Act Justly: Facing the Challenges of Disparity and Diversity (2007)	2007	DVD	60 minutes; 46 r	"In March 2006, CHA hosted its 20th annual Theology and Ethics Colloquium in Nashville entitled, Act Justly: Facing the Challenges of Disparity and Diversity. The program examined disparity and racism in health care, its causes, and possible responses wit	The Catholic Health Association of the United States [CHA]
Advance Directives: Assisting Patients with End-of-Life Decisions [and] Advance Directives: Making Informed End-of-Life Decisions	1996	VHS	Advance Directives: Assisting Patients with End-of-Life Decisions is 39 minutes; Advance Directives: Making Informed End-of-Life Decisions is 17 minutes	"Talking with patients about the dying process and the use of life-sustaining technology can be emotionally challenging for all concerned. Helping patients to participate in planning for future health care crises, including end-of-life care, can also be	The Naples Studio

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Advance Directives: Guaranteeing Health Care Rights (1991)	1991	VHS	10 minutes	Advance directives should be completed by patients when they are healthy to preserve the right of patients to make decisions about health care and "when to use or not use high technology." William Colby speaks on the Nancy Cruzan case; Senator Danforth on	American Hospital Association
Advance Directives: The Physician's Role (1995)	1995	VHS	8 minutes	From the University of Arizona Health Sciences Center. Those appearing in the tape are Kenneth V. Iserson, M.D., M.B.A., and Angelica Gomez Messerschmidt.	Biomedical Communications, Room 3404; Arizona Health Sciences Center, University of Arizona,
Advances in Medical Education with Henry Heimlich, M.D. (1997)	1997	VHS	15 minutes	This resource video looks at Harvard Medical School's clinically-based alternative to the traditional physiology "dog lab" for training medical students. The students now take part in an operating room practicum and observe actual human cardiac bypass su	Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine (PCRM)
Aeon Flux (2005)	2005	DVD	92 minutes	"Academy Award-winner Charlize Theron stars as Aeon Flux, the underground operative fighting totalitarian rule in 25th-century Earth's last living city. Aeon is the rebels' best hope of overthrowing the oppressively sterile, "perfect" society. But while	Amazon.com
Against All Odds (September 7, 2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes	This program focuses on people struggling with difficult health circumstances. David Bailey has a brain tumor. Eight-year-old Katie Mahar has XP, a rare and often fatal disease. The section of the tape entitled "Saving Amy" profiles Amy Frohnmayer, who	CBS Online Store
AIDS in the Jewish Community: A Synagogue Response (1997)	1997	VHS		The video was completed in 1997. The 29 page study guide was completed in 2000. It includes lesson plans for teens, for adults and for teens and adults together across a wide variety of topics related to AIDS. The set also includes a brochure "AIDS and	Union of American Hebrew Congregations
AIDS: In Search of a Miracle (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The program looks at the medical, social, and legal issues of AIDS. It is moderated by Arthur Miller.	PBS Video
All Quiet on the Western Front (1930)	1930	VHS	136 minutes	"Unlike most "message" films which date almost immediately, Lewis Milestone's low-key, unpolished and deeply-felt screen adaptation of the Erich Maria Remarque anti-war novel has lost little of its original impact. Years after its release it was still be	Universal Pictures Corporation 1930, 1958; MCA Home Video
Allocating Scarce Resources: Who Benefits? Robert M. Veatch		DVD		Explores the values and tensions implicit in resource allocation decisions and offers a framework for ethical decision-making." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
ALS Disease: Living with Terminal Illness	2004	DVD	28	"People with ALS or Lou Gehrig's Disease - may lose their voice and any other means of communication, but not their intellect. Through the disease is fatal, many are affirmative and courageous as they face the decline and disability. The program introduce	Aquarius Productions
ALS: Choosing Life / Choosing Life (A.L.S.) [Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis]	1999	VHS	14 minutes	CBS 60 Minutes television program broadcast on February 28, 1999. Narrated by Mike Wallace	CBS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Altered States (1980)	1980	VHS	103 minutes	"A man floats in total isolation. Weightless. Motionless. Silent. He is a million miles in space--inner space, the secret landscape of the mind. And nothing you've ever seen will prepare you for what he finds there. Altered States is the mysterious,	Warner Home Video
Amanda's Choice (2001)	2001	VHS	48 minutes	Amanda is the daughter of a woman suffering from early onset Alzheimer's Disease. Susan, Amanda's mother, is now in the middle stages of Alzheimer's Disease and she is only 39 years old. Amanda's aunt Connie also began to suffer the symptoms of Alzheim	Filmakers Library
America and the Holocaust: Deceit and Indifference (1993)	1993	VHS	60 minutes	This program explores America's unwillingness to become involved in helping Jewish persons escape persecution and death under the Nazi Regime in Germany. The central question is "Why Didn't America do More?" The story is framed by the experiences of Kurt	PBS
America's Good Health, But at What Cost (1986)	1986	VHS	52 minutes	Scenes of a meeting held at the Center For Bioethics at the University of Wisconsin in May 1986 are presented with panel participants Richard Lamm, former Governor of Colorado; Mark Siegler, director of the Center for Clinical Medical Ethics at the Univer	Midland Video Production
An Act of Self-Determination (1992)	1992	VHS	22 minutes	The film describes advance directives, including the durable power of attorney. Ruth Macklin talks about the doctor-patient relationship. A small pamphlet containing questions and answers is enclosed in the cassette box.	Choice in Dying, Inc.
An Injury to One	2002	DVD	53	An Injury to One relates the history of political conflict and environmental disaster in Butte, Montana, once considered the richest region on Earth. At the height of WWI ten percent of all copper was mined there. In the process, Butte became the most pol	Icarus Films
An Institutional Response to AIDS (1984)	1984	VHS	17 minutes	The film depicts a hospital staff that is not prepared for the psychosocial impact of caring for AIDS patients. Infection control procedures have been established in the institution, but personnel have not yet become familiar with them.	Baxley Media Group
And the Band Played On (1993)	1993	VHS	140 minutes	"From Randy Shilts' best seller comes a powerful, enlightening and moving chronicle of our times. In the summer of 1981, few knew of the deadly disease we now call AIDS. And the Band Played On follows the struggle of a handful of strong-willed men and w	HBO Home Video
Angela's Journey		DVD/VHS	50	This extraordinary documentary follows Angela, a bright, young mother of two who has terminal breast cancer, as she visits her oncologist, explores treatment options, and deals with her children and the issues of body image and romance. Graphic medical pr	Fanlight Productions
Angola Prison Hospice: Opening the Door (1998)	1998	VHS			Open Society Institute

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Animal and Human Cloning Data. National Academy of Sciences Forum (2001 August 7) (Part 5)	2001	VHS	1 hour 39 minutes	"Dr. Wilmut discussed the applicabilty of animal cloning data to human cloning. He was the scientist who cloned the sheep "Dolly" in Scotland. Dr. Van Steirteghem reviewed assisted reproductive technology in humans. Dr. Trounson reviewed research in a	C-SPAN Archives ID 165550-5
Animal Care Matters (1993)	1993	VHS	24:33 minutes	"This video is designed to aid institutions in providing effective education to animal research personnel as required by government regulations and guidelines. Included are discussions of the ethical and moral issues concerning animal research, the respo	Animal Care Matters, MIT
Are You Fit to Marry? The Black Stork (1927; 1916)	1927	VHS		"Are You Fit to Marry" is a 1927 silent film that promotes eugenics. Contained within it is a re-release of a popular 1916 motion picture, "The Black Stork," adapted by W.H. Stafford from a story by Jack Lait and produced by William Randolph Hearst's Int
Ask the Experts About Reform: Where Are We Now and Where Are We Headed? (2009)	2009	DVD		Attendees at the briefing were invited to bring questions they had about current health care reform bills and other efforts and to pose them to the panel of experts. The panel covered such issues as comparing and contrasting the four major Congressional	http://www.kff.org/ahr091409video.cfm
Awakenings (1990)	1990	VHS	120 minutes	"Robert De Niro (in an Oscar-nominated performance) and Robin Williams star in this powerful, true story of a maverick doctor and the patients whose lives he changes. Williams plays Dr. Malcolm Sayer, a shy research physician who uses an experimental dr	RCA Columbia Pictures Home Video
Back to the Hearing World [and] Your Life in Stereo (The Bilateral Difference) (2007)	2007	DVD		"Back to the Hearing World follows four individuals along their journey to hearing with their Nucleus cochlear implant system. While each story is unique, they all share a uniting spirit of adventure that is sure to inspire viewers." "Your Life in Stereo	Cochlear Americas
Balancing Society's Mandates: IRB Review Criteria (1986)	1986	VHS	38 minutes	The film depicts an institutional review board (IRB) meeting discussing typical cases and problems. Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino explains review board criteria.	Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP) VIDEO
Banking Our Genes: DNA Data on the Information Highway (1995)	1995	VHS	33 minutes	"Our Genes are a vast storehouse of information. The study of DNA has opened up exciting new possibilities in forensic science and preventive medicine. The information in genes can be used to determine from whose body a blood sample came and to tell a p	Fanlight Productions
Battered Child, Battered Trust (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The film looks at the physician's role in caring for children who may be abused by parents. It is moderated by Arthur Miller.	PBS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Becky: The Value of Life (1977)	1977	VHS	24 minutes	This early film begins with the on camera delivery of Becky who has a brain malformation. The Braznell family has a young child with autism at home, and places the new baby in a long term care facility, thinking that she will die at an early age. When he	Bono Film & Video Services
Behind the Lines (1997)	1997	VHS	96 minutes	"Jonathan Pryce (Tomorrow Never Dies, Evita, The Age of Innocence) stars in this critically acclaimed, emotionally electrifying story of war's devastating impact on a group of World War I soldiers -- and on the doctor who risks his own grip on reality to	Winstar Direct/Videocollection
Being Human	2004	DVD		4-part episode of Hot Type with Evan Solomon. Part 1 - Germ-Line Engineering Part 2- The Debate over Stem Cell Research and Cloning Part 3 - The Age of the Cyborg Part 4 - Immortality Conclusion	CBC News World
Belmont Report Historical Archive	2004			Interviews with members and staff of the National Commission for the Protection of Human Subjects of Biomedical and Behavioral Research were carried out in 2004.	US Department of Health and Human Services
Bertha (1973)	1973	VHS	34 minutes	This 1973 classic bioethics film in bioethics education discusses the rights of the retarded. Bertha, a mildly retarded young woman (not Down's Syndrome), was given an IUD at age 15, and requests its removal when she is 19. Various social workers, other h	Bono Film & Video Services
Better Off Dead (1984)	1984	VHS	60 minutes	The public television documentary looks at babies born with serious problems who are placed in neonatal intensive care. Beginning with the Baby Doe case, the film provides information about costs, parental decision making, and quality of life. It shows e	PBS VIDEO
Between a Rock and a Hard Place: Values, Ethics and the Physician-in-Training (1987)	1987	VHS	20 minutes	Medical students are depicted in brief dramatizations of four different situations involving honesty, informed consent, death and dying, clinical trials, interactions among healthcare providers, personal vs. professional needs, and other ethical issues w	AMSA, American Medical Student Association
Bhopal: The Search for Justice (2006)	2006	DVD	52:33	On December 2, 1984, the Union Carbide pesticide plant in Bhopal, India leaked poisonous gas killing 15,000 men, women and children. Hundreds of thousands more were permanently maimed. Bhopal was, and remains, the world's worst chemical disaster. Twenty y	National Film Board of Canada
Bio-Dad (2009)	2009	DVD		"The film, which is set to premiere Thursday, February 26th, 2009 on CBC at 8 p.m. (8:30 NT), is a DNA detective story, full of twists, turns, and big surprises. Along the way, Stevens (who previously made the award-winning ?Offspring?) discovers a broth	Melissa Williamson, E1 Television; Lisa Wookey, E1 Television, Head of Marketing

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Bioethics - A Changing World: 54th Annual AIBS [American Institute of Biological Sciences] Meeting, March 21-March 23, 2003	2003	CD-ROM	multiple	This CD-ROM contains audiovisual and print transcripts of plenary and panel sessions at the AIBS 2003 Annual Meeting. Individuals speaking include: Dr. Paul Ehrlich (Opening Plenary), Dr. Phillip Kitcher (Plenary), Dr. Stephen Kellert (A Biocultural Basis)	American Institute of Biological Sciences / DigiScript
Bioethics (2001)	2001	VHS		Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino appeared as a guest on the February 16, 2001 episode of "World Over Live." The program's topic was "Bioethics" and questions were submitted by viewers. The "World Over Live" is hosted by Raymond Arroyo. Program number RAAR 5148.	EWTN Global Catholic Network
Bioethics Forums Bioética e Pesquisa com Seres Humanos	1995	CD-ROM CD		12 CD-ROMs focusing on bioethics dilemmas, including 1) fetal alcohol syndrome: maternal responsibility for health of a fetus; 2) DNA database for criminals: associating behavior with genetics; 3) genetic disease screening: employees' right vs. public health	Videodiscovery Ministerio da Saude
Biofutures: Owning Body Parts & Information	2008	DVD		"From stories of cloning to regenerative tissues, from gene therapy to biotech startups, news media are replete with reports about the revolutionary potential of human tissue and genetic material. At the same time, many uses of human tissues and DNA have
Birth of Bioethics (1993)	1993	VHS	various	These tapes capture talks given at the 1992 "Birth of Bioethics" Conference organized by Albert Jonsen, Ph.D. and held in Seattle, Washington on September 23-24, 1992. The tapes contain the entirety of the conference proceedings. Tape 1: Birth of Bioeth	Center for Health Sciences, Center for Educational Resources, University of Washington
Black and White (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	17	"Black and White shines a sensitive light on a subject that is too often either shunned or sensationalized: the experiences of intersex people (sometimes called hermaphrodites). This beautiful and stylish film artfully explores the potent creative collaboration	Women Make Movies, Inc Orders Department
Blade Runner (1991)	1991	VHS	117 minutes	"Harrison Ford and Daryl Hannah star in this steamy thriller set in a dazzling, futuristic world! Ford plays a sharp, rugged detective on a mission to track down and eliminate four renegade replicants, genetically engineered humans of superior strength and	Nelson Entertainment
Bloodlines: Technology Hits Home (2003)	2003	VHS	60 minutes	Cases profiled in this program include: Buzzanca Case ? baby created with sperm and egg donor; couple expecting to parent the child divorced while she was being gestated by a surrogate mother. The woman who still wanted to parent the baby girl had to adopt	Backbone Media
Blue End (2000)	2000	VHS	85 minutes	The digitally-distributed Visible Human Project is available worldwide and allows scientists, students, and interested laypersons to view a completely digitized human being for the purposes of studying human anatomy. This "visible man" is Joseph Paul Jer	First Run / Icarus Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Bodies and Souls		DVD/VHS	17	Sister Manette, a white Catholic nun, runs the only health clinic in Jonestown, a largely African American town in the rural heart of the Mississippi delta. Nearly every family in Jonestown has someone with diabetes, heart disease, or both. Yet few have h	Fanlight Productions
Body and Soul (2003)	2003	DVD	13 minutes, 48 s	"Body and Soul, the new documentary produced by the Center for Reproductive Rights and made by Sandino Film, captures the testimonies of Romani women in Slovakia who have been sterilized against their will, and the attitudes of Slovakian health care perso	Center for Reproductive Rights
Bohr's Model of the Atom (2006)	2006	DVD	26 minutes	"This program focuses on Niels Bohr, who worked with some of the best physicists of the 20th century to devise his atomic model. Students will gain an understanding of the historical developments in atomic theories up to Bohr, a brief outline of Bohr's li	VEA (Video Education America)
Bonhoeffer (2003)	2003	DVD	90 minutes	This documentary profiles Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the German theologian, who was imprisoned and killed by the Nazis for plotting to assassinate Hitler. Bonhoeffer's family and friends in Germany and the United States are interviewed about his life, his theo	Amazon.com
Born Dying (1984)	1984	VHS	20 minutes	A thoughtful drama about the plight of the parents and the nurse caring for a dying baby (with a probably diagnosis of Trisomy 18 Syndrome) in a neonatal intensive care unit. Different persons from the family, the hospital, and the community present vari	Baxley Media Group
Born on the Fourth of July (1990)	1990	VHS	145 minutes	Tom Cruise delivers a riveting and unforgettable portrayal of Vietnam veteran Ron Kovic in Oliver Stone s Academy Award- winning masterpiece. Based on a true story, the acclaimed film follows the young Kovic from a zealous teen who eagerly volunteers for	MCA Universal Home Video
Boy I Am (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	72	"In the course of the film, three young transitioning FTMs discuss their bodies, feminism, and the intersection of race and class with their transgender identity. Their stories are interspersed with interviews with lesbians, activists, and theorists - suc	Women Make Movies, Inc. Orders Department
Boy in the Bubble (2006)	2006	DVD	60 minutes	"When David Vetter died at the age of 12, he was already world famous: the boy in the plastic bubble. Mythologized as the plucky, handsome child who had defied the odds, his life story is in fact even more dramatic. It is a tragic tale that pits ambitio	PBS, WGBH Educational Foundation and Ark Media LLC
Bragdon v. Abbott: Implications for Asymptomatic Genetic Conditions		VHS		It is unclear what this tape covers. Its origin is currently unknown. Bragdon v. Abbott concerns a case in which a patient with HIV, sought out a dentist known to refuse to treat HIV-infected persons, and then sued when treatment was refused. The goal
Brian's Song (1971)	1971	VHS	74 minutes	This highly-acclaimed winner of five Emmy Awards is one of the best-loved movies ever made for television. It's the true story of a special relationship between two professional football players, Gale Sayers (Billy Dee Williams) and Brian Piccolo (James	RCA Columbia Pictures Home Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Britches (1986)	1986	VHS	13 minutes	Britches, an infant primate, was "rescued" from a basement laboratory at the University of California at Riverside on April 20, 1985 by the Animal Liberation Front. "Britches was isolated in a steel cage after animal researchers had crudely stiched his ey	PETA, People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals
Buying Time: The Media Role in Health Care (1991)	1991	VHS	27 minutes, 45 s	Produced for the Institute for the Study of Applied and Professional Ethics at Dartmouth	Duma Productions
Cancer Clinical Trials: An Introduction for Patients and Their Families (2001)	2001	VHS	00	A video introduction for patients who may be deciding whether to participate in a cancer clinical trial. The video also provides information for patients' families. A short guide for health care professionals comes with the video.	National Cancer Institute Publications Ordering Service
Can't Afford to Grow Old (1989)	1989	VHS	55 minutes	Opening in an old person's nursing home, narrator Walter Cronkite describes the problems faced by the elderly in paying for and obtaining nursing and health care. Six different old people with severe health problems are presented.	Filmakers Library
Caring for America's Heroes. 2008 MHS Conference	2008	DVD		Day 1: Opening Remarks - Dr. Chu; Opening Remarks - Dr. Casscells; Grand Rounds from the Front Lines; Leveraging and Sharing Information to Ensure Seamless Care; Meninger Award, Pay for Performance; Air Force SG Remarks; Navy SG Remarks; Wounded Warrior C
Catholic Physicians' Dinner, January 25, 1997 - Sacred Heart, Punta Gorda, FL - Dr. Edmund Pellegrino - Speaker (1997)	1997	VHS
Catholic Physicians' Guild, Diocese of Venice, Venice, Florida. Dr. Edmund Pellegrino - Speaker: Cloning: Christian Ethics & New Biology - November 8, 1997 (1997)	1997	VHS
CBS 48 Hours: Ultimate Risk (April 15, 1999), Segment No. 526	1999	VHS		[questionable practices in human testing human subject research]	CBS, 48 Hours
Center for Health Ethics - Dr. Ed Pellegrino (2004)	2004	VHS			Center for Health Ethics
Character and Virtue in Scientific Research (1991)	1991	VHS		Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino delivers the Conklin, Scott, Lillie Memorial Lecture at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Massachusetts, June 26, 1991.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Charlie Rose Show: Mapping the Human Genome, Parts I-V (2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes each	Part I, June 19, 2000, Show No. 2707. "Craig Venter Predicts Celera Won't Become Drug Company." Participants: Dr. J. Craig Venter, President, Chief Science Officer, Celera Genomics; Marshall Peterson, Vice-President, Celera Genomics; Dr. Hamilton Smith	1-800-ALL-NEWS, LLC
Charly (1968)	1968	VHS	104 minutes	"Cliff Robertson in an unforgettable performance as a mentally handicapped man who becomes a genius. Charly Gordon is a gentle man with the mind of a child. Although his efforts at education are fruitless, his nightschool teacher is moved by his determin	ABC Video; CBS FOX Video
Children Divorcing Their Parents: Gregory K v. Ralph K (2002)	2002	VHS	45 minutes	"The 12-year old known as 'Gregory K.' was sensationally reported to be the boy who wanted to 'divorce his parents', but Gregory Kingsley's case was much more complex and important than that. Living in a foster home, he believed that his mother had abando	Choices, Inc.; Amazon.com
Children's Hospital: Part 2: Pioneers & Society (2000)	2000	VHS	120 minutes	"PIONEERS - Behind every headline of a groundbreaking medical advance are the pioneers. They include the doctors who risk their reputations by developing new techniques; the parents who take the chance and allow their childrent o be the first; and the ch	Public Broadcasting System (PBS)
Choosing Death (Spring 1993)	1993	VHS	120 minutes	Filmed in Holland and the United States, the program discusses assisted suicide, euthanasia, and decision making at the end of life. Dr. Jack Kevorkian appears, state right-to-die legislation is described, and the euthanasia situation in the Netherland	PBS Video
Choosing to Forego Artificial Nutrition (1990)	1990	VHS	11 minutes	Physicians Joanne Lynn and Zail Berry explain treatments that deliver nutrition and hydration for the terminally ill who are unable to swallow. Clinical photos show a gastrostomy tube in place in a patient's stomach and other treatments. Drs. Lynn and Be	Network for Continuing Medical Education
Circus Animal Welfare and Education		VHS			www.OARA.org
Civil Liberties: Who Has the Right to Make Mistakes? (1978)	1978	U-Matic	45 minutes	Talk by Daniel Wikler, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Program in Medical Ethics and Department of Philosophy, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Filmed at the Ethical Issues in Mental Retardation Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin on June 23 and 24, 1978.
Clinical Ethics Consultation: Providing Support: Michael M. Burgess		DVD		"Explores the objectives of clinical consultations and the role of ethics committees in this capacity." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Clinical Practice Guidelines: Management of Cancer Pain (1994)	1994	VHS	18 minutes	Betty Ferrell; Cancer; Pain; Clinical Practice Guidelines	Sheed and Ward

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Clinical Trials Education Series (2001)	2001	CD-ROM		This CD-ROM contains a collection of resources designed to educate cancer patients, health care professionals, and the general public about cancer clinical trials. The disc contains written resources and slide programs for health care professionals and a	National Cancer Institute Publications Ordering Service
Clinical Trials: Because Lives Depend On It. A Clinical Trial Awareness Video for the General Public (2001)	2001	VHS	00	This video is intended for community education and discussion purposes about clinical trials for treatment and prevention of cancer. A short speaker's guide accompanies the video.	National Cancer Institute Publications Ordering Service
Clone (2002)	2002	VHS	60 minutes	"Explore the miraculous potential and frightening possibilities of genetic cloning as National Geographic's cameras reveal the history, controversy, and cutting-edge developments of a scientific breakthrough capable of literally changing the destiny of th	National Geographic Society
Cloning for Stem Cells. National Academy of Sciences Forum (2001 August 7) (Part 4)	2001	VHS	45 minutes	"Scientists spoke to a panel of experts and the general audience about the state of cloning and embryonic stem cell research. Among the topics they addressed were methods of research, the success of recent research efforts, and the types of on-going rese	C-SPAN Archives, ID 165550-4
Cloning Research Forum at the National Academy of Sciences (2001 August 7)	2001	VHS	6 hours 45 minu	National Academy of Sciences forum on cloning research filmed in five parts on August 7, 2001. Segments focus on: human cloning research, human reproductive cloning, human cloning public policy issues, cloning for stem cells, and animal and human cloning	C-SPAN Archives, ID 165550-1
Closer to Truth: Science, Meaning and the Future: Biology & Medicine [segment on clinical trials] (2000)	2000	VHS	1 hour, 20 minut	With Robert Lawrence Kuhn "Leading scientists and scholars explore new controversies about microbes, drug testing , and the volatile world of alternative medicine. In each episode: how does science advance and its philosophical implications affect us?" [The Kuhn Foundation
Cocoon (1985)	1985	VHS	117 minutes	"An all-star cast of veteran actors including Don Ameche, Hume Cronyn, Jack Gilford, Maureen Stapleton, Jessica Tandy and Gwen Verdon, light up the screen in this smash hit about a group of senior citizens given a second chance at being young. Still quit	Twentieth (20th) Century-Fox Film Corporation
Code Gray: Ethical Dilemmas in Nursing (1989)	1989	VHS	28 minutes	Nursing ethics questions are raised from a variety of views, including problems in a newborn intensive care unit and in the care of the elderly in nursing homes.	Fanlight Productions
Coma (1978)	1978	VHS	114 minutes	Genevieve Bujold and Michael Douglas star in an exciting, contemporary thriller - the film version of the best-selling Robin Cook novel where every split second can mean the difference between life and living death. Few stories have caused the sensation	MGM/JA Home Video
Common Morality: A Principlist Approach: Robert M. Veatch		DVD		"Examines the principles of autonomy, beneficence, non-maleficence and justice and discusses their strengths and limitations." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Complications of Pharmacological Therapy for Geriatric Patients (1989)	1989	VHS	14 minutes	Dr. John Collins Harvey, Center for Clinical Bioethics, Georgetown University, discusses different drugs taken by the elderly, their effect on the aged metabolism, and whether all caregivers concerned know exactly what has been prescribed for each patient	Network for Continuing Medical Education

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Confidentiality (1989)	1989	VHS	18 minutes	Directed to health personnel, the film depicts various ways that confidentiality can be breached in the health setting. Attorney Barbara Calfee describes topics that could be libelous such as the Tarasoff case (concerning the duty of a psychiatrist to wa	Fairview Audio-Visuals
Confronting the Killer Gene (1989)	1989	VHS	58 minutes	Arlo Guthrie comments on his father Arlo's Huntington's Disease. The work also includes scenes from Venezuela where Dr. Nancy Wexler studied a large extended family where one in five members have Huntington's Disease.	PBS Video
Consent and Its Alternatives (1978)	1978	U-Matic	45 minutes	Talk by John Robertson, J.D., Associate professor of Law and Program in Medical Ethics, University of Wisconsin. Filmed at the Ethical Issues in Mental Retardation Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin on June 23 and 24, 1978.
Conspiracy (2001)	2001	DVD	96 minutes	"By the winter of 1942, Hitler's dream of Aryan supremacy had become a nightmare. His armies could be found freezing and starving on the Eastern front, and America's fighting forces had just entered the war to the West. On January 20th of that year, 15	Amazon.com
Conversations in Genetics, Volume 1 (2004)	2004	DVD	00	Sponsored by the Genetics Society of America (GSA) and initiated by Rochelle Easton Esposito in 1997, Conversations in Genetics interviews prominent scientists to record their thoughts and feelings about their research and the ideas that led them to their	Genetics Society of America
Conversations in Genetics, Volume 2 (2004)	2004	DVD	00	Sponsored by the Genetics Society of America (GSA) and initiated by Rochelle Easton Esposito in 1997, Conversations in Genetics interviews prominent scientists to record their thoughts and feelings about their research and the ideas that led them to their	Genetics Society of America
Cord Blood Banking: Information for the Caregiver	1997	VHS		"Modern medicine has brought about a new and exciting birth option for expectant parents--Umbilical Cord Blood Banking. 'Cord blood' is the blood that remains in a baby's umbilical cord and placenta immediately after birth. Recent medical breakthroughs	Cord Blood Registry
Corporate Ethics and Success	1995	VHS	6 minutes	"The Hong Kong Ethics Development Centre offers unique services to assist companies to implement the Programme [Corporate Ethics Programme]. This 6-minute video will take you through a quick browse of them. They include: assistance in the design of a co
Cracking the Code of Life: The Race to Decode Human DNA (20	2001	VHS	120 minutes	"Does it amaze you that yeast is your very close relative? That you possess roughly the same number of genes as a mouse? That you are 99.9% genetically identical to every other human? ABC Nightline correspondent Robert Krulwich lends a lighthearted tou	NOVA/WGBH Boston Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Critical Care (1997)	1997	VHS	109 minutes	"Dr. Werner Ernst (James Spader) is an over-worked intern who only wants the best for his elderly, comatose patient -- until he falls for the ailing man's beautiful daughter Felicia (Kyra Sedgwick). The seductive Felicia has ten million reasons to let he	Live Entertainment
Curing Cancer (2003)	2003	DVD	57 minutes	"This program tells the story of how a small group of researchers have developed radically new ways to treat the most feared of diseases by tracing cancer back to its origins: its DNA. The program focuses on two pioneering efforts;: the race between Dr.	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Current Controversies in Medicine: Informed Consent. National Institutes of Health [NIH] (United States) STEP Programs [Staff Training in Extramural Programs]	1999	VHS		Conference held in the Natcher Conference Center-Main Auditorium on November 18, 1999 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Spiral bound booklet of references and resources and video available. Speakers and Topics are: Jeff Kahn on the Historical Introduction to	National Institutes of Health [NIH] (United States)
Cutting Edge (2001)	2001	VHS	15 minutes, 21 s	This short program offers an interesting and fun way to introduce students to issues related to genetic testing and biotechnology. The film offers several short vignettes and dream/fantasy sequences to illustrate ethical issues in the extreme. The story	BAPA Imaginational Stage
Da Vinci's Inquest: The Quality of Mercy (1998)	1998	DVD		Television reporter Hope Martin obtains and airs an exclusive story about a mercy killing of an AIDS patient, the killing apparently by suffocation with a plastic bag over the head. This report prompts the homicide department and a reluctant Da Vinci, who
Daring to Resist: Three Women Face the Holocaust (1999)	1999	VHS	57 minutes	This documentary interviews three Jewish women who, as teenagers, became involved in resistance against the Nazis. The women lived in Holland, Hungary, and Poland and found a way to fight against the German Nazi efforts to kill Jews and govern society.	Women Make Movies
Dax's Case (1985)	1985	VHS	58 minutes	This production is a follow-up of the 1974 film, Please Let Me Die: The Wish of a Blind Severely Maimed Burn Patient, which discussed a patient's right to refuse treatment and die. Ten years later, the patient, Dax Cowart, now a lawyer and married, maint	Filmakers Library Inc.
Deadly Inheritance (1997)	1997	VHS	44 minutes	"For twenty years, 38-year-old Christie Kilgore has lived with the knowledge that she may be carrying the gene that causes Huntington's disease, the fatal neurological disorder which has afflicted her mother and others in her family. Thanks to recent adv	Fanlight Productions
Dear Dr. Spencer: Abortion in a Small Town (1998)	1998	VHS	26 minutes	Dr. Robert Douglas Spencer practiced medicine for nearly 5 decades (1920s to his death in 1969) in a small town in Pennsylvania. In addition to basic medical care, Dr. Spencer also performed illegal abortions. After he aided a poor coal miner's wife, wo	First Run / Icarus Films
Death And Dying (1980)	1980	VHS	60 minutes	Host Willard Gaylin says that we are living during a revolution in biomedical technology which has made prolongation of life possible when previously death would have occurred. Others who appear include Joseph Fletcher, Arnold Relman, Sissela Bok, Eric C	PRS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Death and Dying (1981)	1981	VHS	29 minutes	Eight physicians discuss death, their patients, and their views of dying. Most thought that they had not received any training in discussing death and that some patients did not face its reality.	Fanlight Productions
Death by Doctor (1998) [Jack Kevorkian, M.D. and Thomas Youk	1998	VHS	14 minutes	CBS 60 Minutes television program broadcast on November 22, 1998. Narrated by Mike Wallace. Jack Kevorikian and Thomas Youk.	CBS Video
Death on Request	1995	VHS	57 minutes	Through this documentary filmed in the Netherlands (in Dutch with English subtitles) we are permitted to come to know Antoinette and Cees de Joode and their doctor Dr. Van Oijen, a family practitioner, as they discuss Cees' decision that he would like Dr.	First Run/Icarus Films
Debate Over Clinical Trials of AZT to Prevent Mother-to-Infant Transmission of HIV in Developing Nations		VHS		[research ethics]	Harvard School of Public Health
Deception (1988)	1988	VHS	34 minutes	After an auto accident, a hospitalized woman's general blood tests indicate incipient syphilis; her husband is dying in the hospital's intensive care unit as a result of the accident. The treating physician does not know her, but wishes to treat without c	Fanlight Productions
Decision '92 [1992], Senate Bill 162	1992	VHS	8 minutes	A program made by the Pro-Life Education Foundation of Maryland, Inc. to encourage voters to vote against Maryland Senate Bill 162 (SB 162) which established the right of the physician requested to perform the abortion by a minor, to determine whether her	Pro-Life Education Foundation of Maryland, Inc.
Decoding the Book of Life (1989)	1989	VHS	58 minutes	The film provides a brief history of eugenics and the development of molecular biology, going on to describe the beginnings of the human genome project in 1985. It traces the project's development, reports on the Department of Energy's role, shows technol	Coronet Film & Video
Defective Newborns: The Right to Life (1978)	1978	U-Matic	50 minutes	Talk by Norman Fost, M.D., Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Director, Program in Medical Ethics, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Filmed at the Ethical Issues in Mental Retardation Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin on June 23 and 24, 1978.
Depression: Voices of An Illness	1996	CD	59	"Voices of an Illness radio documentary series has provided millions with an extraordinary window on serious mental illness since the series premiere in 1992. The series was the first to feature people who had recovered from serious mental illness, tellin	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Der Ewige Jude: Ein dokumentarischer Film [The Eternal Jew] (1938)	1938	VHS	62 minutes	This film was produced as an anti-Semitic propaganda film by the Nazis. It consists of a series of still photographs and some video intended to portray Jews in a very negative light. In German with English subtitles.	International Historic Films
Desperate Hours (2001)	2001	DVD	64 minutes	This documentary focuses on Turkey's role in rescuing Turkish and European Jews from Nazi persecution. Several other related stories and events are recounted, including: Yishuv-Jews from Pre-State Israel rescued Jews using Turkey as a based of operations	Shenandoah Films
Dialogues in Behavioral Health Research Ethics (2006)	2006	DVD	250 minutes	"Dialogues in Behavioral Health Research Ethics is a 4-hour DVD consisting of eight 30-minute units. Each unit consists of interviews with ethics experts, excerpts of focus groups with mental health consumers who have participated in research, and commen	Ethics in Mental Health Research
Dialogues with Madwomen (1993)	1993	VHS	90 minutes	"This documentary presents a pastiche of illness narratives, the stories of seven women (including the filmmaker and the associate producer) who have struggled with mental illness, including depression, bipolar disorder, and multiple personality disorder.	Women Make Movies
Difficult Conversations in Pediatric Palliative Care (2003)	2003	DVD	68 minutes	"Difficult Conversations in Pediatric Palliative Care presents a series of scenarios involving end-of-life conversations between practitioners and children/families. This three-part video introduces an innovative educational approach for developing clini	Center for Applied Ethics, Education Development Center, Inc.
Difficult Decisions: When a Loved One Approaches Death (2000)	2000	DVD	26 minutes	"When a loved one's fate lies in another's hands, the decisions can be overwhelming. This program, hosted by NewsHour's Ray Suarez, follows two families as they grapple with life-and- death decisions inside an ICU. A doctor, an ethicist, and others help	Films Media Group, Inc. (Films for the Humanities & Sciences)
Dignified Exit (1990)	1990	VHS	27 1/2 minutes	Members of England's Exit Society discuss a book in preparation on how to commit suicide. Three cases are depicted: a 38-year old mother dying of cancer who wants to live until she is helpless and then die, an old woman with MS who wants to die before she	Filmmakers Library
Dirty Pretty Things (2005)	2005	DVD	97 minutes	Nigerian Okwe, an ex-surgeon, now works as a taxi driver and porter at a West London Hotel after his escape to England to avoid threats to his life. He becomes friends with Senay, a young woman from Turkey working as a chambermaid. Senay is just one of	Amazon; Hollywood Video
Discontinuance of Dialysis (1990)	1990	VHS	19 minutes	Physicians Lewis M. Cohen and Rebecca Irvine discuss the deaths of competent patients who decide to stop dialysis. Two women, Anna and Barbara, are interviewed and explain their reasoning; each died a few weeks after being filmed.	Baystate Medical Center

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Discussions in Bioethics (1986)	1986	VHS	Eight 12-15 min	The videocassette is a varied teaching aide with eight open ended dramatizations to stimulate discussion about ethical dilemmas which are based on actual cases. They include: The Old Person's Friend: portrays in a hospital setting the dilemma of whether o	Pyramid Films
DNA & Dollars (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	47:30	This timely documentary interviews some of the major players in genetic research and patients who have donated their DNA in the hopes of finding cures for diseases. Despite the hopes, there are nagging questions as to the ownership and patenting of geneti	National Film Board of Canada
DNA (2000)	2004	DVD	57 minutes each	"Fifty years ago, two unknown scientists ran into an English pub shouting that they had found the secret of life. Jim Watson and Francis Crick were not exaggerating. Narrated by Jeff Goldlum, this series looks back on the achievements that launched a ne	FFH [Films for Humanities and Sciences] Home Video
DNA and Cystic Fibrosis	2003	VHS	12	"In 1989, soon after Courtney and Lindsay Collacutt were diagnosed with Cystic Fibrosis, the gene responsible for this inherited respiratory disease was isolated. Since children with CD at that time rarely lived beyond their tees or young adulthood, the s	Fanlight Productions
DNA Research: Ethical Considerations. Interview with Edmund Pellegrino, M.D., October 1994 (1994)	1994	VHS	20 minutes	Eyewitness news segment from CBS on WUSA-9, Washington, DC. Edmund D. Pellegrino sitting at a desk before books being interviewed. The public is not equipped to deal with questions regarding DNA research, including embryo research because these question	WUSA-9
DNA: The Human Race (2003)	2003	DVD	57 minutes	"In 1990, a massive enterprise was launched to decipher the ultimate instruction manual. The Human Genome Project soon turned into a race and a feud. This program tracks the tumultuous progress of the endeavor, detailing the scientific innovations that l	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Do Patients Still Need Generalists? [April 30, 2004]	2004	VHS		Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D. delivered the Paul C. Brucker, M. D. Lecture on April 30, 2004 in Philadelphia, PA. The Brucker Lecture was created in 1991 by the current and former Family Medicine faculty, residents, and fellows of Paul C. Brucker, MD, T	Thomas Jefferson University Hospital
Do Scientists Cheat? (1988)	1988	VHS	58 minutes	The film examines the issue of scientific fraud, looking at why scientists might be less than honest (competition for grants), how the system deals with quality control (haphazardly), and whether the scientific community's response is adequate in fraudule	Coronet Film & Video
Does God Care How We Make Babies? Ethical Concerns about Reproductive Choices, Cloning and Abortion. A Live Satellite Teleconference, April 25, 2000 (2000)	2000	VHS	170 minutes	These two tapes contain four unedited 45-minute segments from the April 25, 2000 teleconference, "Does God Care How We Make Babies? Ethical Concerns about Reproductive Choices, Cloning, and Abortion." Issues addressed are: implications of sperm and egg d	EcuFilm

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Donahue: [The Phil Donahue Show: Test-Tube Babies] (1978 August?) [Dr. Andre Hellegers, M.D., first director of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics speaking about the birth of Louise Brown, first baby born using IVF 1978. Second guest is Father William Smith	1978	DVD; U-Ma		This segment of Donahue [the Phil Donahue Show] focuses on in-vitro fertilization or test tube babies shortly after the birth of Louise Brown in England on July 25, 1978. The date for the segment is 1978. Dr. Andre Hellegers, M.D., the first director of	Multimedia Program Productions
Done with Life (1988) [Through with Life] Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino [cassette says "Edward"] 1994 May 18; St. Joseph's Hospital (1994)	1988	VHS	43 minutes	Filmed in Rotterdam with actors speaking Dutch (English subtitles are provided), the film portrays an elderly woman in failing health who resides in a nursing home. She has apparently given much thought to a planned suicide and decided to pursue euthanas	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde (1941)	1941	VHS	113 minutes	"Dr. Jekyll experiments with the nature of evil, which he becomes when he drinks a potion he concocts in his lab. As Mr. Hyde he torments prostitute Bergman and confuses fiancée Turner. Academy Award nominations: Best Cinematography, Editing and Score.	MGM/UA Home Video
Dr. Solomon's Dilemma (2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes	"In the 1990s, cost-cutting HMOs became 'the enemy' to doctors and patients. Determined to put medicine back in charge, some doctors and hospitals fought to win back control of health care decisions, and now suddenly, doctors themselves have become 'the	PBS Video
Dreams and Dilemmas (1998)	1998	VHS	58 minutes	"Advanced in neonatal medicine have dramatically improved the survival chances of premature infants, yet survival can come at a high cost. Many such infants experience severe and often life-threatening health problems, and their parents and caregivers ma	Fanlight Productions
Duties or Consequences: Foundational Ideas: Alister Browne		DVD		"Explores the differences between duty-based and utilitarian normative theories and where these fit within the broader context of ethics." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Dying for Drugs		DVD		"Every year many new drugs come to market which offer hope to the sick and dying. They also bring billions of pounds in the coffers of the pharmaceutical industry, making Big Pharma the most powerful and profitable business on earth. This film investiga	True Vision TV, Ltd.
Dying for Health Care (1987)	1987	VHS	60 minutes	The program describes the lack of access to health care for the uninsured. Patients are turned away, appointments made weeks in the future, and emergency rooms are overcrowded. Various persons providing health care in the District of Columbia are interview	PBS Video
Dying with Dignity: Experiences in the Netherlands (2001)	2001	VHS	47 minutes	Set in the Netherlands, this film profiles four terminally- ill persons hospitalized at a palliative care facility in Rijnstadt Hospital, in Arnhem. Their physician, Dr. Joep Douma explores the feelings and wishes of each of his patients and his or her f	Filmakers Library

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Dying Young (1991)	1991	VHS	111 minutes	Hilary O Neil (Julia Roberts) is an attractive, outgoing young woman whose existence is cramped by few opportunities, little money and a series of failed relationships. She is looking for a different kind of life, a life with purpose and promise. Victor	20th Century Fox Video
Echoes and Reflections: A Multimedia Curriculum on the Holocaust (2005)	2005	DVD	157 minutes	This DVD and educator's packet contains written and visual materials that comprise the ten multi-part lessons on the Holocaust. The DVD (VHS version also available) contains testimony from Holocaust survivors and other witnesses. Each lesson includes map	Anti-Defamation League
Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D., Being a Christian Physician Today 1988 (1988)	1988	VHS
Eggsplotation	2010	DVD			Center for Bioethics and Culture [CBC]
End of Life Care (2000)	2000	VHS	57 minutes	"Today, advances in medicine come with as many questions as answers. Join Catholic medical ethicist Dr. Edmund Pellegrino, from Georgetown University Medical Center, who explains medical treatment options at the end of life from a Catholic perspective: W	Franciscan University Press
End of Life: In Comfort and Care (1998)	1998	VHS	30	Created by the Colorado Collective for Medical Decision Making and produced by the Nickel's Worth Productions	Nickel's Worth Productions
Entering a Clinical Trial: Is It Right for You? / El estudio clinico le conviene o no participar? (2004)	2004	DVD; VHS		This program introduces the purpose of clinical trials and describes the way in which trials are carried out. In this program the focus is on cancer clinical trials but the information provided describes the conduct of most clinical trials. Topics inclu	Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
EPEC: Education for Physicians on End-of-Life-Care: Participant's Guide (1999)	1999	VHS		This Participant's Guide is 1 looseleaf binder. Topics covered include: terminal care, advance directives, passive euthanasia, medical futility, outcome and process assessment, drug therapy for pain control, palliative care, assisted suicide, psychological	American Medical Association [AMA], Order Department
EPEC: Education for Physicians on End-of-Life-Care: Trainer's Guide (1999)	1999	VHS		This Trainer's Guide includes 1 looseleaf binder, 2 color videocassettes, and 4 computer diskettes. The videos are: "EPEC Plenaries 1, 3, and 4" and "EPEC Modules 1-12 Trigger Tape." Topics covered include: terminal care, advance directives, passive euth	American Medical Association, Order Department
Ethical Considerations: The Genome Project (2000)	2000	VHS		Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D.
Ethical Issues in Orthopaedic Surgery (1998)	1998	VHS	23 minutes	This program was originally developed to help train orthopaedic residents. Ten clinical cases are presented to stimulate discussion. The associated discussion guide provides questions and answers focusing on the ethical issues raised by each case. Some	American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Ethical Issues in Orthopaedic Surgery: Discussion Guide to the Video Cases (2003)	2003	DVD		The ten cases, on topics selected by the Ethics Committee of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, and the discussion guide were designed for use in an ethics course for orthopaedic surgeon residents or for self-study for practicing orthopaedic su	American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons
Ethical Issues in Scientific Research: A Public Forum (1991)	1992	VHS	62 minutes	This moderated seminar and discussion on "Ethical Issues in Scientific Research" took place at the Microelectronics Center for North Carolina, Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, November 7, 1991. "The moderator presents various hypothetical scientif	Research Triangle Park Club of Sigma Xi
Ethics	1992	VHS		Lt. Worf is suddenly paralyzed from the waist down in an accident. Dr. Crusher believes the paralysis to be permanent. Lt. Worf asks his friend Commander Riker to assist him in the Klingon ceremonial suicide (Hegh'bat) because can no longer stand and fa	Amazon.com
Ethics and American Medicine: History, Change, and Challenge (1997)	1997	cassette		Symposium held in Philadelphia, PA on March 14-15, 1997 to mark the 150th anniversary of "[t]wo historic events that would change forever the face of American medicine [that] occurred in Philadelphia in 1847 - the founding of the American Medical Associati	Audio-Digest Foundation (a non-profit subsidiary of the California Medical Association (CMA))
Ethics and High-Tech Pain Management (1994)	1994	VHS	35 minutes	Betty Ferrell; Center for Healthcare Ethics, St. Joseph Health System, Orange, CA	Sheed and Ward
Ethics and Scientific Research, Program No. 9	1992	VHS	29 minutes	Topics covered are: science, technology, and society; professional ethics and questionable scientific research, the forms of scientific misconduct, and whistle-blowing and scientific misconduct. The program includes an interview with Dr. Steven Turner,	GPN (Great Plains National) ITV Library
Ethics and the Neonatal Unit, Program No. 10	1992	VHS	29 minutes	Topics included are: making decisions for infants, decision-making with uncertain outcomes, allocating scarce medical resources, identifying new ethical issues, and reasoning through new ethical issues. The program includes an interview with Dr. Jean Mc	GPN (Great Plains National) ITV Library
Ethics at the Bedside (1991)	1991	VHS	Four 30 minute s	Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino is interviewed by Healthnet's Barbara Sollito about patient and family concerns with the decision making process in the withdrawing or withholding of treatment. Segment 1: Who Should Decide? Segment 2: What Criteria to Use? Seg	Healthnet
Ethics Committees: Allies in Long-Term Care (1990)	1990	VHS	32 minutes, 47 s	Developed by the American Association for Retired People (AARP)'s Special Projects Section in cooperation with the American Association of Homes for the Aging's Commission on Ethics this program is intended for the staff and governing boards of long-term	American Association of Retired Persons (AARP)
Ethics in a World of Difference: Challenges of Human Diversity: Alice Dreger		DVD		"Explores how particular groups in our society have been subjugated, and how we might respond to their claims." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Ethics in Biomedical Research (2005)	2005	DVD	80 minutes	This four-part presentation is "designed to help introduce and teach bioethics" through the lens of biomedical research. Some questions posed are "What constitutes ethical behavior in biomedical research? How does a researcher navigate the many complex	Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI),

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Ethics in Health Care: Building Competence for Health Professionals	2009	DVD		How should health professionals approach the ethical issues surrounding patient autonomy, family dynamics, and end-of-life decisions? What ethical issues arise from religious and cultural diversity? How does an organization's ethical culture influence dec	Provincial Health Ethics Network
Ethics in Nursing (1987)	1987	VHS, 9 vid	240 minutes	The series is presented in lectures by Mary Silva of George Mason University and Tom L. Beauchamp of Georgetown University's Kennedy Institute of Ethics, and is offered in five units: Dr. Beauchamp lays the theoretical groundwork in tapes 1-6: Unit I. Con	Anthony Jannetti, Inc.
Ethics in Public Health (2002)	2002	VHS	00	Lawrence Gostin, Professor of Law and Professor of Public Health, The Johns Hopkins University; Director, Center for Law and the Public's Health, Georgetown University Law Center discusses the challenges and dilemmas faced by public health professionals.	Public Health Foundation, Publication Sales
Ethics in Surgery Curriculum. "Principles for Communicating Bad News" and "Advanced Directives and Withdrawal/Withholding of Treatment" (1999?)	1999	VHS		A curriculum developed by Peter Angelos, M.D., Ph.D. and Debra A. DeRosa, Ph.D. to educate surgery residents at Northwestern University about ethics in surgery. The curriculum includes text (3-ring binder), overhead transparencies, and two videos "Princi	Susan Kepner, Executive Director, Educational Clearinghouse, Association for Surgical Education, Alliance for Clinical Education
Ethics in the Age of Bioterrorism (2005)	2005	VHS	90 minutes	This program addresses the ethical complexities that public health workers, medical professionals, and other professionals face when public health emergencies occur -- whether they are caused by natural disasters or	Public Health Foundation
Ethics on Trial	1986	VHS	58 minutes	man-made disasters, including terrorist	WETA, Washington
Ethics Outlook 2003-2004	2004	DVD	00	The DVD is intended for use in classrooms and is accompanied by a teaching note and brochure about the program. Topics are presented in short three to five minute segments. Topics are "Ethical Dilemmas Facing Governing Boards of Organizations," "Ethical	Markkula Center for Applied Ethics
Ethics Seminar Euthanasia - Tape One 1990 March 31 (1990)	1990	VHS
Ethics Seminar Euthanasia - Tape Two 1990 March 31 (1990)	1990	VHS
Ethics: What Is It and Why Is It Important: Michael Stigl		DVD		"Features interviews with the series' speakers on topics such as the role of moral theory in practice." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Ethics: What Is Right?	2004	VHS/DVD	50	Moral philosophy lies at the heart of today's most heated issues - abortion, human cloning, assisted suicide, financial conflicts of interest, and environmental stewardship. In this program, Harvard University's Frances Kamm; Rutgers University's Larry Te	Film Media Group
Euthanasia	1989	VHS	44 minutes	Netherlands physicians and lawyers stress the voluntary nature of euthanasia in Holland. Their views are followed by Canadian physicians speaking pro and con about euthanasia.	Filmakers Library
Euthanasia (1986)	1986	VHS	25 minutes	John Glaser of St. Joseph Health Center interviews the Rev. Richard McCormick, SJ, and Daniel Maguire, MD, on euthanasia. Dr. Maguire discusses cases including one discussed in Stewart Alsop's book about his cancer, and says that he thinks that could ad	Sheed and Ward

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Euthanasia (1989)	1989	DVD	46 minutes, 15 s	"The boundary between life and death is no longer clear. Modern technology has made it possible to postpone, control, or induce death. But when does it become morally legitimate to disconnect life-supporting machinery or guide the patient into an "easy"	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
Euthanasia (1990)	1990	VHS	180 minutes (ap	The tapes show various people discussing the issues involved in legalizing euthanasia. The speakers include Derek Humphry, then director of the Hemlock Society, speaking on ``The Right to Choose to Die''with Prof. Martin Cook responding to Humphry's talk	Center for Applied Ethics
Euthanasia: Murder or Mercy? (1985)	1985	VHS	30 minutes	The Hemlock Society spokespersons explain living wills and durable power of attorney at a society meeting.	Churchill Films
Everyday Choices (2003)	2003	DVD	28 minutes	Following Allison, a visiting nurse, and Gerardo, a home-care patient with developing dementia, this program explores the boundaries between patient autonomy and human compassion and safety and professional roles. The documentary was produced by Ben Act	Fanlight Productions
Everywoman: Pregnancy Disability (program aired on Channel 9, WUSA in Washington, DC on Saturday, August 13, 1977) [includes an interview with Andre Hellegers, M.D., first director of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics]	1977	U-Matic		Program on pregnancy disability, includes an interview with Andre Hellegers, M.D., first director of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics. Everywoman was a daily one-hour talk show that aired on Channel 9 WUSA in Washington, DC. The program was co-hosted by J	Channel 9, WUSA, Washington, DC
Evolving Concern: Protection for Human Subjects (1986)	1986	VHS	23 minutes	The film is concerned with the well-being and rights of biomedical or behavioral research volunteers. It stresses the importance of voluntary informed consent.	Office for Human Research Protections VIDEO
Fat Man and Little Boy (1989)	1989	VHS	127 minutes	"Academy Award-winner Paul Newman heads a superb cast in the powerful true story of the creation of the first atomic bombs, called Fat Man and Little Boy. Newman plays Leslie Groves, the hard-nosed general in charge of 'The Manhattan Project.' Dwight Sch	Paramount Pictures
Fatal Illness is Truth Right for All Patients	1970	U-Matic		Fatal Illness is Truth Right for All Patients	Network for Continuing Medical Education [NCME]
Father Knows Best: A Case Study about Advance Directives		VHS	12 minutes; 23 s	"John, a successful engineer diagnosed with a brain tumor, has lapsed into a coma. In spite of John's advance directive, his wife, at the urging of their physician and friend, has permitted the insertion of a feeding tube. John's son becomes his father'	Midwest Bioethics Center
Fertility Scandals: Doctors Playing God	1998	DVD	22 minutes	"Whistle-blowers in a landmark fertility clinic bioethics case called it biomedical rape: the misappropriation of a patients extra embryos for implantation into other unsuspecting patients. In this program, CBS News correspondent Richard Schlesinger repo	Films Media Group, Inc. (Films for the Humanities & Sciences)

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Fetal Rights (1987)	1987	VHS	28 minutes	A studio audience composed of health care officials, physicians, law scholars, and interested laypersons discusses a pregnant woman's right to behave as she wishes on the television program Express (San Francisco KQED). Pamela Ray Stewart had sex with he	Films for the Humanities and Sciences
Fidelity, Wisdom & Love: Patients and Proxies in Partnership [Video and Workbook] (2003)	2003	VHS	11 minutes, 17 s	The emphasis in this video program and the interactive workbook is on the health care proxy and the good communication and trust necessary to share your own wishes for health care and for your health care proxy to ask questions to understand your wishes.	Fidelity, Wisdom and Love
Field of Genes (1998)	1998	VHS	44 minutes (in 2	"Technology has quietly slipped into the food chain, shifting genes from one life form to another. Multinational chemical companies have created genetically altered potatoes, corn, soybeans and canola--that variously are toxic to pests, herbicide tolera	Bullfrog Films
Final Choices (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The panel discusses the ethical, legal and social questions raised in medical care of the elderly and dilemmas of modern death and dying. Moderated by Benno C. Schmidt, Jr.	Seminars on Media & Society
Forgiving Dr. Mengele (2005)	2005	DVD	80 minutes	""Forgiving Dr. Mengele'tells the story of a shocking act of forgiveness by Auschwitz survivor Eva Mozes Kor and the firestorm of criticism it has provoked. Eva and her twin sister, Miriam, were victims of of Nazi doctor Josef Mengele's cruel genetic expe	First Run / Icarus Films
Forum on Cloning: Video Set	1997	VHS		On June 25, 1997, the American Association for the Advancement of Science Programs of Dialogue Between Science and Religion and Scientific Freedom, Responsibility, and Law sponsored a Forum on Cloning at the AAAS headquarters in Washington, DC. The forum	AAAS (Bob Bobala)
Forum: Bioethics and the Human Genome (2001)	2001	VHS	98 minutes	Panel discussion on medical and genetic ethics held in Charlottesville, VA on March 22, 2001 as part of the Virginia Festival of the Book. Panel members were Jonathan Moreno, Director, University of Virginia, Center for Biomedical Ethics; James Childress	C-SPAN Archives, ID 163476
Forum: Biotechnology and Ethics	1998	VHS	72 minutes	Panel discussion. Panelists were: Freeman Dyson, Professor, Physics, Princeton University; Sheldon Schuster, Director, University of Florida Biotechnology Program; Martha Reitman, President and CEO, Reitman Corporation; Fonald Cole- Turner, Professor, Pi	Chautauqua Institution
Four of a Kind		DVD	11:03 minutes	This program actually is comprised of excerpts from four of five of the Nicholas Green Foundation videos. It can run on a continuous loop for showing when people do not have the time to watch a full video.	Nicholas Green Foundation
Frankenstein (1931)	1931	VHS	71 minutes	"The greatest horror film of all time! Dr. Frankenstein (Colin Clive) dares to tamper with life and death by creating a human monster (Boris Karloff) in his laboratory; but his dreams of perfection are thwarted when the monster becomes an uncontrollable b	MCA Home Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
From Animal Showboat to Animal Lifeboat: Detroit Zoological Institute		VHS
From Chance to Choice: The Revolution in Molecular Medicine (1987)	1987	VHS	60 minutes	Nobel prize winners discuss their work, explaining the history and development of molecular biology and the 'revolution' in genetics. They raise ethical questions that may pose future problems.	PBS Video
From Competence to Coma: Understanding Advance Directives	1992	VHS	42 minutes	"This videotape gives medical caregivers, clergy, laypersons, and patients an in-depth understanding of advance directives. It features Henry S. Perkins, M. D., Associate Professor of medical Ethics at the University of Texas Health Science Center. Perk	J. W. Gregg Meister, M. Div., Interlink Video Productions, Inc.
From Homo Sapiens to Techno Sapiens: Protecting the Essence of Being Human	2006	DVD	60 minutes		Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
From Rules to Caring Practices: Ethics and Community-Based Care for Elders (2001)	2001	VHS	15 minutes, 30 s	The video contains 4 vignettes of approximately 3 minutes each. The Story of Mrs. Ponte (3:24), But I Feel So Bad (3:43), Family Troubles (3:22), and Does Mrs. Jones Want to Die? (3:19). These vignettes replicate the print version of the case narrative	Fanlight Productions
Front Wards, Back Wards (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	57	"Now in her early thirties, Patti has severe physical and mental disabilities and requires specialized care. Her sister Cathy is full of praise for the staff of the Fernald Center, where Patti lives. But other residents have horrible memories of abuse and	Fanlight Productions
Frontline: Dangerous Prescription (2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes	"As medications play an ever-increasing role in modern health care, the importance of FDA approval to consumers, it would seem, has never been greater. For many, the phrase "FDA approved" signifies that a drug or product is completely safe and without ri	WGBH Educational Foundation
Frontline: Organ Farm (2000)	2000	VHS	120 minutes	"Imagine a world where every patient who needed an organ transplant could receive one right away. Such a future may not be far off thanks to xenotransplantation, the experimental process of transplanting genetically modified pig cells and whole organs in	WGBH Educational Foundation
Gattaca (1997)	1997	VHS	106 minutes	"Ethan Hawke, Uma Thurman, Alan Arkin and Jude Law star in this engrossing sci-fi thriller about an all-too-human man who dares to defy a system obsessed with genetic perfection. Hawke stars as Vincent, an "In-Valid", who assumes the identity of a member	Columbia Pictures
Gene Blues: Dilemmas of DNA Testing (1997)	1997	VHS	31 minutes	"The discovery of the structure of DNA may have the most far-reaching consequences of any of this century's amazing scientific advances. As geneticists unlock the DNA code, they learn how differences in the DNA that makes of particular genes are linked t	Bullfrog Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Genes on Trial: Genetics, Behavior, and the Law (2002)	2002	VHS	57 minutes	"Could genetic research stigmatize people who carry a "bad" gene? Could their behavior actually be determined by that gene? If so, then just how free is free will? Moderated by Harvard Law School's Charles Ogletree, this Fred Friendly Seminar scrutinizes	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Genetic Testing: The Scientific, Social, Ethical and Legal Applications and Implications in the Criminal Justice System (2000)	2000	VHS	25 minutes	One video in the North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]'s annual series. A discussion guide accompanies the video.	North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]
Giving Bad News: Practical Advice for End of Life Situations(2005)	2005	DVD	120 minutes	Practical advice for physicians about how to share bad news with patients. This version provides a one-to-one doctor and patient meeting as well as a meeting with the family and the health care team. A 30 page Facilitator's Guide with background informa	Media Services
Global Bioethics for Long-Term Human Survival	1998	vhs	42 minutes
Global Health Ethics: Duty, Justice and Responsibility: James Dwyer		DVD		"What are we to make of a world with such unequal health prospects? What does justice demand in terms of global health? do those working in health care in the developed world have a duty to anything about it? In this 22 minute DVD presentation, Dr. Jame	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Good Neighbors		VHS		[research ethics - community-based research at the Africa Centre in Kwazulu Natat, South Africa]	Program on Ethical Issues in International Health Research, Harvard School of Public Health
Gorillas in the Mist (1989)	1989	VHS	129 minutes	"Based on the true story of young anthropologist Dian Fossey (Sigourney Weaver) who travels to the African mountains to study the rare gorillas. In this incredible paradise which she describes as being 'as close to God as you can get,' her interest in th	MCA Home Video
Grand Rounds Lecture 1999: Father Richard McCormick	1999	DVD
Habeas Corpus (2005)	2005	DVD	20 minutes	"The documentary is about Tatielle's suffering, a young woman from Morrinhos, a town in Goi?s state's rural area. She was five months pregnant of a fetus that wouldn't survive the delivery, when a judge authorized her to perform an abortion. A habeas corp	ANIS: Institute of Bioethics, Human Rights and Gender
Hable con Ella [Talk to Her] (2002)	2002	DVD			Amazon.com
Half Life: A Parable for the Nuclear Age (1986)	1986	VHS	86 minutes	"Most of us imagine the Pacific as a place of idyllic tropical islands, beautiful beaches and sparkling seas, where carefree islanders live contentedly in Paradise. In the Nuclear Age this is sadly no longer the case.With terrifying calm, Half Lif	Direct Cinema Limited

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Harbor of Hope: Living with a Chronic or Life-Threatening Illness	1994	DVD	37	"An excellent resource for training for nursing and medical students. Harbor of Hope was produced to inspire hope and faith in people living with life challenges. Though the people interviewed are coping with breast and ovarian cancer, AIDS and multiple s	Aquarius Productions
Harvest of Fear (2001)	2001	VHS	120 minutes	"Are genetically modified foods vital to ending world hunger and reducing pollution or will "Frankenfoods" ruin health and provoke environmental disaster? NOVA and Frontline investigate the perils and potential of genetic modification. Biotech scientists	PBS
Healing by Killing (1998)	1998	VHS	90 minutes	"the denial of the Hippocratic oath by German doctors was a crucial factor in creating the Nazi killing machine. As early as 1940, during a mercy killing operation (euthanasia), medical doctors and scientists had developed the first model of the gaschamb	New Yorker Films
Health by River and Road: Doctors in Rural Ecuador		DVD		Dr. Edgar Rodas has dedicated his life to improving the health conditions for underserved communities in his native Ecuador. Health by River and Road follows the doctor and his dedicated team of doctors as they treat patients in Ecuador's underserved coas
Health Care for All (2008)	2008	audio		Audio series compares various aspects of health care systems in the United States, France, Germany, Great Britain, The Netherlands, and Switzerland.
Health Care on the Critical List (1985)	1985	VHS	30 minutes	Actor Jack Klugman narrates this 30 minute version of an hour long public television program, pointing out that the cost of health care doubled annually between 1955 and 1985. Health care has had a blank check for any medical intervention, which the film	Filmakers Library
Health Care System Reform: The Issues. Excerpts from the 37th Annual National Health Care Forum: "Costs Up...Access Down" (1990)	1990	VHS	180 minutes	Excerpts from the 37th annual Health Care Forum: "Costs Up... Access Down" sponsored by the National Health Council and the accounting firm of Ernst and Young, note the spiralling cost of health care in the United States in an era of reduced assets. Eleve	National Health Council
Health Quarterly, Fall 1991, Program #102 (covers three topics: Oregon Experiment, rationing in the emergency room, and AIDS)	1991	VHS	58 minutes	This program (No. 102) is narrated by Roger Mudd. Three topics are covered: "The Oregon Experiment" -- priority setting in health care; "hidden rationing in the emergency room"; and a report on AIDS and health care for people with AIDS. This program air	PBS
Healthcare Crisis: Who's at Risk? (2000)	2000	VHS	56 minutes	"A timely and provocative one-hour documentary, Healthcare Crisis: Who's at Risk? explores the human side of the healthcare crisis in America. Focusing on the plight of the uninsured and the other struggles in our healthcare system today, Healthcare Cris	Issues TV

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Hear and Now: The Cochlear Implant in the Later Years (2007)	2007	DVD	85	This is the first film to follow an elderly couple who decide to have cochlear implants after a lifetime of silence. In this deeply personal memoir, the filmmaker documents her deaf parents, Paul and Sally Taylor, who decide at age 65 to undergo this cont	Filmakers Library
Heaven Only Knows (1995)	1995	VHS	10 minutes	This program highlights ethical dilemmas arising in decision making and uncertainty about medical interventions in children. It is a "discussion opener" that is accompanied by a discussion guide and an annotated bibliography. This program may be used fo	Bioethics Department, Hospital for Sick Children
Help Me Die (1990)	1990	VHS	48 minutes	This film "probes the ethical and moral issues involved when loved ones who are terminally ill ask their physician or a family member for assistance in ending their life. It profiles both individuals who desperately want to end their pain by suicide, sui	Fanlight Productions
Henry: One Man's Way (1997)	1997	VHS	53 minutes	Animal rights activist Henry Spira almost single-handedly put the issue of animal testing on the radar screen of everyday people and brought about a change in corporate thinking. This program profiles his life and work and offers a portrait of a focused	Bullfrog Films; Centre Park Video and Gifts
Hiding and Seeking (2004)	2004	DVD	85 minutes	"This award-winning documentary tells the dramatic and emotional story of a Jewish father who journeys with his two ultra-orthodox sons back to Poland to try to find the Christian farmers who hid their family from the Nazis. His hope is to instill in his	First Run Features, The Film Center Building
High Tech Babies: Technology and Ethics of In Vitro Fertilization (1986)	1986	VHS	58 minutes	Reproductive technologies available to infertile couples are described in this public television program. They include cryopreservation, in vitro transfer of an embryo to a host mother, and embryo flushing from a surrogate to an intended mother. The ethi	Coronet Film & Video
Hitler and the Nazis Box Set: The Architecture of Doom (1991); The Eye of Vichy (2003); and In the Shadow of the Reich (1997) and The Cross and the Star: Jews, Christians and The Holocaust (1992)	1991	DVD	119 minutes; 10	This box set of videos contains a great deal of archival footage about the Nazi propaganda machine and the documentary truth of what happened under the Third Reich. Three titles are contained in the box set. The Architecture of Doom "looks at the rise of	First Run Features
HIV-AIDS: Legal and Ethical Issues (1990)	1990	VHS	90 minutes	Midwest university professors including two physicians, two lawyers and a theologian meet to discuss job discrimination, health insurance, testing without permission, and other problems encountered by HIV/AIDS patients. Rob Crane, M.D. moderates the panel	East Central AIDS Education & Training Center
Hold Your Breath		DVD	58	Hold Your Breath supplements Worlds Apart with a full-length version of the story of Mohammad Kochi, a devout Muslim who faces possible death from stomach cancer. His American doctors try to respect his viewpoints, but cultural and linguistic confusions g	Fanlight Productions
Homo Sapiens 1900 (1999)	1999	VHS	88 minutes	Using archival footage and written documents, this film "examines the social and political undercurrents that helped generate the often-feverish quest to build a superior race. In the United States the American Eugenics Society promoted the ratification	First Run / Icarus Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Hope is the Thing with Feathers	2005	DVD	28	"This contemplative film examines issues of caregiving for a dying partner and the anticipation of one's own death. It looks at illness and bereavement as possibilities for creative expression, and for emotional and spiritual transformation. The film is l	New Day Films: http://www.newday.com
Hotel Rwanda (2004)	2004	DVD	121 minutes	This true story about the Tutsi genocide in Rwanda speaks to the courage of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager, who provided refuge to more than 1000 Tutsi refugees in the hotel. Hutu militia carried out mass murder of Tutsi citizens of Rwanda within a pe	http://www.Amazon.com
How Do You Say Thank You?: An African America Perspective on Organ & Tissue Donation		DVD	11:00	"In African American donor families and recipients tell their poignant and inspiring stories about organ donation." Produced with the National Minority Organ Tissue Transplant Education Program [MOTTEP]. The Nicholas Green Foundation was recognized by MO	Nicholas Green Foundation
How Much More: Decisions Near the End of Life (1988)	1988	VHS	28 minutes	Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino moderates panel members George Annas, Paul B. Hofman, Darlene Jelinek, Bernard Lo, Joanne Lynn, Catherine Murphy, and Susan Wolf in a discussion of patient care near the end of life, stressing the role of law in such care. Confl	Education Development Center
How Smart Must One Be to Be a Person? (1978)	1978	U-Matic	55 minutes	Talk by Daniel Wikler, Ph.D. Assistant Professor, Program in Medical Ethics and Department of Philosophy, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin. Filmed at the Ethical Issues in Mental Retardation Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin on June 23 and
How to Have a Good Life and a Good Death (2003)	2003	DVD		"It seems almost flippant to describe it that way, but it is a subject that is still taboo in America. How we deal with the end of life is something that we could have a lot of control over but don't. Tonight Nightline looks at one woman's attempt to co	ABC News Store
Human Cloning Public Policy Issues. National Academy of Sciences Forum (2001 August 7) (Part 3)	2001	VHS	1 hour 12 minut	"Professors talked about the ethics of human cloning for both therapeutic and reproductive reasons. Among the topics they addressed were methods of cloning, potential dangers involved, and potential benefits of cloning. Following their remarks they answe	C-SPAN Archives, ID 165550-3
Human Cloning Research. National Academy of Sciences Forum (2001 August 7) (Part 1)	2001	VHS	1 hours 36 minu	The scientists provided background information on a variety of topics, including embryology, scientific issues underlying cloning, and the role of mitochondria. After their presentations, the scientists answered questions from persons serving on the Nati	C-SPAN Archives, ID 165550-1
Human Dignity and Human Cloning (January 2003)	2003	VHS		This panel discussion of the President's Council on Bioethics report "Human Dignity and Human Cloning" (released in July 2002 and available online at http://www.bioethics.gov/reports/cloningreport/pcbe_cloning_report.pdf), was sponsored by the Kennedy In	Kennedy Institute of Ethics
Human Experimentation: From Tuskegee 1932 to Today (April 27, 2005)	2005	VHS; DVD	23:30 minutes	Mary Starke Harper, Ph.D., R.N., was a student nurse during the federally-funded study of untreated syphilis among African American men in Tuskegee, Alabama. When she spoke about the history of human experimentation at the University of Virginia, Newcomb	University of Virginia, Public Relations

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Human Guinea Pigs: Suicide Missions		VHS	50 minutes	"They volunteer to go where man has never gone before, be it parachuting from the edge of space to testing drugs before they are allowed into the market. But what drives these Human Guinea Pigs to risk their health, safety and lives for the sake of other	A & E Web Interactive
Human Reproductive Cloning. National Academy of Sciences Forum (2001 August 7) (Part 2)	2001	VHS	1 hour 31 minutes	"In sometimes heated exchanges, a panel of experts [NAS Public Panel on Human Reproductive Cloning] questioned scientists about their plans to begin human cloning research. Among the issues addressed were ethical concerns, the safety of cloning research,	C-SPAN Archives, ID 165550-1
I Had an Abortion (2005)	2005	VHS/DVD	55	"Cutting across age, race, class, and religion, the film unfolds personal narratives with interviews, archival footage, and home movies. Florence Rice speaks without regret about her abortion in the 1930s; Marion Banzhaf, explains how, inspired by both th	Women Make Movies, Inc Orders Department
I Need It to Make Sense: Reflections on Caring for Dying Children and Their Families (2003)	2003	DVD	27 minutes	"In this video, health care professionals from a variety of disciplines discuss the emotional and spiritual impact of working in pediatric palliative care." This video is intended for use in Module 4: Responding to Suffering and Bereavement, Activities 1	Center for Applied Ethics, Education Development Center, Inc.
Ich Klage An	1941	VHS; DVD	110 minutes	Wolfgang Liebeneiner's Ich kalg an (I Accuse) is a lyrical treatment of a controversial topic - mercy killing - featuring sensitive performances by Paul Hartmann as a physician who administers a fatal overdose to his incurably ill wife; Heidemarie Hatheye	International Historic Films, Inc.
If Symptoms Persist (2008)	2008	DVD		"Shot in Accra, Ghana, If Symptoms Persist is a documentary on the issues regarding fake drugs in developing nations revealed by key stakeholders on the Ghanaian drug scene. The half-hour feature shows exclusive interviews with government decision makers	mPedigree http://mpedigree.org/home/symptoms.php
If These Walls Could Talk (1996)	1996	VHS	97 minutes	"If These Walls Could Talk is a powerful, intimate portrait of how times and freedoms have changed. It will shock you. It will surprise you. And no matter where you stand on the issue, it will force you to think again. A recently widowed nurse (Demi M	HBO Original Movies Home Video
Illegal Abortion (1966)	1966	DVD	25		IndiePix Films
Illness as Experience (1998)	1998	VHS	25 minutes	This film is intended for use primarily by medical students to teach them about the patient's experience of illness. The interviewer sits and talks with Ray, a patient, and his physician of over 30 years, Dr. Braveman.	Angelo Volandes
I'm a Veteran. Should I Participate in Research? Here Are Some Things You NEED to Know (2003)	2003	VHS	7 minutes, 25 seconds	"This 8-minute video is intended for veterans and families who are interested in learning more about human reserach in the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). It has a balanced view of VA research and summarizes patients' rights and welfare when they pa	Department of Veterans Affairs

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
In Defense of Animals: A Portrait of Peter Singer (1990)	1990	VHS	28 minutes	Australian philosopher Peter Singer presents his theories about the rights of animals which he believes have been abused in research and in factory farming. He thinks that animals are independent, sentient beings, and not a means to human ends.	Bullfrog Films
In My Father's Church (2004)	2004	VHS/DVD	49	Charissa is a lesbian who wants a church wedding. But her father, the pastor of the town's United Methodist Church, would put his career at risk if he were to officiate the ceremony. Compelling and honest, this poignant film explores the intersection of h	Women Make Movies, Inc. Orders Department
In Need of a Map! Concepts and Frameworks in Ethical Decision Making: Patricia Rodney & Michael McDonald		DVD		"Discusses the concepts of group dynamics, deliberation and decision-making as they relate to clinical care." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
In Sickness or In Health: Making Decisions in Long-Term Care	1990	VHS	33 minutes	This film is directed to health care staff. It discusses patients and their rights in nursing homes and raises the issue of health care decision making for both incompetent and competent residents. The program provides an overview of the role and functi	Choice in Dying
In the Absence of Angels: A Report on the Homeless Mentally Ill (1988)	1988	VHS	28 minutes	Psychiatrists John Talbott and H. Richard Lamb each present views and statistics on the homeless mentally ill.	Reorig Pfizer
In the Family (2008?)	2008	DVD		Filmmaker Joanna Rudnick tested positive for the "breast cancer gene" at the age of 27. The information she receives could save her life, but it also forces her to face an impossible decision for a single young woman: remove her breasts and ovaries or ri	First Run Features
In the Gloaming (1997)	1997	VHS	62 minutes	"In an extraordinary and critically acclaimed directorial debut, Christopher Reeve takes you on an extraordinary journey into the life of one small family at a turning point in their existence. Danny (Robert Sean Leonard) has come home to die. A young m	HBO Original Movies Home Video
In the Lab: Mentors and Students Behind the Scenes (2004)	2004	DVD	80 minutes	This three-part video explores important issues in laboratory practices in academic research. Topics include choosing a mentor, avoiding scientific misconduct, and interdisciplinary collaboration and good authorship practices. The video may be viewed onl	Center for Ethics & Values in the Sciences, University of Alabama at Birmingham
In the Morning (2004)	2004	VHS/DVD	10	In this award-winning short drama, a young Turkish woman is brutally attacked, and the responsibility of restoring her family's lost 'honor' is left in the hands of her brother: a thirteen-year-old boy. Based on a true story, Lurie's film is a revelation,	Women Make Movies, Inc. Orders Department
In the Shadow of the Reich: Nazi Medicine (1997; with 1930s footage)	1997	VHS	54 minutes	"This documentary studies the step-by-step process that led the medical profession in the Third Reich down an unethical road to genocide. It graphically documents the racial theories and eugenics principles that set the stage for the doctors' participati	First Run Features

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
In Your Hands: The Tools for Preserving Personal Autonomy (1987)	1987	VHS	16 1/2 minutes	Actress Helen Hayes discusses personal finances, aging, and estate planning for women. Information about living wills and durable power of attorney are presented by attorney Peter Strauss who says they serve as a means to insure personal choices in decisions.	Modern Talking Picture Service
Innovation: Genetic Prophecy		VHS			WNET/Thirteen
Innovation: The Gene Machine (1988)	1988	VHS			WNET/Thirteen
Innovations in Trauma Training with Henry Heimlich, M.D. (1997)	1997	VHS	15 minutes	The Maryland Institute for Emergency Medical Services Systems (MIEMSS) in Baltimore has developed an innovative program using life-like simulators and human cadavers to teach the life-saving skills taught in trauma training classes offered by many medical schools.	Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine (PCRM)
Innovative Treatments, Extraordinary Outcomes (2007)	2007	DVD		This DVD provides an overview of the liver, kidney, and pancreas transplantation surgeries offered by the Georgetown Transplant Institute, established in 1998.	Georgetown Transplant Institute
Integrity in Scientific Research: Five Video Vignettes (1996)	1996	VHS	Only a Bridge, 8 minutes; Noah's Dilemma, 9 minutes; Of Mice and Men, 9 minutes; Sharing in Science, 9 minutes; Where Credit is Due, 9 minutes; The Whole Truth, 10 minutes	"The videos dramatize realistic situations that raise ethical issues in research but leave the participants; dilemmas unresolved, making them ideal for stimulating discussion. The dramas highlight gray areas of research where reasonable people can differ	Science Integrity Videos, AAAS Directorate for Science and Policy Programs
Intensive Care (1996)	1996	VHS	60 minutes	This one hour program focuses on a unique team of ethicists at the University of Chicago Medical Center. The program is a four-part story that takes the viewer behind the scenes to the bedside to examine the state of the world of medical ethics in a society.	NBC Dateline
Introducing TJ: Therapeutic Jurisprudence (2000)	2000	VHS	27 minutes	This program introduces the concept of "therapeutic jurisprudence," in the approach of the law toward those who violate the law as a result of severe mental disorders. "Judge Ginger Lerner-Wren in Fort Lauderdale, Florida has been instrumental in developing	Fanlight Productions
Introduction to Bioethics: A Provincial Health Ethics Network [PHEN] Distance Education Course: What Part Do Principles Play? [53:26]; Respect for Autonomy [54:08]; On Being Good: Virtue Ethics [1:05:41] (2001)	2001	VHS	54 minutes; 54 minutes	A distance education course by the Provincial Health Ethics Network [PHEN] on an Introduction to Bioethics. The course covers the topics of principlism; autonomy; and virtue ethics. Tom Beauchamp, Robert M. Veatch, and Edmund D. Pellegrino appear in the	Provincial Health Ethics Network, Room 222, Aberhart Centre Two

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Investigator 101 Training		CD-ROM		Part 1- The History and Ethics of Human Subject Research with Dr. Jeffrey Cooper Part 2 - The Top 10 Responsibilities of Investigators with Ms. Ada Sue Selwitz	US Department of Health and Human Services
Iranian Kidney Bargain Sale (2007)	2007	Online	52 minutes	This documentary follows young Iranian people through the organ trade process from their first discussion about organ donation to kidney removal. The warning on the site indicates adult content.
Iris (2001)	2001	VHS	90 minutes	This movie tells the story of English novelist and philosopher Iris Murdoch. It is based on a Elegy for Iris (1998), a book by John Bayley, her husband. In her late 70s, Murdoch developed Alzheimer's Disease (originally thought to be temporary writer's b	Buena Vista Home Entertainment, Inc.
Is It a Boy or a Girl (1999)	1999	VHS	53 minutes; 6 se	This Discovery Channel documentary focuses on children born with mixed sexual characteristics and examines the standard practice of surgical sexual assignment in infancy. One of every two thousand children born in America is born with mixed sexual charac	Intersex Society of North America [ISNA]
Is This Life Worth Living? (1987)	1987	VHS	30 minutes	The videocassette presents both sides of the euthanasia issue by focusing on case studies of incompetent patients, some of whose families want treatment stopped while other families insist that treatment continue.	Filmakers Library
Issues at the End of Life: Caring Ethically: Peter A. Singer		DVD		"Introduces end-of-life issues such as withholding versus withdrawing care, nutrition and hydration, euthanasia, and advance directives." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Issues in Clinical Teaching: A Moral Dilemma (1980)	1980	VHS	90 minutes (app	Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino lectures to the medical students and faculty at the University of Miami Medical School.
Issues Raised by Human Cloning Research (2001)	2001	VHS	5 hours	Hearing of the United States, Congress, House, Committee on Energy and Commerce, Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations. Witnesses at the hearing: Panel 1: Dr. Thomas B. Okarma, President and CEO Geron Corporation; Dr. Rudolf Jaenishch, Professor o	CNN
J. D. Watson's 60th Birthday (1988 April)	1988	VHS			Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory
Japanese Relocation: Internment Camps & Tale of Two Cities	2005	DVD	23	Both films on one DVD, total running time 23 minutes Internment Camps - the official Government whitewash documentary about the removal of 110,000 Japanese (two thirds of them US citizens) from the potential combat zone of the West coast to relocation cam	International Historic Films
Jewish Biomedical Ethics (1983)	1983	3/4"	30 minutes	Tape of a July 17, 1983, discussion moderated by Michael Berenbaum of the Jewish Community Hour. Isaac Franck and Teo Forcht Dagi are panel members.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
John Q (2002)	2002	VHS	112 minutes	"Oscar winner Denzel Washington stars as John Q. Archivald, an everyday man forced to take drastic measures in a desperate situation. When his young son collapses, John Q. and his wife learn that their only child needs a heart transplant. Without enough	New Line Productions, Inc., New Line Home Entertainment, Inc.
John's Story: A Case Study about the Rights of Minors in Health Care Decisions		VHS	15 minutes, 12 s	"William Bartholome, MD, MTS, tells a case study from his experience as a practicing physician. Fourteen-year-old John, suffering from chronic cystic fibrosis, chooses to stop efforts to keep himself alive and runs into a wall of resistance." [Descriptio	Midwest Bioethics Center
Judgment day: intelligent design on trial (2007)	2007	DVD	112 minutes	"In a tiny town of Dover in eastern Pennsylvania, in 2004, the local school board ordered science teachers to read to their high school biology students a statement that suggested there is an alternative to Darwin's theory of evolution called "Intelligent	www.shopPBS.org
Junior (1994)	1994	VHS	110 minutes	What happens when Arnold Schwarzenegger gets pregnant? The hilarious answer is delivered in this delightful comedy from Ivan Reitman, the director of Ghostbusters and Twins. Co- starring Danny DeVito and Academy Award winner Emma Thompson, it s a radian	MCA Universal Pictures
Jurassic Park (1993)	1993	VHS	127 minutes	Billionaire Attenborough invites paleontologists Dern and Neill and mathematician Goldblum to inspect his island amusement park, populated with living dinosaurs; he even has his grandchildren tag along, blissfully unconvinced that anything could go wrong.	MCA Universal Home Video
Kennedy Institute of Ethics - Honorary Degree Ceremony (Doctorate of Humane Letters Honoris Causa) for Eunice Kennedy Shriver and Inaugural Lecture by I. John Keown, D.Phil., Ph.D. for the Rose F. Kennedy Chair in Christian Ethics (2003)	2003	VHS		On April 14, 2003, the KIE Member's Day program focused on an address by John Keown, D.Phil, Ph.D., the inaugural lecture for his appointment to the Rose F. Kennedy Chair in Christian Ethics at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics. Dr. Keown spoke against	Kennedy Institue of Ethics
Lake of Fire (2007)	2007	DVD	152 minutes	This documentary program explores both sides of the abortion debate in detail. Alan Dershowitz, Nat Hentoff, Randall Terry, Noam Chomsky, Norma McCorvey (Jane Roe), and Flip Benham all appear.
Landmark Trials of Modern Ethics (1994)	1994	VHS		This series includes 5 different titles focusing on major trials focused on ethical issues. [see individual records for more information about titles] Michigan v. Anderson - A Right to Life or Death; In Re Michael Martin - A Battle Over Life Support; Mich	http://www.Amazon.com
Last Rights (1987)	1987	VHS	58 minutes	Euthanasia or mercy killing is the subject of a documentary PBS TV program. Living wills and the steps individuals can take to control their own medical care are also examined.
Last Rights: Facing End-of-Life Choices (2009)	2009	DVD	56 minutes	"Who decides how life ends? The patient? The family? The physician? The health care system? This is a compelling and deeply personal exploration of four families and their terminally-ill loved ones as they face death. It brings up a multitude of issues	Filmakers Library

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Leadership for Our Nation's Health: AAMC Awards Dinner	1997	VHS			Visual Aids Electronics
Learning from Patients: The Science of Medicine (2004)	2004	VHS	240 minutes	This program covers cancer and neuroscience. Tape A, lecture one: Research mechanics: putting the brakes on cancer; Tape A, lecture two: Chaos to cure: bringing basic research to patients. Tape B, lecture three: A Healthy nervous system: a delicate bala	Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI)
Let Their Voices Be Heard: Children's Stories of Grief	2004	DVD	56	"Explaining death and dying to a child is a difficult task. This film is aimed at understanding the experiences and needs of children who are facing loss and grief. Helping children to develop concepts and coping strategies to recognize and respond to los	Aquarius Productions
Life Continues (1980)	1980	VHS	15 minutes	The dramatization discusses potential organ donors and portrays possible ways health personnel might approach either a donor or a donor's family about procuring organs.	Walter Klein Co.
Life Matters: Arthritis & Liver Transplant (1988)	1988	VHS	56 minutes	Two separate topics are included on one videocassette. Part 1 is concerned with chronic arthritis, and features former baseball star Mickey Mantle and his wife. Part 2 is 27 minutes long; it discusses the health care of two young people with liver probl	PBS Video
Life Patent Pending (1982)	1982	VHS	58 minutes	The film presents comments by various university and industry scientists on the 1980 U.S. Supreme Court decision (Diamond vs. Chakrabarty) ruling that new life forms can be patented.	Ambrose Video Publishing, Inc.
Life Running Out of Control: Gene Food and Designerbabies	2004	DVD	95	"Thorough examination of the issues surrounding the genetic manipulation of plants, animals and human beings" [from Bullfrog Films flyer]	Bullfrog Films, Inc.
Life's Greatest Miracle (2001)	2001	DVD	60 minutes	"A remake of Lennart Nilsson's world famous film "Miracle of Life," this completely updated edition tells the inside-the-womb story of human life from conception to birth using the latest technological advances in microscopy and medical imaging" [descript	ShopPBS
Lifestory: A Guide to Living Donation and Kidney Transplant		VHS			Roche Laboratories Inc.
Lights Breaking: Ethical Questions about Genetic Engineering (1986)	1986	VHS	59 minutes	Six persons from different disciplines discuss the philosophical and ethical impact of DNA research as they raft down a scenic river.	Bullfrog Films
Live and Let Go: An American Death (2002)	2002	VHS	56 minutes	Sam Niver was diagnosed with terminal prostate cancer at the age of 76. He was a World War II veteran, newspaperman, and loving husband, father, and friend and decided that he would end his own life. This film helps to explain his decision. Jay Niver,	Fanlight Productions
Living and Healing During Life-Threatening illness. Supportive Care of the Dying: A Coalition for Compassionate Care		VHS			Supportive Care of the Dying, A Coalition for Compassionate Care
Living Choices (1991)	1991	VHS	16 minutes	Using different formats this brief, well-presented film explains the Patient Self-Determination Act (PSDA): a woman reads the law and explains it, various possible ``users'' discuss their thoughts about living wills or durable power of attorney, a physici	Baxley Media Group

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Living Forever: The Longevity Revolution (2001)	2001	DVD	53 minutes	"Scientists from around the world are racing to answer one of humanity's chief questions: can we turn back the human clock? Hitch a ride on this controversial roller-coaster with charismatic gerontologist Michael Rose as he leads us to where the cutting-e	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
Living Fully Until Death (1995)	1995	VHS	30 minutes	A century ago, the average age of death was 46 years old. Now people live much longer, but die from illness. Eventually it is estimated that most of us will know our cause of death for at least 2 years. In this video, people with terminal illness are in	Fanlight Productions
Living Wills	1992	VHS	29	"Patients, families and physicians explore a range of issues involved in the preparation of Advance Directives (living wills, durable powers of attorney, and healthcare proxies or agents). Visiting families in intensive care units, who must make immediat	Fanlight Productions
Living With Cancer: A Message of Hope. The Human Side of the Cancer Experience (1998)	1998	VHS	57 minutes	Narrated by Actress Anne Bancroft. Filmed on location at The Mayo Clinic Cancer Center, Rochester, Minnesota. "Take hope. In America, nearly 10 million people who have been diagnosed with cancer have discovered that their disease can be part of life, n	UNAPIX/MIRAMAR
Living With Dying (2000)	2000	VHS	90 minutes	"Death, which sooner or later comes to all, is treated as a strangely taboo subject in America. In this program, Bill Moyers describes the search for new ways of thinking -- an talking -- about dying. Foregoing the usual reluctance that most Americans s	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Lodz Ghetto: Inside a Community Under Siege (1989)	1989	DVD		"With stunning intimacy and openness, LODZ GHETTO brings us the voices of ordinary people trapped in an unbelievable time. They confide precisely what they felt during the darkest days of Nazi persecution. Scripted entirely from the secret diaries they le	Jewish Heritage Project
Lorenzo s Oil (1993)	1993	VHS	136 minutes	Oscar-nominees Nick Nolte and Susan Sarandon star in this powerful and unforgettable drama based on a true story. The sobering news that their five year-old son, Lorenzo, has a rare terminal disease, marks the beginning of an extraordinary mission for Au	MCA Universal Home Video
Losing Isaiah	1995	VHS	108 minutes	This film explores the mother-child relationship and the nature of that bond. Jessica Lange plays an adoptive mother who gives baby Isaiah, abandoned by his mother, another chance at life. Halle Berry portrays Isaiah's birth mother, who after cleaning u
Lucanamarca	2008	DVD	69	Shining Path, a Maoist group established in the 1970s by Abimael Guzman, had by 1980 launched a revolutionary insurrection in the Peruvian countryside. When the movement's attempt to recruit Quechuan peasants to its cause was rejected, the guerrillas bega	Icarus Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Lynchburg Story: Eugenic Sterilization in America (1994)	1994	VHS	55 minutes	In the early years of this century, authorities were obsessed with a belief that the racial stock of the country was in decline. by the 1930's over half of the states had enacted eugenic sterilization laws, giving states the right to forcibly sterilize c	Filmakers Library
M (1931)	1931	VHS	99 minutes	Based on the grisly exploits of the Dusseldorf child- murderer, Peter Kurten, Fritz Lang s most famous film is a brilliant study of the psychopathic child murderer who is hunted by the criminal underworld as well as by the police. Lang uses sound for the	Embassy Home Entertainment
Mademoiselle and the Doctor (2004)	2004	VHS	90 minutes (55 r	Mademoiselle Lisette Nigot, a retired professor, is 79 years old and in good health, but she has decided that she has no reason to go on living in the face of older age and expected physical decline. Dr. Philip Nitschke, a physician-proponent of voluntary	First Run / Icarus Films
Making Babies: Frontline Examines Booming Infertility Business (1999)	1999	VHS	60 minutes	"Frontline examines the wide range of methods now employed to bring children to those unable to reproduce naturally and raises questions about the safety of experimentation, the commercialization of reproduction, and the changing nature of the family. Ma	PBS Videos
Making Better Babies: Genetics and Reproduction (2002)	2002	VHS	57 minutes	"How far should people be allowed to go in trying to have better babies? And whose definition of "better" should prevail? This Fred Friendly Seminar moderated by Dateline NBC correspondent John Hockenberry considers the ethical dilemmas facing individual	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Making Every Moment Count		VHS	39	After multiple, unsuccessful chemotherapies, Mikaela knows that she has a choice: she can let her brain tumor grow, "and just go away, up to heaven," or she can put up with "needles and pokes and all that stuff and make it go away, and even perhaps it mig	Fanlight Productions
Malpractice (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The panel looks at malpractice as it effects doctors, patients and their attorneys. The program is moderated by Charles Nesson.	PBS Video
Man Alive: Dark Side of Hope (1988)	1988	VHS	26 minutes	Two persons afflicted with Parkinson's Disease are interviewed, followed by Calvin Stiller, M.D., describing procedures which transplant fetal or adrenal cells to the brain. Dr. Margaret Somerville of Montreal's McGill Centre for Ethics and the Law discu
Managin Our Miracles: Health Care in America (1986) (see individual titles)	1986	VHS	60 minutes each	Well-known panelists debate ethical, legal, and social questions raised by different health situations. The series is moderated by Fred Friendly, Columbia University School of Journalism, for the Seminars on Media & Society Series. Titles include: Aids:	PBS Video
Managing Madness	1999	CD	59	"In this hour, we look at how managed care is managing mental illness, with the suggestion that perhaps it isn't managing very well at all. We talk to doctors and therapists, and investigate managed care decision-making and its sometimes-fatal consequenc	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Managing Pain: A Neglected Essential of Patient Care (1994)	1994	VHS	17 minutes	Betty Ferrell; Center for Healthcare Ethics, St. Joseph Health System, Orange, CA	Sheed and Ward

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Manic Depression: Voices of an Illness	1992	CD	59	"Voices of an Illness radio documentary series has provided millions with an extraordinary window on serious mental illness since the series premiere in 1992. The series was the first to feature people who had recovered from serious mental illness, tellin	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Mapping stem cell research: terra incognita (2008)	2008	DVD		"Mapping Stem Cell Research: Terra Incognita is a feature length documentary film centering on the story of Dr. Jack Kessler, the current chair of Northwestern University's Department of Neurology and Clinical Neurological Sciences, and his daughter, Allis	Kartemquin Films
Massey Lectures 2006: The Ethical Imagination by Margaret Somerville (2006)	2006	CD	300 minutes	"Science and technology confront us with some of the most challenging and unprecedented ethical questions in the world today. Margaret Somerville, this year's lecturer, holds professorships at McGill University in both the Faculty of Law (where she hold	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
Maternal PKU: A New Crisis on the Horizon	1995	VHS	29	"This video offers a revealing glimpse at an unanticipated consequence of genetic information. KPU (phenylketonuria) is a genetic condition which causes mental retardation. We have long been able to detect this condition, and to control it through the use	Fanlight Productions
Measuring Up: The Eugenics Debate		DVD	24 minutes	"It is an awful choice: knowing that your unborn child may have a major physical problem, do you decide to abort? The advances of science have thrown society into a moral quandary. Genetic testing for diseases is pushing the boundaries of parental expect	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) Learning
Medical Choices and Pastoral Guidance (October 29, 1991)	1991	VHS	180 minutes (ap	A workshop conference about the Patient Self Determination Act, living wills, and patient decision making and the role of health personnel was taped by Georgetown University's Center for Clinical Bioethics, which sponsored the meeting. Three speakers are	Center for Clinical Bioethics
Medical Ethics and End-of-Life Decisions: Edmund D. Pellegrino, MD, MACP, Video #851 (2005)	2005	VHS	60 minutes	"Medical ethics encompasses a broad range of difficult clinical issues and decisions. some of these issues, such as embryonic research, in vitro fertilization, cloning, and gene mapping, deal with the beginning of life. Others, such as those involving i
Medical Ethics: The Catholic Perspective (2007)	2007	DVD	250 minutes	"Medical Ethics: The Catholic Perspective is a series of ten 25-minute programs introduced by Dr. Daniel Sulmasy and designed to provide the Catholic Church's position on important medical ethics issues. Msgr. Robert Thelen presents the Church's position	Office of Pastoral Communications, Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, New York

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Medical Guinea Pig (2007)	2007	DVD	14 minutes	"Is it possible that you might have been used as a medical guinea pig without your knowledge? ABC News reports on a medical experiment on unsuspecting accident patients brought into hospital ERs that has been happening in more than 20 cities across the co	Amazon.com
Medicating Kids (1999)	1999	VHS	60 minutes	"Today, millions of American children are being prescribed powerful behavior modification drugs such as Ritalin, Prozac, Paxil and Zoloft. But are these medications really necessary--and safe- -for young children, or merely a harried nation's quick fix f	PBS Video
Medicine and Humanistic Understanding: The Significance of Narrative in Medical Practices (2005)	2005	DVD		A multimedia course in medical humanities with a focus on "the doctor-patient relationship, the changing nature of illness in the twenty-first century, the ethics and practice of ever changing goals of medical pedagogy." [UPenn Press description]. Interv	University of Pennsylvania Press
Medicine at the Crossroads (1993)	1993	VHS	60 minutes each	Eight part series. Individual titles are: Temple of Science, Code of Silence, Life Support, Conceiving the Future, Random Cuts, The Magic Bullet, Pandemic, Disordered States	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Code of Silence (1993)	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"What kind of relationship between doctor and patient will promote healing? Review the faith that people have had in the physician's power to heal, and learn how new technologies are changing doctor-patient relationships. Then contrast the doctor- patie	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Conceiving the Future	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"Although conception and birth are not diseases, they have been taken over by modern medicine. Added to the many technologies that surround birth, genetics now provides increasingly powerful ways to predict the health and determine the future of every em	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Disordered States	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"As most of the medical profession increasingly focuses on the social and cultural contexts of illness, why is Western psychiatry turning more to the troubled history of psychiatric medicine and learn why, despite the development of powerful drug therapie	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Life Support	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"As the number of elderly people continues to climb dramatically around the world, modern modeicine increasingly struggles with the realities of chronic diseases and death. As bioscience looks for improved treatments for the debilitating diseases of old	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Pandemic	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"Spurred by the worldwide devastation of AIDS, health care providers at all levels are learning to go beyond the walls of the hospital to respond to the social conditions that cause disease. See some of these new approaches in action, and meet the pionee	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: Random Cuts	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"Explore how economic incentives and new technologies have fostered the use of surgery and other expensive medical interventions. Leading heart specialists now question the use of many routine procedures. How "scientific" is medical practice? Are surgi	PBS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Medicine at the Crossroads: Temple of Science	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"Explore the important role that hospitals have played in the development of modern medicine, and discover the new directions hospitals are taking to adapt to the rapidly changing world. Interview with physicians and doctors in training explain the turmo	PBS Video
Medicine at the Crossroads: The Magic Bullet	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"Ushered in by antibiotics and vaccines, the age of scientific medicine has promised drugs that can cure diseases without harmful side effects. Is the myth of finding the 'magic bullet' for every disease really diverting us from primary care? Explore th	PBS Video
Memory of the Camps	1996	VHS	60 minutes	"Dachau, Auschwitz and Buchenwald are places of evil almost beyond belief. The shocking truth is revealed in film footage shot by British and American film crews who entered the camps moments before troops liberated the survivors." [description from cass	WGBH Educational Foundation
Metropolis (1984)	1984	VHS	87 minutes	World-renowned Oscar winning producer and composer Giorgio Moroder (Flashdance) has captured the essence of Fritz Lang s legendary futuristic masterpiece, Metropolis, in this brilliant recreation of the 1926 silent film classic vision of tomorrow. Using	Giorgio Moroder Enterprises, LTD.; Vestron Video
MICU (1985) [Medical Intensive Care Unit]	1985	VHS	58 minutes	Richard Kahn of WGBH Boston visits the medical intensive care unit (MICU) at Beth Israel Hospital, and presents three extremely ill patients who are wired into their unit. Family, staff, and physicians discuss the patients and their care. One physician	Fanlight Productions
Middle of the End (1989)	1989	VHS	28 minutes	Discussion of treatment decisions concerning four different patients by those involved in the cases provide insights for the viewer. The patient, the health care teams, and the patient's families are represented. Three cases concern dying patients, the	Terra Nova Films
Million Dollar Baby (2005)	2005	DVD		This movie involves a young woman who wishes to be trained to be a boxer. She is trained by Clint Eastwood. Seriously injured and paralyzed from the neck down by an illegal punch, she asks Eastwood to kill her. Initially he refuses to do so, but then v	http://www.Amazon.com
Miss Evers' Boys (Based on the True Story of the Infamous Tuskegee Experiment)	1997	VHS	118 minutes	Based on the play by David Feldshuh. Alfre Woodard and Laurence Fishburne star. In 1932 Nurse Eunice Evers is invited to work with doctors on the Tuskegee Experiment to study the effect of syphilis. She is faced with a terrible dilemma with she learns	HBO Home Video
Monkey trial (2002)	2002	DVD	90 minutes	"In 1925, a football coach and part-time biology teacher named John Scopes was arrested for teaching evolution in defiance of Tennessee state law. For eight sweltering days, hundreds of people streamed into the little town of Dayton, Tennessee to watch hi	WGBH Educational Foundation

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
More Lessons from the Angels of Death	1999	DVD, VHS		William Bartholome, MD, MTS, a pediatrician and bioethicist, speaks about his experiences after living with a terminal diagnosis for the past five years. This lecture is the Hixon Hour lecture that he delivered at the Kansas University (KU) Medical Centre	Center for Practical Bioethics
More Sides to the Story: Faith Based Perspectives: Mary Lou Cranston		DVD		[description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Mortal Choices with Ruth Macklin (Part I); Public Policy, Private Choices with Ruth Macklin (Part II); (1990)	1990	VHS	56 minutes	Philosopher Macklin urges that all ethical problems be viewed with ethical principles and analytic skills. She discusses resource allocation, organ allocation, disclosure, right to life, fetal rights, abortion, and pain control. She thinks progress is dif	PBS Video
Mothers Courage, Thriving Survivors (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	52	Paradoxically, the genocide that saw nearly one million Africans slaughtered made the women who survived stronger. Dehumanized, humiliated, and until recently treated legally as children, these women are taking on roles and jobs that were once denied to t	National Film Board of Canada
Mother's Day (1990)	1990	VHS	52 minutes	The audiovisual describes reproductive technologies, particularly in vitro fertilization and surrogacy. It has early footage of Dr. Patrick Steptoe (who delivered Britain's first IVF baby in 1978), and scenes move back and forth between Great Britain and	Filmakers Library
Mr. Jones (1993)	1993	VHS	110 minutes	Richard Gere, Lena Olin and Anne Bancroft star in this compelling story about a man on the verge of self-destruction who is saved by love. Gere gives a showstopping performance as Mr. Jones, a manic-depressive who, during his emotional highs, is funny,	Columbia TriStar Home Video
My Left Foot (1989)	1989	VHS	103 minutes	My Left Foot, the most acclaimed film of 1990, features Daniel Day-Lewis s Academy Award winning performance as Christy Brown, a man who triumphs over impossible odds to achieve greatness. Academy Award Winner for Best Supporting Actress is Brenda Fricke	HBO Video; Miramax Films
My Life (1994)	1994	VHS	117 minutes	Michael Keaton and Nicole Kidman star in this soaring family love story about a high-powered executive, diagnosed with terminal cancer, who's forced to make plans for his unborn son. And so he begins filming a home movie, My Life, in which he teaches his	Columbia TriStar Home Video
My Sister, My Bride (2004)	2004	DVD/VHS	26	A story of love, marriage, and the Constitution, this touching documentary follows the heartwarming and historic journey of two Jewish lesbians as they seek to celebrate their commitment to one another. As the issue of gay marriage grips the country, Farr	Women Make Movies, Inc Orders Department
My Son Shall be Armenian (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	52	Between 1915 and 1923, one and a half million Armenians were massacred by the Turkish Ottoman army. Since then, this people with a 3000-year history has struggled against oblivion and for official recognition of what was the first genocide of the 20th cen	National Film Board of Canada

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Nature of Things: Animals in Research - Breaking the Habit (1991)	1991	VHS		In 1984, at the University of California, a lab break-in took place that was characterized alternatively as "theft" or as "liberation" by persons taking opposing positions on the issue of whether animals should be used as research subjects. In between th
NCME # 851 Medical Ethics		VHS
Nell (1994)	1994	VHS	113 minutes	The death of a hermit woman brings a small-town Southern doctor into the backwoods, where he discovers she had a daughter who s been raised completely apart from civilization. He becomes fascinated -- and so does a research scientist at a nearby universi	20th Century Fox Video
Network (1976)	1976	VHS	116 minutes	It s a behind-the-screen look at the tyrants of television and what they ve done to us - writer Paddy Chayefsky s savage satire, Network. Peter Finch gives an unforgettable, Oscar-winning performance as Howard Beale, the man who goes from dispassionate ne	MGM/UA Home Video
Neuroethics (2003)	2003	CD	59	"As we gain greater and greater understanding of the brain and how to manipulate it, where do we set boundaries? This week, we examine the enormous ethical questions that arise as we learn more and more about the rain and develop techniques that could man	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Never Forget, Never Forgotten		DVD	10:17 minutes	This program "tells the story of tissue donors and their families who have saved -- or dramatically changed -- the lives of people suffering from cancer, crippled hearts, eye diseases and agonizing burns, for whom there was no other cure. This is the onl	Nicholas Green Foundation
Nick and Sheila and the World: A Case Study about Patient Righ		VHS	17 minutes, 9 se	"The story is told through the character of Sheila, played by Julie Russell, RN, MA. Sheila, Nick's 'significant other,' attempts to make us understand Nick's dilemma as a dialysis patient who 'can't be confined' yet faces imminent death if he foregoes t	Midwest Bioethics Center
Night Mother	1986	VHS	97 minutes	"Sissy Spacek and Anne Bancroft star in this taut, emotional study about a mother's attempt to stop her distraught daughter from committing suicide. Adapted from the Pulitzer Prize-winning play by author Martha Norman, the moving production casts Spacek a	Universal City Studios, Inc.; MCA Home Video
Nightline: Genetic Testing for Alzheimer's (2000)	2000	DVD		"Genetic Testing for Alzheimer's Nightline takes a closer look at genetic testing for Alzheimer's and the ethical dilemma over marketing such a test when no cure is available" (from ABC web description)	ABC News
Nightline: Kidney for a Condemned Man (2003)	2003	DVD		"When a convicted murderer needs a kidney transplant, should he get one? What if thousands of working poor cannot get that level of care? Our convoluted and inadequate health care system sometimes means you might get better care if you committed a crime a	ABC News

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Nightline: Micro-Preemies (2000)	2000	DVD		"Micro-Preemies: advances in medicine and technology have helped save micro-preemies, babies born up to four months early. Is this in the best interests of the baby and their families? Nightline looks at the ethical dilemma facing doctors and parents" (fr	ABC News
Nightline: The Davis Embryos. Air Date of August 7, 1989 (1989)	1989	VHS		Discussion of the Junior and Mary Sue Davis embryo disposition case
NIH Press Conference -- Dr. James Watson, September 26, 1988	1988	VHS		Dr. James Watson, NIH Press Conference, September 26, 1988
No Fears, No Tears	1985	VHS	27	"In the mid-1980s, clinical psychologist Leora Kuttner spearheaded a pioneer pain management project for children with cancer. In No Fears, No Tears eight courageous children with cancer, aged three to twelve years old, demonstrated a variety of ways in w	Fanlight Productions
No Fears, No Tears - 13 Years Later	1998	VHS	47	"Thirteen years ago, the award-winning No Fears, No Tears documented how eight children with cancer, aged three to twelve years old, got through painful medical treatments with the therapeutic support of clinical psychologist, Leora Kuttner. Through the	Fanlight Productions
No Greater Love (2002)	2002	VHS	15:51	"This documentary film focuses on the increasing need for healthy transplantable organs in the United States, and the healing that may come through the act of donation. The goal is to encourage families to discuss the issue of donation, as well as make t	U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration
No Heroic Measures (1986)	1986	VHS	23 minutes	The dramatization examines some of the issues raised in treating elderly incompetent patients. The tape portrays a niece's efforts to have her aunt's feeding tube removed; everyone involved in the woman's care comments, but the permission is denied by the	Baxley Media Group
No Room in the Marketplace: The Health Care of the Poor (1986)	1986	VHS	22 minutes	The Catholic Health Associations's Task Force on Health Care for the Poor offers, via voice-over slides and photographs, their position on the obligation to provide increased health care for all who are not receiving it due to poverty or lack of access or	Catholic Health Association
No Second Chance (1991)	1991	VHS		Aimed at young persons, nurse Cathy Kay offers AIDS education to a class of high school students. She recommends monogamy and sex only within marriage, quoting from the Bible and Christian tradition. Grandparents caring for a six year old whose parents h	Jeremiah Films
Normal (2003)	2003	DVD	108 minutes	Normal tells the story of Roy Applewood (Tom Wilkinson) and his wife Irma (Jessica Lange) and their family, friends, and community after Roy confesses that he feels like a woman trapped in a man's body. Roy and Irma have celebrated their 25th wedding anni	Amazon.com
Now, Voyager (1942)	1942	VHS	118 minutes	Bette Davis convinced Hall Wallis that she, not Irene Dunne, should have this challenging role. Davis spellbinding interpretation of the complex Charlotte earned an Academy Award nomination. She is the dowdy Charlotte, emotionally crippled by her domine	MGM/UA Home Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
NPR - Xenotransplantation (1999)	1999	Audio		Dr. Walters participated in the live NPR discussion on Xenotransplantation. "The use of animal tissue and organs as transplant material is getting closer to reality. Kojo Nnamdi speaks with a panel of experts on the state of current science in xenotranspl	http://www.wamu.org/phihi.html
Nuremberg (2000)	2000	VHS	179 minutes	"Twenty-one members of the Nazi high command stand in a charged courtroom inside Nuremberg's Palace of Justice. Twenty-one pleas of Not Guilty are entered. Will the trial of these notorious men be a forum for Allied vengeance or a quest for justice? Ba	Warner Home Video
Nuremberg: Tyranny on Trial (2005 & 1995)	1995	DVD	46 minutes	"World War II did not end on the battlefield, but in a courtroom in Germany. The Nuremberg Trials revealed the full scope of Nazi Germany's atrocities and ended in the execution of many top Nazi leaders. Follow the historic trials from accusations throug	Amazon.com
Nutrition and Hydration: Complex Decisions (1990)	1990	VHS	45 minutes	Three families who have daughters being cared for in a Missouri rehabilitation hospital present their differing views on desired care for the persistent vegetative state. Two, the Terrys and the Moores, want tube feeding continued (although Mrs. Moore ex	Catholic Health Association
Nuts (1987)	1987	VHS	116 minutes	The pending case: The People of the State of New York vs. Claudia Draper. The issue: Is Claudia mentally competent to stand trial? Sure, she s shocking. Outspoken. Explosive. Defiant. But is she nuts? You be the judge. Barbara Streisand is Claudi	Warner Home Video
Odds of Recovery (2002)	2002	VHS	65 minutes	Filmmaker Su Friedrich offers a creative, and very personal, documentary that explores her own experiences as a patient through her experiences with a variety of illness and her encounters with a variety of medical professionals. In addition, this progra	Women Make Movies
Of Mice and Men (1981)	1981	VHS	150 minutes	John Steinbeck s famed novel receives a stunning adaptation in this gripping, powerful feature film. Lenny (Randy Quaid) and George (Robert Blake) are two itinerant ranch hands on the run. Lenny is a strong but pathetically retarded child-man who has ac	PRISM Entertainment
Offspring (2001)	2001	VHS	55:06	Documentary film-maker Barry Steven?s quest to find his anonymous, sperm-donor father, takes viewers through the early history of donor insemination (DI) (previously termed artificial insemination by donor or AID) and the evolving social views about the p	Barna-Alper; Barry Stevens barrystevens@canada.com

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Old Nature, New Science: Respecting Nature, the Natural, and Life	2006	DVD	60 minutes		Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC)
On Being Good: Virtue Ethics with Edmund D. Pellegrino (2001)	2001	VHS	65:41 minutes	The Pellegrino segment from a longer Distance Education Course of the Provincial Health Ethics Network [PHEN]. PHEN's Northern Office is located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and its Southern Office is found in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.	Provincial Health Ethics Network, Room 222, Aberhart Centre Two
On Being Good: Virtue Ethics: Edmund D. Pellegrino		DVD		"Explains the history and nature of virtue ethics and its role in patient care decisions." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
On Our Own Terms: Moyers on Dying (see individual titles) (2000)	2000	VHS	360 minutes, ea	Four-part series: Topics covered focus on talking and thinking about dying in a new way; seeking home care with physical and spiritual comfort at the end of life -- the strides made in palliative care; a discussion of the hard decisions involved in choosi	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
On Parting: A Shared Grief (1988)	1988	VHS	23 minutes	Psychiatrist John E. Fryer, Department of Psychiatry, Temple University School of Medicine, explains different approaches in the relationship with a dying patient, illustrating them with vignettes about such patients.	Network for Continuing Medical Education
On the Edge of Being: When Doctors Confront Cancer	1995	VHS		"An intimate view of six physicians who have presonally, or in their immediate families, confronted cancer. Physicians enter the private world of their colleagues who discuss the feelings and frustrations they experienced when they crossed the line from	Cerenex (TM) Pharmaceuticals, A division of Glaxo, Inc.
One Brief Life: The Baby L Case [New Zealand case]	1999	VHS	40 minutes	"During her eight weeks of life, Leaney Lavea--born prematurely and with medically insurmountable abnormalities--was dependent on machines to live. but were these machines prolonging her life, or were they merely delaying her death? This deeply moving p	Films for the Humanities & Sciences

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
One in 2000		DVD/VHS	26	Each year an estimated one in 2000 babies are born with anatomy that doesn't clearly mark them as either male or female - with what is known as an intersex condition -and five babies a day in the US are having 'gender reassignment' surgery. This provocati	Fanlight Productions
One Journey - Many Voices: Conversations about Serious Illness and Dying (2006)	2006	VHS			Legal Counsel for the Elderly, Inc.
One Survivor Remembers (1995)	1995	DVD	39 minutes	"This Academy Award-winning film tells the unforgettable story of Gerda Weissmann Klein and her six-year-ordeal as a victim of Nazi cruelty. Rendered in a deceptively simple yet extraordinarily powerfull manner, the film explores the effects Weissman's e	Direct Cinema Limited, Inc.
One True Thing (1999)	1999	VHS	128 minutes	Join Academy Award-winners Meryl Streep and William Hurt, along with Renee Zellweger, for an unforgettable look at the pleasure, pain and ultimate joy of being a family. When crisis confronts Katherine and George Gulden, they turn to their grown daughter,	Universal Pictures
Open Hearted		VHS	53	Marc was born with a serious congenital heart defect and, at the age of twenty-seven, he is about to face his third open-heart surgery. Not only does he have to come to terms with his own mortality, but he also has to deal with anxious divorced parents wh	Fanlight Productions
Oral History Project: Ed Pellegrino, M.D., March 4, 1998 (1998)	1998	VHS		An interview with Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D.	Health Sciences Library and Biocommunications Center
Orchids		VHS	92 minutes
Ordinary People (1980)	1980	VHS	124 minutes	An extraordinary motion picture, Ordinary People is an intense examination of a family being torn apart by tension and tragedy. Donald Sutherland and Mary Tyler Moore star as the upper-middle-class couple whose ordinary existence is irrevocably shattered	Paramount Pictures
Oregon Health Care Decisions: Choices and Costs in Health Care [and] Oregon Health Care Decisions: Citizen's Health Care Parliament...and Beyond (1984)	1984	VHS	26 minutes [and	Filmed at various community meetings, Oregon citizens debate and participate in planning health policy decisions for their state, basing discussions on their understanding that unlimited health costs will not be affordable. Physician Joanne Lynn and lawye	Oregon Health Decisions
Organizational Ethics		VHS	30 minutes	Cynthia Brincat, Ph.D. speaking about Organizational Ethics

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Organs for Sale (2004)	2004	VHS	58 minutes	Set in Pakistan, where organ trade is not illegal but is not really discussed, this program explores the global issue of the marketing of human organs from poor individuals living in third world countries to ill persons with money to purchase organs. The	Filmakers Library
Our Genes / Our Choices (2003)	2003	VHS	114 minutes -- 5	The three programs in the three part series are: Who Gets to Know? Genetics and Privacy; Making Better Babies: Genetics and Reproduction; and Genes on Trial: Genetics, Behavior, and the Law. The series is augmented by a Viewer's Guide, transcripts, and	Films Media Group
Outbreak (1995)	1995	VHS	128 minutes	Crusading military research medico Hoffman must stop a deadly virus that s somehow made its way from Africa to the U.S. -- little dreaming that his Army superiors have an agenda of their own. Dynamite suspense thriller with a surprising sense of humor g	Warner Home Video
Pain Management: New Knowledge, New Awareness (1994)	1994	VHS	17 minutes	Paul Coluzzi, M.D.; Center for Healthcare Ethics, St. Joseph Health System, Orange, CA	Sheed and Ward
Pain Management: Standards of Practice (1994)	1994	VHS	19 minutes	Betty Ferrell; Pain; Standards of Practice	Sheed and Ward
Palliative Care: Care for Terminally Ill Patients	2004	DVD	30	"America is a death denying society that often does not formally prepare individuals to deal with death and dying on personal and emotional levels. Palliative care is a philosophy of care for terminally ill patients, which assures the physical, emotional,	Aquarius Productions
Pandora's Box (2003)	2003	DVD	57 minutes	"When it comes to DNA science, nobody has a better track record than Jim Watson; what makes him controversial, however, is his vision of its future. This program looks inside the Pandora's box of genetic manipulation with the man who opened it. Watson s	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Paradigms and Paradoxes: Health Strategies for the 21st Century (1991)	1991	VHS	30 minutes	Bruce B. Dan, M.D. moderates a discussion among three physicians: Edmund D. Pellegrino of Georgetown University, Arnold Relman, former New England Journal of Medicine editor, and David Rogers, Cornell Medical School, who discuss health policy, rising cost	American Medical Association
Parents and Post Mortems (2002)	2002	VHS	7 minutes, 40 se	"This film has been made by parents who have experienced the loss of a child, with the expert help of pathologists." "A post mortem examination is a specialist investigation to find out why your baby or child died. it is really difficulty thinking about	United Kingdom. Department of Health
Parents at the Threshold: You Are Not Alone (1998)	1998	VHS	30 minutes	This sensitive presentation is geared toward parents facing medical decisions for newborns with a clearly poor prognosis or those with an unclear prognosis. Parents who previously faced such decisions reflect on the experience and their feelings about th	Nickel's Worth Productions
Parent's Rights: Denied (1991)	1991	VHS	20 minutes	Parental notification in cases of teenage abortion is discussed, offering information about Minnesota abortion law. Four interviews with young women who were age 14 to 17 when they had abortions are included, along with an interview with Carol Everetta,	American Portrait Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Partial-Birth Abortion on Trial	2006	DVD		DVD program from the Family Research Council	Family Research Council
Partners in Health Care (1991)	1991	VHS	15 minutes	The drama features discussions between family members about health care decisions, advance directives, and surrogate decision making, and is patient oriented.	California Health Decisions
Patient to Patient: Cancer Clinical Trials and You. An Initiative of the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer and the National Cancer Institute		VHS		Information for patients about Cancer Clinical Trials.	National Cancer Institute (NCI)
Patient, Heal Thyself: How the New Medicine Puts the Patient in Charge	2010	DVD	30 minutes	Host: Rosemarie Tong, Ph.D., Director of the Center for Professional and Applied Ethics and Mecklenburg County Medical Society Distinguished Professor of Healthcare Ethics; Guests: Robert M. Veatch, Ph.D., Professor of Medical Ethics, Georgetown University	UNC Charlotte Television
Patients and Doctors: Communication is a Two Way Street (1986)	1986	VHS	22 minutes	The film depicts female patients including Carol Levine and Natalie Spingarn Davis discussing the impact of physicians words upon cancer treatment. They indicate that they would have preferred to learn about the disease and their treatment. They urge that	American Cancer Society
Pellegrino Lecture - Osler Birthday Celebration (2008)	2008	DVD		DVD of Dr. Edmund Pellegrino's lecture at Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine's annual "Osler Birthday Celebration" Taped at the Ryan Lecture at Georgetown University Law Center in	Texas A&M Department of Humanities in Medicine
Pellegrino, Dr. Edmund D. (1986)	1986	VHS	90 minutes (app	November 1986, Dr. Pellegrino provides an overview of medical ethics.
Personal Ethics and the Future of the World (1992)	1992	VHS	28:42 minutes	This video raises and explores questions about the relationship between personal moral values and individual rights and societal rights.	Varied Directions International
Perspectives in Bioethics, No. 4, 1987 January 30 (1987)	1987	VHS		Dr. Joe Keffer, St. Francis Hospital, Miami Beach, Florida, moderates today's discussion at the Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University. Dr. Jim McCartney, Jeanne Smokler, and Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino discuss problems in medical ethics. They
Peter Singer: A Dangerous Mind (2003)	2003	DVD	56 minutes	"Dr. Peter Singer has been called the most influential living philosopher. He has also been called a monster. In this thought-provoking program, he faces his critics and discusses his ideas on euthanasia, abortion, and infanticide. This program follows	Films Media Group
Peter Wegner is Alive and Well and Living in Providence (2003)	2003	VHS	20 minutes	Peter Wegner is an internationally known Professor of Computer Science at Brown University. While in London to receive an award in the summer of 1999, he was involved in a bus accident and experienced a severe brain injury. Dr. Wegner's family had to de	Filmakers Library

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Philadelphia (1993)	1993	VHS	125 minutes	Up-and-coming lawyer Tom Hanks is battling AIDS; when he is fired from his prosperous Main Line Philadelphia firm (for trumped-up reasons), he decides to bring suit. The only lawyer who will take his case: ambulance-chaser Denzel Washington, who doesn't like	Columbia TriStar Home Video
Photographer	1999	VHS	76 minutes		Seventh Art Releasing
Physician Assisted Suicide Debate: Fieger vs. Pellegrino [Public Debate on Legalizing Physician-Assisted Suicide: Geoffrey Fieger and Edmund Pellegrino] (1994)	1994	VHS	90 minutes	A public debate between Geoffrey Fieger, attorney for Dr. Jack Kevorkian, and Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D., well-known ethicist and physician, about the moral permissibility of physician-assisted suicide.	Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity
Physician Assisted Suicide with Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino 1992 December 8 (CVP #215)	1992	VHS
Physician to Physician: Perspectives on Clinical Trials. An Initiative of the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer and the National Cancer Institute		VHS		Information for physicians on clinical trials.	National Cancer Institute (NCI)
Physician-Assisted Suicide: A Threat to the Gift of Life. Diocese of Brooklyn		VHS	16:48 minutes	Physician-Assisted Suicide
Pioneers of Hospice: Changing the Face of Dying		VHS/DVD	49	In less than fifty years, the passion and foresight of four visionary healthcare professionals have dramatically transformed the landscape of end-of-life care. This compelling new video profiles these pioneers of hospice and palliative care: Dame Cicely S	Fanlight Productions
Pioneers of Hospice: Changing the Face of Dying (2004)	2004	DVD	49 minutes	Reflects on the change in Western attitudes toward death and end-of-life care brought about over the last four decades through the efforts of four visionary healthcare professionals. Dame Cicely Saunders, nurse, social worker, and physician, founded the	Fanlight Productions
Planning for Your Future. UCSF [University of California, San Francisco]/Mount Zion Medical Center		VHS	7 minutes		Brannan Street Editorial
Playing for Time (1980)	1980	VHS	148 minutes	This movie is set in the concentration camp of Auschwitz. It portrays the story of women in Barracks B, prisoners in the concentration camp, who have been drafted to play or sing with the prison orchestra. Vanessa Redgrave and Jane Alexander star in this	Amazon
Playing God (2003)	2003	DVD	57 minutes	"Twenty years after the discovery of DNA's structure, another revolution swept biology when scientists began learning how to manipulate genes outright. The controversy continues. This program tells the story of genetic engineering's pioneers, focusing on	Films for the Humanities & Sciences

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Pragmatic Approaches to the Question of AIDS (1988)	1988	VHS	68 minutes	Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D., moderates a panel, speaking for most of this cassette on the moral obligation of the physician to treat AIDS patients. Saying that the patient has an obligation to be tested for disease, he also holds that a patient's confiden	Purdue University Public Affairs Video Archives
Prenatal Diagnosis: To Be or Not to Be? (1981)	1981	VHS	55 minutes	David Suzuki hosts this documentary program about prenatal diagnosis and counseling in Canada. Several Toronto hospitals participated and various health professionals talk about amniocentesis, fetoscopy, and ultrasound studies to discover abnormalities in	Filmakers Library
Prescriptions for Profit (1989)	1989	VHS	58 minutes	Using arthritis drugs as examples, the program looks at pharmaceutical company development costs, the FDA review process, and the marketing of drugs for the 'pain market' where sales for a single drug can be reach hundreds of millions of dollars. Dr. Si	PBS Video
Profile #19: Giovinco and Robert Cook-Deegan (1990)	1990	VHS	59 minutes
Promise Not to Tell? (1995)	1995	VHS	11 minutes	This program highlights ethical dilemmas arising in the practice of confidentiality with children. It is intended to be a "discussion opener" for health-care education with adult student or members of the general public. It is accompanied by a discussio	Bioethics Department, Hospital for Sick Children
Protecting Human Subjects	2003	WEB	86	The video set 'Protecting Human Subjects' contains three instructional films produced by the National Institutes of Health and the Food and Drug Administration, with the cooperation of the National Library of Medicine. Modules 1&2: Evolving Concern: Prote	US Department of Health and Human Services
Quality of Mercy: A Case for Better Pain Management (1988)	1988	VHS	53 minutes	The film examines improper or inadequate pain control for patients in hospitals. It looks at surgery with anesthesia, pain medication for cancer patients, and individuals recovering from surgery. The difference between narcotic addiction and medically con	Filmakers Library
Quem s?o Elas? (2006) [Four Women] [Qui?nes son ellas?]	2006	DVD	20 minutes	"July, 2004. The Brazilian Supreme Court authorized pregnant women of anencephalic fetuses to interrupt the pregnancy. During four months, dozens of women were free to choose, protected by the preliminary injunction of the Supreme Court. The film shows th	ANIS: Institute of Bioethics, Human Rights and Gender
Quick Brown Fox: An Alzheimer's Story (2004)	2004	DVD/VHS	62	Ann Hedreen's mother started showing symptoms of Alzheimer's at the barely-old age of 60. Though it began with small signs - forgetting what she was doing and losing her way home - the irreversible disease would change her family's life forever. Emmy-no	Women Make Movies, Inc. Orders Department
Quiet Rage: The Stanford Prison Experiment (1989)	1989	DVD	50 minutes	"In the summer of 1971, Philip Zimbardo, Craig Haney, and Curtis Banks carried out a psychological experiment to test a simple question: What happens when you put good people in an evil place - does humanity win over evil, or does evil triumph? to explor	Philip G. Zimbardo, Inc.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Rachel and Her Daddy: A Case Study about Artificial Nutrition and Hydration		VHS	20 minutes, 28 s	"Rachel, played by Julie Russell, RN, MA, is confronted with the discovery of her father's continuing deterioration in a long-term care facility. This video evokes all the emotions of an adult child facing a parent's decline: anger, disbelief, sadness,	Midwest Bioethics Center
Rachel Carson's Silent Spring	1992	VHS	60 minutes	"By the time she published Silent Spring in 1963, Rachel Carson had suffered a bout with cancer and the admonishment of friends who tried to convince her that a book on the chemical poisoning of the environment was too depressing for anyone to read. Cars	WGBH Educational Foundation
Radio Bikini (1987)	1987	VHS	56 minutes	"The internationally acclaimed, award-winning documentary about Operation Crossroads, an early U.S. nuclear weapons test conducted at a remote Pacific atoll called Bikini in the summer of 1946." (Description from Cassette)	First Run/Icarus Films
Rape of Europa		DVD		The epic documentary of the systematic theft, deliberate destruction, and miraculous survival of Europe's art treasures during the Third Reich and World War II. In a journey through seven countries, the film takes the audience into the violent whirlwind o	The Rape Of Europa
Rational Suicide (1981)	1981	VHS	15 minutes	Interviews with Derek Humphry and Dame Cicely Saunders offer arguments in favor of and against assisted suicides. Dame Cicely says the "right to die will become the duty to die." An unidentified man from Philadelphia says he helped five people die, and	Carousel Films
Reasoning in Medical Ethics, Program No. 2	1992	VHS	29 minutes	Topics covered are: euthanasia and the right to die, AIDS and the health care professional, and patient rights. The program includes an interview with Dr. David H. Smith, a professor of medical ethics at the University of South Florida Medical School. H	GPN (Great Plains National) ITV Library
Regarding Henry (1991)	1991	VHS	107 minutes	Henry Turner is a successful but ruthless New York lawyer who needs to win at any cost, even at the expense of his wife and daughter. But a single gunshot brings Henry's fast-track rise to a dead stop, leaving him incapacitated and with no memory of the l	Paramount Pictures
Remaking American Medicine: Health Care for the 21st Century (2006)	2006	DVD	240 minutes	"As many as 98,000 Americans die each year in hospitals due to preventable medical errors. One million more are injured. In fact, medical errors kill as many people per year as breast cancer, HIV-AIDS and car accidents. These and other equally startlin	PBS
Reproduction: Designer Babies (1995)	1995	VHS	20 minutes	This program examines some of the issues raised by the potential uses and misuses of genetic technology. The program demonstrates the techniques of both ultra-sound scanning and amniocentesis as well as explaining the latest genetic manipulation techniques	Films for the Humanities & Sciences, [The New Living Body Series]
Research with Children - Session 7 (2004)	2004	Streaming	57:53	Alan Fleischman and David Wendler	National Institutes of Health (NIH)

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Respect for Autonomy: A Closer Look: James F. Childress		DVD		"Explores autonomy, the hallmark principle of bioethics in Western societies, with a view to gaining a deeper understanding of its role." [description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Restless Conscience: The Story of the German Resistance (199	1991	VHS	113 minutes	"This powerful and provocative feature documentary explores the motivating principles and activities of the anti-Nazi resistance inside Germany from 1993 to 1945. This film is a deeply moving portrayal of individual destinies charting with dramatic power	Direct Cinema Limited
Right to Refuse Antipsychotic Medication (1986)	1986	VHS	140 minutes	A seminar held for lawyers in July 1985 presents six speakers who discuss the law, consent requirements, clinical effects, and relationships to the patient. The final speaker, psychiatrist Paul Appelbaum, looks at competency and frequency of refusal.	Commission on the Mentally Disabled
Risky Business: Biotechnology and Agriculture (1996)	1996	VHS	24 minutes	"Thousands of plants and animals are being genetically engineered: foods for longer shelf life, crops to tolerate more poison chemicals, and pigs so that their hearts can be transplanted into people. Yet so far there has been relatively little public deb	Bullfrog Films
Roe v. Wade	1990	VHS	96 minutes	Prepared for television, the movie-like drama depicts the meeting between ``Jane Roe'' and her lawyer, Sarah Weddington. It provides the background story for the 1973 Supreme Court decision. Well acted and filmed, the cast includes Holly Hunter, Amy Madi	AME, Inc.
Roe V. Wade at Twenty Five: Blackmun Lecture on Privacy (199	1998	VHS	60 minutes	"In January 1998, the 25th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade, the Center for Reproductive Rights hosted a national satellite teleconference to commemorate the occasion. In scenes from this landmark event, a panel of distinguished	Center for Reproductive Law and Rights
Rosita (2005)	2005	DVD	58	"ROSITA, an hour-long documentary by award-winning filmmakers Barbara Attie and Janet Goldwater, traces a young girl's journey from innocent victim to unwitting victor. When a nine-year-old Nicaraguan girl becomes pregnant as a result of a rape, her paren	Bullfrog Films
Ruth		DVD/VHS	31	Ruth has endured the disabling symptoms of Parkinson's disease for more than twelve years. That she is now able to think and speak coherently, and to be relatively free of tremors, is due to a procedure in which electrodes are implanted deep in the brain,	Fanlight Productions
Sacred Soil	2008	DVD	22	In Guatemala the Forensic Anthropology Foundation (FAF) exhumes 1,000 bodies a year in an attempt to identify the remains of decades-old victims of army massacres. SACRED SOIL interviews relatives of the deceased and the FAF director describes their effor	Icarus Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Safe	2006	DVD		Carol, a prototypical upper-middle class housewife begins to complain of vague symptoms of vomiting and trouble breathing. Her family doctor treats her concerns dismissively and suggests a psychiatrist. Eventually, an allergist tells her that she has envi
Schindler's List (1993)	1993	DVD	195 minutes	The true story of Oskar Schindler (a factory owner) saved some 1000 Polish Jews from the Nazis. This DVD contains additional materials: Voices from the List; The Shoah Foundation Story with Steven Spielberg, and other resources. Liam Neeson, Ben Kingley	http://www.Amazon.com
Schizophrenia: Voices of An Illness	1994	CD	59	"Voices of an Illness radio documentary series has provided millions with an extraordinary window on serious mental illness since the series premiere in 1992. The series was the first to feature people who had recovered from serious mental illness, tellin	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Science and the Swastika		DVD		"During the Nazi years some German doctors ignored their Hippocratic oath not to do harm. Instead, in the name of eugenics as interpreted by the Nazi party, they forcibly sterilized their patients and killed sick and disabled people deemed 'unworthy of li
Science, Religion & Ethics in 21st Century Biomedical Discoveries: Which Way is Forward?	2007	CD	600	What is human? Can the promise of great scientific discoveries be reconciled with traditional notions of humanity and ethics? How can science, religion, and ethics be used to inform our decisions? What will an increasingly sophisticated understanding of g	Now You Know Media, Inc.
Scientific American Frontiers XII: Gene Hunters (2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes	"[Alan] Alda meets some of the brightest gene-hunting scientists today, including Nobelist Jim Watson, the Human Genome Project's Eric Lander and developmental geneticist Nancy Hopkins. He also examines a controversial gene therapy project that's attempt	The Chedd-Angier Production Company, Inc.
Sea Inside (2004) [Mar adentro]	2004	DVD	125 minutes	This film portrays the life of Ramon Sampedro, a Spanish citizen, who was paralyzed from the neck down in a diving accident when he was 26 years old. At age 54 he tried to win the right to end his life with assisted suicide. In Spain, the conservative C	http://www.Amazon.com
Secret of a Wild Child (1994, 2006) [Genie]	1994	VHS; DVD	60 minutes	"In 1970, social workers in Los Angeles discovered a modern-day "wild child," a 13-year-old girl who had been locked in a room in social isolation for most of her life. She had been forced to siet alone, day after day, strapped to a potty chair, with lit	WGBH Boston
Secret People: The Naked Face of Leprosy in America	1999	VHS	58 minutes	By Federal Act a National Leprosarium was established in Carville, LA in 1917. The USPHS took responsibility for the hospital in 1921. About the same time federal law required that all persons diagnosed with leprosy (Hansen's Disease) in the continental	Fanlight Productions

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Secrets of a Wild Child	1996	VHS		The story of Genie, a child raised in isolation due to abuse within her family, who was discovered in 1970 in California at the chronological age of 13. Genie's treatment raises questions about the boundaries between therapy and research. Her case helps	PBS VideoFinders
Seeing the Difference: Conversations on Death and Dying (2001)	2001	VHS	50 minutes		University of California
Self-Deliverance (2000)	2000	VHS	18 minutes	John Grisham wants respect for his decision to end his own life when living with the pain of his terminal illness becomes intolerable to him; he also wants to be allowed to carry out that decision with or without assistance. His story is the focus of this	Fanlight Productions
Selling Murder: The Killing Films of the Third Reich (1991)	1991	VHS	50 minutes	This documentary shows and discusses clips from Nazi propaganda and training films on the topic of euthanasia and eugenics. The films are analyzed within the context of the Nazi effort to legitimate euthanasia as a humane intervention for health reasons.
Selling Sickness...An Ill for Every Pill (2004)	2004	DVD	52 minutes	"Today, drug manufactueres aggressively market diseases previously unknown to the public, or known by some other name. Shyness thus becomes branded as Social Anxiety Disorder, constant worry becomes Generalized Anxiety Disorder, and premenstrual tension	First Run / Icarus Films
Senate Hearing: Stem Cell Research (July 18, 2001)	2001	VHS		United States Senate hearing on stem cell research held in Washington, DC on July 18, 2001
Sentenced Home	2007	DVD		Putting a human face on controversial immigration policy, SENTENCED HOME follows three young Cambodian Americans through the deportation process. Raised in inner city Seattle, they pay an unbearable price for mistakes they made as teenagers. Caught betwe	Center for Asian American Media
Severina's Story (2005)	2005	DVD	23 minutes	. ?Anis is the only not-for-profit, non-governmental organisation in Latin America devoted to bioethics research, advocacy, and education.? This program raises the issue of abortion in the case of a child with anencephaly. Brazil does not allow abortion	Anis Institute of Bioethics, Human Rights and Gender
Sex: Unknown (2001) [Explore the Fateful Consequences of Gender Reassignment]	2001	VHS	60 minutes	"Bruce Reimer was born a completely normal boy. But after a freak medical accident [during a circumcision] destroyed his genitalia, high-profile psychologist and sex researcher John Money persuaded Bruce's parents to surgically change him into a girl. S	WGBH Boston
Shaping Professionalism: Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D.	2000	VHS	7 minutes		American Medical Association. Ethics Resource Center
Shared Concern: Breaking the News to Parents that Their Child has a Disability. A Training Video for Medical Students, Doctors, and Health Workers	1987	European f		An information booklet accompanies this video. The booklet is titled "Shared Concern: Breaking the News to Parents that their Child has a Disability. A Booklet of Guidance for Medical Students, Doctors and Health Workers." The book is 23 pages long. It w	King's Fund Informal Caring Programme

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Sheila's Story: A Case Study about a Patient Terminally Ill with HIV Siamese Twins		VHS VHS	18 minutes, 46 s	"Sheila, played by Julie Russell, RN, MA, is terminally ill with AIDS. Sheila talks about her life and her memories of her grandmother, who died of cancer, and her deceased lover Nick, who refused dialysis. Now she faces her own death alone and shares h Unknown	Midwest Bioethics Center
Sick around the world (2008)	2008	DVD	60 minutes	"Four in five Americans say the healthcare system needs fundamental change. Can the U.S. learn anything from the rest of the world about how to run a healthcare system, or are these nations so culturally different that their solutions would not be accepta	ShopPBS
Sicko (2007)	2007	DVD	123 minutes	Moore's documentary on the failings of the U.S. health care system and lack of insurance coverage for the treatment of disease and maintenance of health. The program includes American citizens discussing their own frustrations. "Academy Award winning fil	Amazon.com
Significant Hazards (1984)	1984	VHS	24 minutes	A filmed debate about placing a DNA recombinant laboratory in downtown Somerville, Massachusetts, presents Harvard geneticists and microbiologists who wanted to setup a new business, and Somerville citizens and city managers who opposed it. Proponents th	Northern Lights Productions.
Silent Killer: The Unfinished Campaign Against Hunger		DVD/VHS	57	Silent Killer shows us the human face and underlying causes of hunger around the world; and it shows what is being done and what can be done to end hunger forever. Through powerful stories and revealing work of experts and committed people in Kenya, South	Bullfrog Films
Sir: Just a Normal Guy (2001)	2001	VHS/DVD	57	This candid and courageous portrait of the 15-month female-to-male (FTM) transition of Jay Snider explores both the emotional and physical changes that accompany this profound experience. The film takes the viewer through Jay's motivations, hopes, and day	Women Make Movies, Inc Orders Department
Solit?rio An?nimo (2007) [Alone and Anonymous] [Solitario An?nimo]	2007	DVD	18 minutes	"An elderly man lying on the grass waiting to die. In his pocket, a message announced that he was from a distant land. He had no documents or any possessions. His desire was to die alone and anonymous. This is the beginning of a documentary that tells th	ANIS: Institute of Bioethics, Human Rights and Gender
Sound and Fury: Six Years Later (2006)	2006	dvd	29 minutes	This 2006 film updates the earlier film about the Artinian Family and the decisions of its various deaf and hearing members about use of the cochlear implant on behalf of their children. The first film was titled "Sound and Fury: Communication and was re	Aronson Films
Sound and Fury: The Communication Wars of the Deaf (2000)	2000	VHS	80 minutes	"Sound and Fury takes viewers inside the seldom seen world of the deaf to witness a painful family struggle over a controversial medical technology called the cochlear implant. Some family members celebrate the implant as a long overdue cure for deafness	Filmakers Library

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Southern Comfort (2001)	2001	DVD		This documentary focuses on access to health care. Robert Eads, a female-to-male transsexual, is dying of cancer of his remaining female reproductive organs (not clear whether ovarian, cervical, or uterine cancer). He was refused treatment by many heal	Amazon.com
Spare Parts (2000)	2000	DVD	44 minutes	"The miracle of organ transplantation has become an everyday event in modern medicine. But the advances have created a difficult problem: who will receive the limited number of organs available. With human organ donors in short supply, animals are now b	Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) Learning
Spirituality in Health Care: Dialogue, Decisions and Duties: Daniel Sulmasy (2006)	2006	DVD		"The relationship between spirituality and health has garnered increasing attention in recent years. Health care providers may not always know how best to respond to their patients' spiritual needs, while some may not believe they have a duty to address	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
State of Mind 2002	2002	CD	59	"A special two-hour town hall broadcast from The Infinite Mind State of Mind: America 2002 is an unprecedented town hall gathering of top mental health experts including Tipper Gore, Rosalynn Carter, U.S. Surgeon General Dr. David Satcher, along with per	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
State of Mind 2003	2003	CD	59	"Dramatic cutbacks in public mental health care in states throughout the country are dumping people with serious mental illness into jails, homeless shelters and on the street at a rate eerily reminiscent of the deinstitutionalization of the 1960s and 70s	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
State of Mind: America 2004	2004	CD	59	"The Infinite Mind's third annual special live broadcast event examining the state of the American mental health care system." [From Infinite Mind Website]	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Stem Cell Research: Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino Interview with German Television, Summer 1999 (1999)	1999	VHS		Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino is interviewed about stem cell research by German television. Summer 1999
Stem Cells & Cloning (2005)	2005	DVD	42 minutes	This program represents a presentation made by Dr. David A. Prentice, Ph.D. on "Stem Cells & Cloning" at the 2005 Wisconsin Right to Life Legislative Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin.	Wisconsin Right to Life
Stem Cells: Beyond Hype, Real Hope (2006)	2006	DVD	6		Family Research Council
Sterilization of Leilani Muir (1996)	1996	VHS	46 minutes, 56 s	"Twenty-five years ago Leilani Muir was informed she would never be able to conceive a child. Unbeknowst to her, at the age of fourteen, she had already been sexually sterilized, by an Act of the Alberta government. The film entwines her personal search	National Film Board of Canada, Sales and Customer Services (D-10)
Stigma (2003)	2003	CD	59	"In this hour, we tackle Stigma. Guests include Isaac Brown, Dr. Patrick Corrigan, Dr. Michael Hogan, Tom Johnson, and Bill Lichtenstein and June Peoples, the senior executive producer and executive producer of The Infinite Mind and the co-producers and c	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Still Life: The Humanity of Anatomy (2001)	2001	VHS/DVD	27	"Each year, 16,000 medical students in the United States dissect cadavers as part of their introduction to medicine. Their emotional reactions to the experience are intense, sometimes traumatic, and may shape the way they will relate to their future patie	Fanlight Productions

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Stories of Quality Lives: Ethics in the Care of Persons with Alzheimer's (2001)	2001	VHS	22 minutes	"An educational video, "Stories of Quality Lives: Ethics in the Care of Persons with Alzheimer's," stimulates viewers to question traditional assumptions of quality of life in persons with Alzheimer's Disease. Two patients with an early diagnosis of Alzh	Office of Health Care Ethics, Center for Health Policy Research and Ethics, College of Nursing and Health Science, George Mason University
Straight Talk with Derek McGinty: Animals in Captivity (1997)	1997	VHS	60 minutes	"Are zoos and aquariums the best means we have to know animals? Do people go to zoos to be educated - or entertained? This episode of Straight Talk with Derek McGinty explores man's relationship with wild animals and the ethical dilemmas involved in keepi	WETA [Washington Education Television Association]
Struggle for Moral Leadership: Integrity and Compromise (1999)	1999	VHS		In collaboration with the University of North Carolina Center for Public Television, the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University produced a two-part television series on The Struggle for Moral Leadership. The program originally aired in April 1999	Kenan Institute for Ethics
Struggle for Moral Leadership: Public Virtues, Private Lives	1999	VHS		In collaboration with the University of North Carolina Center for Public Television, the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University produced a two-part television series on The Struggle for Moral Leadership. The program originally aired in April 1999	Kenan Institute for Ethics
Sugihara: Conspiracy of Kindness (2005)	2005	DVD	82 minutes	"Discover the Impact of One Man's Extraordinary Act of Courage In the fall of 1939 Hitler's murderous wave was sweeping through Eastern Europe. In the face of the Nazi onslaught, Japanese diplomat Chiune Sugihara made a decision that would change his life	Amazon.com
Susceptible to Kindness: Miss Evers' Boys and the Tuskegee Syphilis Study (1993)	1993	VHS	45 minutes	This video examines the ethical issues raised by the Tuskegee Study of Untreated Syphilis in the Negro Male (1932- 1972). Issues are presented through acted excerpts from David Feldshuh's play Miss Evers' Boys and comments by nurses; physicians; governmen	Media Services Resource Center, Cornell University,
Systems and Structures: Ethics in Organizations: Nuala Kenny		DVD		"Examines the ethical culture of organizations and its impact on inter-professional relationships, decision-making, and patient care." [Description from PHEN site]	Provincial Health Ethics Network (PHEN)
Teaching Medical Ethics (1988)	1988	VHS	31 minutes		American Medical Association (AMA). Medical School Section
Technology Rocks the Cradle (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The panelists discuss medical, ethical and moral dilemmas which various scientific advances in prenatal care have brought about. Moderated by Harold Edgar.	Seminars on Media & Society
Telemedicine & Access to Care: A Demonstration (1994 March	1994	VHS		Discussion includes Eric Tangalos, MD at The Mayo Clinic. The Annenberg Health Communication Forum is co-sponsored by The Annenberg Washington Program and Northwestern University Medical School, and directed by Gregory Makoul, Ph.D. The Annenberg Washin	Northwestern University Medical School
Telemedicine: Barriers & Possibilities. A Policy Roundtable (1995)	1995	VHS	2 hours 12 minu		Annenberg Health Communication Forum, Northwestern University Medical School

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Test Tube Babies (2006)	2006	DVD	60 minutes	"When the first human egg was fertilized in a lab in 1944, the news spread like wildfire; the press quickly adopted the term "test tube baby." But for decades after the early scientific advance there was little real progress; researchers could not keep th	Amazon.com; PBS
Test Tube Babies: A Daughter for Judy (1982)	1982	VHS	57 minutes	Filmed after the successful birth of Louise Brown (1978), the first baby born from in vitro fertilization (IVF) procedures, Georgianna and Howard Jones are interviewed in their Norfolk laboratory about this reproductive technology. Two sets of parents who	Ambrose Video Publishing Co.
Testing for Lynch Syndrome: Is It Right for You? An Informational Program for People Considering Genetic Testing for Hereditary Cancer (2008)	2008	DVD			Myriad Genetic Laboratories, Inc.
Thank you, Nicholas		DVD	8 minutes	This program profiles the individuals who received a transplant of one of Nicholas Green's organs. Through the profile the audience learns how the "Nicholas Effect" changed their lives.	Nicholas Green Foundation
The Abortion Pill (1997) [RU-486]	1997	VHS	56 minutes	"Opponents call it the 'Death Pill,' Supporters call it the "moral property of women." The Abortion Pill documents the decade-long battle to bring RU-486 to the United States. The film offers an intense, first hand look at the issues and people that hav	First Run / Icarus Films
The Anencephalic: A Suitable Donor? (1996)	1996	VHS	60 minutes	Should anencephalic infants serve as organ donors? Just as the title indicates, this program explores the question of whether parents of infants born with anencephaly ought to be allowed to donate their infant's vital organs by creating an exception to th	Anencephaly Support Foundation; Contemporary Ethics Media
The Archdiocese of Washington Presents: The Ends of Life: Legal, Ethical, & Spiritual Dimensions	1992	VHS	120 minutes	Several Catholic theologians, physicians, lawyers, and ethicists discuss topics at the "Ends of Life." Rev. Russell Smith; John Collins Harvey, M.D.; William May, Ph.D.; Kevin O'Rourke, Ph.D.; Basile Oclo, J.D.; Sheperdson Abell, J.D.; Edmund D. Pellegrini	Office of Communications, Archdiocese of Washington
The Architecture of Doom (1991)	1991	DVD	119 minutes	"Featuring never-before-seen film footage of Adolph Hitler and the Nazi regime, The Architecture of Doom captures the inner workings of the Third Reich and illuminates the Nazi aesthetic in art, architecture and popular culture. From Nazi party rallies	First Run Features
The Battle for a Surrogate Baby: Kaplan v. Chamberlain (2002)	2002	VHS	45 minutes	"When a couple is unable to conceive a child, one of the more controversial modern methods of helping them is 'surrogate motherhood,' in which a woman is hired, or volunteers, to bear the man's child and then give it up. But what if, as Susan Chamberlain	Choices, Inc.; Amazon.com
The Belmont Report: Basic Ethical Principles and Their Application (1986)	1986	VHS	34 minutes	The video provides information about the Belmont Report, identifying three basic ethical principles that underlie research involving human subjects: respect for persons, beneficence, and justice.	Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP) VIDEO

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Bicycle (2006)	2006	DVD	13:42	Pax Chingawale pedals his bike over 20 kilometers a day -- visiting his neighbors from house to house...he battles AIDS at the grassroots level. Working with traditional healers who are influential at the local level yet often contribute unwittingly to th	National Film Board of Canada
The Book of Man (1994)	1994	VHS	50 minutes	The program considers the origins and development of the Human Genome Project.
The Burden of Knowledge: Moral Dilemmas in Prenatal Testing. A Documentary (1994)	1994	VHS	54 minutes	"This provocative documentary explores the difficult ethical issues arising from advances in biotechnology that now make it possible to identify genetic defects during pregnancy. It features interview with seven couples who speak openly and honestly abou	Fanlight Productions
The Business of Medicine (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes		PBS Video
The Case for Innocence (2000)	2000	VHS	90 minutes	"More than 70 inmates accused of rape and murder have been freed because DNA tests proved their innocence in a way tha evidence and eyewitness accounts never could. Why then are prosecutors, courts and even governors reluctant to use this scientific test	WGBH Educational Foundation
The Code	2000	DVD	28	"The fascinating interplay between heredity and environment in determining the health of an individual begins at conception. With the completion of the Human Genome Project, research into the genetic links to disease and other aspects of the 'human condit	Aquarius Productions
The Constant Gardener (2006)	2006	DVD	129 min	"Academy award nominee Ralph Fiennes and Rachel Weisz give electrifying performances in this gripping suspense-thriller. A diplomat on the hunt for his wife's murderer uncovers a tracherous conspiracy that will destroy millions of innocent people- unless	Amazon; Amazon.com
The Courage to Care (1986)	1986	VHS	28:30 minutes	The Courage to Care documents the "few but significant individuals who knowingly risked their lives during the Holocaust to aid Jews" [quote from Guide]. The film profiles both rescuers and the rescued. Profiled are: Elie Wiesel (deported as a teenager	Anti-Defamation League [ADL]
The Crisis in Medicine: Professional Life in the Age of Managed Care, Edmund Pellegrino, M.D.; The J. Philip Clarke Family Lecture (1996)	1996	VHS			University of Notre Dame Alumni Continuing Education
The Cross and the Star: Jews, Christians and The Holocaust (1992)	1992	DVD	55 minutes	"The Cross and the Star finds disturbing echoes of anti-Semitism in the otherwise profound lyrical Gospel of St. John, the sermons of St. Augustine, the writings of Martin Luther and in the voices of the Crusaders and the Spanish Inquisitors - all of whic	First Run Features
The Cure (1995)	1995	VHS	109 minutes	One summer, two boys went in search of a dream ... and found the friendship of a life-time. Joseph Mazzello and Brad Renfro star in this heartwarming adventure story filled with laughter, compassion and the enduring power of hope. New to a quaint, river	MCA Universal Home Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Day I Will Never Forget (2002)	2002	DVD	92 minutes	Made in England by filmmaker Kim Longinotto, this documentary examines the practice of female genital mutilation in Kenya through the eyes of African women who are speaking out against the traditional surgery based on its painful physical and psychological	Women Make Movies
The Deadly Deception: The Tuskegee Study of Untreated Syphilis in the Negro Male [First aired on PBS NOVA January 26, 1993]	1993	VHS	60 minutes
The Death Camps (1993)	1993	VHS	60 minutes	"This is an official film record of the Nazi death camps as photographed by Allied forces advancing into Germany. Although by then the fires in the Third Reich's crematoria had been reduced to smoldering ash, the remaining evidence was so unspeakably hor	CAV Video Productions
The Death of Nancy Cruzan (1992)	1992	DVD	88 minutes	This Frontline program tells the story of Nancy Cruzan's auto accident in January 1983 with the resulting oxygen deprivation that led to her PVS. It describes her parents' efforts to secure the right to stop nutrition and hydration for their daughter so	PBS Video
The Different Shades of Autism: The Screening and Diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Disorders (2000)	2000	VHS	60 minutes	Intended as a resource for parents, pediatricians, teachers, and therapists, this video provides factual medical information about autism and seeks to create the understanding that individualized treatment plans are necessary for children with autism. "	Ahead with Autism
The DNR Dilemma (1988)	1988	VHS	43 minutes total	Part I: When the Time Comes (18 minutes). This segment dramatizes the physician's concerns and discomfort in discussing a do-not-resuscitate policy for a patient. Part II: Professional Perspectives (25 minutes) The second part provides comments by attend	Carle Medical Communications
The Doctor (1991)	1991	VHS	123 minutes	Reunited for the first time since their Academy Award-nominated hit Children of a Lesser God, screen favorite William Hurt and director Randa Haines team up for another successful collaboration in The Doctor. Now, the talented Oscar-winning Hurt (Best A	Touchstone Home Video
The Ethical Nature of Medicine (1989)	1989	VHS	60 minutes (app	Dr. Edmund P. Pellegrino focuses on the dual obligation of the physician to the medical profession and to the patients. In a time of change in health care, he says that trust cannot be enforced nor can care become a business. He thinks that the physician	Loyola University Audiovisuals
The Ethical Question: Advance Care Planning (1997)	1997	VHS	30 minutes	The video program discusses ethical questions in medicine related to physician-patient relations, right to die, assisted suicide, and advance directives [information taken from OCLC record]. A medical directive is referred to in the program and is availab	American Medical Association [AMA], Division of Continuing Medical Education
The Ethical Question: Death & Dying	1992	VHS	30 minutes	Topics covered in the CME study guide are: 1) Definitions and Distinctions of withholding/withdrawing life sustaining treatment, palliative treatment that may hasten death, euthanasia, and assisted suicide; 2) an ethical framework governing the ethical res	American Medical Television

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Ethical Question: Economics and Health Care	1992	VHS	30 minutes	Topics covered in CME guide include 1) definitions; 2) issues related to access and cost; 3) some causes of increased health care costs; 4) care of patients and costs to society; 5) ethical concerns about rationing; 6) duties of the medical profession; 7)	American Medical Television
The Ethical Question: Informed Consent	1992	VHS	30 minutes	Topics covered in CME guide are: 1) general principles of informed consent; 2) informed consent with patients without decision-making capacity; 3) public health concerns; 4) informed consent forms; 5) suggested readings and self assessment. Program parti	American Medical Television
The Ethical Question: Medical Education Kit. Individual titles include: The Ethical Question: Death & Dying; The Ethical Question: Economics and Health Care; The Ethical Question: Informed Consent; and The Ethical Question: Physician Assisted Suicide	1992	VHS	30 minutes each	"The Ethical Question examines many of the critical ethical issues facing the medical profession and society today. Using actual cases and commentary by many of the nation's leading medical ethicists, each tape discusses areas of consensus and disagreeeme	American Medical Television
The Ethical Question: Medical Genetics - Fragile X Syndrome (1996)	1996	VHS	30 minutes	Contents according to WorldCat: "Welcome; Fragile X Syndrome; DNA testing for inherited disease; the issue of look back; when to test and how to counsel; the disclosure of reproductive options; the duty to warn; the insurance problem; access to genetic te	Division of Continuing Medical Education, American Medical Association [AMA]
The Ethical Question: Physician Assisted Suicide	1992	VHS	30 minutes	Topices in CME guide include 1) definitions; 2) withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment; 3) patient self-determination; 4) nonmaleficence and beneficence; 5) the relief of pain and suffering; 6) potential for abuse; 7) slippery slope; 8) suggested readin	American Medical Television
The Ethics Committee Videotape (1996)	1996	VHS	32 minutes, 8 se	Part I: Patient and Family Education. The narrator suggests that a health care ethics committee can function as a "health care guide service." Three questions about ethics committees are addressed in this section of the program: 1) why do we have one? 2)	Caresource (IlluminAge Communication Partners)
The Ethics of Assisted Suicide: Michigan v. Kevorkian (2002)	2002	VHS	45 minutes	"He became known as 'the suicide doctor' and 'Dr. Death', and controversy followed him everywhere. Dr. Jack Kevorkian believed that terminally ill people had the right not only to die, but also to have the assistance of a physician in doing so. Some peo	Choices, Inc.; Amazon.com
The Ethics of Human Cloning (1998)	1998	VHS	21 minutes	One video in the North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]'s annual series. A discussion guide accompanies the video.	North Carolina Association for Biomedical Research [NCABR]
The Ethics OSCE: Standardized Patient Scenarios for Teaching and Evaluating Bioethics	1994	VHS; DVD	135 minutes	Fourteen standardized patient scenarios on video are available to teachers of medical ethics. The standardized scenarios may be used to teach medical ethics and to evaluate medical students' understanding of ethical issues and appropriate professional be	Standardized Patient Program, University of Toronto, Centre for Research in Education

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Eye of Vichy [L'Oeil de Vichy] (1993)	1993	DVD	110 minutes	"The Eye of Vichy is a brilliantly chosen compilation of long forgotten film footage and newsreels, produced by the Nazis and French collaborators during World War II. From the small town of Vichy in central France, Field Marshall Petain's puppet governm	First Run Features
The Fabric of Health	2000	DVD	30	"Health is a much more personal concept - Although statistics generated by public health authorities attempt to codify just what "health" is for population groups as a whole, health is a much more personal concept" [from Aquarius Productions catalog descr	Aquarius Productions
The Fake Trade (2008)	2008	DVD		This title is a two-part documentary focusing on global counterfeiting of multiple products including fake drugs. The program provides data on the scope of the problem and its widespread nature. A review article on the program appears in BMJ 2008 March
The Final Solution (2001)	2001	VHS	3 hours, 28 min	"It was perhaps the most horrifying crime ever committeed against humanity--the systematic extermination of millions of Jews in German death camps during World War II. Now, in The Final Solution, the producers of the acclaimed series The World at War rev	Videocollection.com
The Fuhrer Gives a City to the Jews	1944	VHS	23 minutes	"Produced by the Ministry of Propaganda of the Third Reich This is the only film known to be made by the Nazis inside an operating concentration camp. This insidious propaganda film was produced in 1944 in Theresienstadt, the "model" ghetto established by	Facets Video
The Future of Dying (1995)	1995	VHS	36 minutes, 20 s	Speaking as the concluding lecturer at the March 1995 ?How We Die Conference? (based on Sherwin B. Nuland?s book of the same title), noted physician-ethicist William G. Bartholome, M.D., M.T.S., shares reflections on the development of the death and dying	Midwest Bioethics Center
The Genetic Gamble (1985)	1985	VHS	58 minutes	The videocassette presents cases showing how genetic research has moved from the laboratory into the clinical setting. The ethical problems of gene splicing treatment are discussed.	Coronet Film & Video
The Genetics Revolution; Ethics of Gene Therapy; Genetic Information (one video cassette)		VHS	The Genetics Revolution--28 minutes; Ethics of Gene Therapy- -10 minutes; Genetic Information--10 minutes
The Genie and the Genome: The Human Genome Project. Air Date of April 9, 1992. Part 2 of 2 (1992)	1992	VHS		"Choices and Challenges" Forum held on April 9, 1992 at Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, Virginia	Virginia Tech
The Genie and the Genome: The Human Genome Project. Air Date of April 9, 1992. Part 1 of 2 (1992)	1992	VHS			Virginia Tech
The Gift of Life (1985)	1985	VHS	53 minutes	The television documentary offers information about heart and liver transplants, including economic statistics and a discussion of brain death.	Carousel Films, Inc.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Health Quarterly, #201 (covers three topics: health care reform, DES, dating in the age of AIDS) (Summer 1992)	1992	VHS	60 minutes	Roger Mudd serves as host, introducing three topics (each approximately 20 minutes). The first part talks about health care reform, showing the Wofford campaign in Pennsylvania, interviews with voters,, and politicians, concluding with the view that health	PBS Video
The Health Quarterly, No. 203: Doctors and Dollars; Promises and Reality; [and] A Hidden Risk (Winter 1993)	1993	VHS	60 minutes	Three segments are introduced by Roger Mudd. The first (Doctors and Dollars) discusses physicians as business entrepreneurs, including physician self-referral, medicine for profit, and a need for some type of regulation. The second section (Promises and	PBS Video
The Hidden Costs of Mental Illness (2002)	2002	CD	59	"What are the hidden costs of mental illnesses? In recent weeks, the White House and Capitol Hill have weighed the potential benefits and costs of requiring health insurers to provide treatment for psychiatric disorders. This week on The Infinite Mind we	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
The Human Genome (1990)	1990	VHS	26 minutes	The film opens with identical twins whose lives are remarkably the same even though they grew up apart. Other genetic similarities are presented and cystic fibrosis is discussed as the most common of the inherited diseases. The human genome mapping plan i	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
The Human Genome Education Model [HuGEM Project] (1996)	1996	VHS	146 minutes (Parts I-V are 19, 24, 45, 30, and 28 minutes long, respectively)	The HuGEM Project is a collaboration between the Georgetown University Child Development Center, a division of the Department of Pediatrics, Georgetown University Medical Center, and the Alliance of Genetic Support Groups. Presenters are Dr. E. Virginia	Georgetown University Child Development Center
The Human Genome Project (1991)	1991	VHS	23 minutes	Dr. James Watson, director of the Human Genome Project (at that time) opens the film, noting that mapping 100 trillion cells is a vast undertaking. Three scientists discuss different genetic diseases: David Houseman of MIT, Wilm's tumor; Nancy Wexler, Hu	National Center for Human Genome Research
The Island (2005)	2005	DVD	136 minutes	Told that they are ?survivors? of a catastrophic event that contaminated the earth leaving it uninhabitable by human beings, human clones live underground unaware of their real identity and purpose. Commercial ?products? grown for clients above ground, mo	Amazon; Hollywood Videos
The Island of Dr. Moreau (1996)	1996	VHS	96 minutes	"Through DNA experimentation, Dr. Moreau has upset the balance of nature. On a remote island in the South Pacific, Dr. Moreau has used the key of science to unlock the gates of hell... Val Kilmer (Heat, Batman Forever, The Ghost and the Darkness), Davi	New Line Home Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Journey (2008)	2008	dvd		The Journey is a human factor training DVD that is intended to help surgical teams avoid medical error by focusing on the inter-responsibility of the team members and their need to work together. The program is a reconstruction of real events "that led a
The Journey Home: Stories from Hospice		DVD	60	At the same time modern medical technology is extending our lives, it may also be making our deaths more lonely, frightening, and sterile. Through the candid stories of five hospice patients and their families, this video presents a way that patients can	Fanlight Productions
The Kevorkian File (1992)	1992	VHS	56 minutes	"FRONTLINE was granted special access to Dr. Kevorkian, his friends, members of his family, and survivors of many of the twenty people he has helped commit suicide. The program includes pictures and videotape never before seen." (Description taken from c
The Kids Are All Right (2010)	2010	DVD	104 minutes	A lesbian couple with two children conceived by a sperm donor experience changed family life after their children identify and bring their biological dad into their lives.
The Library as Place: Symposium on Building and Revitalizing Health Sciences Libraries in the Digital Age (2003)	2003	DVD		This Symposium was held at the Lister Hill Auditorium at the U.S. National Library of Medicine on November 5-6, 2003. The program was presented by the National Library of Medicine & the Association of Academic Health Sciences Libraries.	U.S. National Library of Medicine
The Lobotomist (2008)	2008	DVD		See review article by Daniel G. Stewart and Kenneth L. Davis in The American Journal of psychiatry 2008 April; 165(4): 457-458. The title is The Lobotomist.	PBS at http://www.shoppbs.org
The Lost Tribe (2005)	2005	DVD/VHS	56	Ex-Mormon-lesbian-atheist Sue Ann Post has molded a career as an award-winning stand-up comic from the lurid and toxic brew of tales from her childhood and adolescence. When she travels to Salt Lake City to speak at a conference for LGBT Mormons and learn	Women Make Movies, Inc Orders Department
The Madness of King George (1995)	1995	VHS	110 minutes	King George II of England suffers the sudden onset of multiple physical and mental symptoms around the time the American colonies declare their independence from England. Court physicians are mystified but, nevertheless, employ methods of assessment, dia	Samuel Goldwyn Home Entertainment
The Marketing of Madness. Are We All Insane? A Documentary (2009)	2009	DVD		"Psychotropic drugging -- it's big business. This is the story of the high-income partnership between psychiatry and drug companies that has created an $80 billion psychotropic drug profit center. But appearances are deceiving. How valid are psychiatris
The Medical Marketplace	2000	DVD	28	"Compare the major ways in which the various levels of health care are delivered, while examining the impact of new medical technologies, and contrasting managed care to more traditional approaches." [from Aquarius Productions catalog description]	Aquarius Productions

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Multidisciplinary Pediatrics Ethics Committee: Sociodrama (1988)	1988	VHS	60 minutes	Georgetown Hospital Ethics Committees members discuss a case involving surgery to treat a handicapped infant. Larry McCullough is the ethicist; others involved include several physicians, nurses, a pastoral counselor, a social worker, a patient advocate,
The New Genetics: Medicine and the Human Genome. Molecular Concepts, Applications and Ramifications (2000)	2000	CD		This program is a " multimedia CD-ROM for those interested in the impact of genetics and genomics on healthcare and society. Creators intend this program for the education and training of human genetics students, medical students, healthcare professional
The Next Step (1989)	1989	VHS	22 minutes	Actress Glenda Jackson examines the death penalty as a form of torture and a violation of human rights. News clips of deaths are shown.	Amnesty International
The Nicholas Effect	1995	DVD	12 minutes	"In 1994, when their 7-year-old son, Nicholas, was killed during a botched car-jacking, Reg and Maggie Green galvanized all of Italy--and the world--by donating Nicholas's organs to seven desperately sick Italians, becoming a model of a grief-stricken fam	The Nicholas Green Foundation
The Nuremberg Trials (2006)	2006	DVD	60 minutes	This American Experience production draws upon rar archival material and eyewitness accounts to re-create the dramatic tribunal that deines trial procedure for state criminals to this day. The program was originally broadcast on January 30, 2006. PBS Ca	PBS Video, Alexandria, VA. Online at Shop PBS http://www.shoppbs.org/
The Origin of Life (1992)	1992	VHS		Tape records Val Davajan, M.D., OB/GYN, Professor at UCLA Medical School talking about "The Origin of Life." Dr Davajan, and his colleague, Luis Cabal, MD., a neonatologist, helped reestablish a center of excellence in perinatal medicine at the Good Samar
The Origins of AIDS (2006)	2006	VHS/DVD	43	Did scientists inadvertently cause the AIDS epidemic? More than 20 years after the AIDS epidemic started, we still do not know its origins. We know for sure that AIDS was born from contact between humans and chimpanzees infected by the Simian Immuno-defic	National Film Board of Canada
The Pill (1999)	1999	VHS	46 minutes	The birth control pill provided women with some control over their reproduction and offered adults more liberty in sexual interaction. This documentary explores the background behind the release of the pill without adequate safety testing and the resulti	Women Make Movies
The Placebo Effect (2000)	2000	CD	59	"The 'placebo effect' is astonishingly large. Between 35 and 75 percent of patients report feeling better from taking an inert pill during trials of new drugs. But what is the placebo effect, and how does it work. And if placebos can help so many people f	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The President's Commission: Report on Deciding to Forego Life Sustaining Treatment (1986)	1986	VHS	25 minutes	Jack Glaser, director of ethics in the Sisters of Mercy health system, discusses the U.S. President's Commission for the Study of Ethical Problems in Medicine and Biomedical and Behavioral Research report Deciding to Forego Life-Sustaining Treatment: Ethical	Sheed and Ward
The Prince of Tides (1992)	1992	VHS	132 minutes	Barbara Streisand and Nick Nolte star in the stunning screen adaptation of Pat Conroy's best-selling novel, The Prince of Tides. Nolte is Tom Wingo, a disillusioned Southern coach who must reveal his tortured childhood in order to help his troubled sister	Columbia TriStar Home Video
The Rainmaker (1997) (John Grisham's)	1997	VHS	137 minutes	Francis Ford Coppola directs and scripts an exciting, star-packed adaptation of John Grisham's novel about an idealistic young attorney who takes on the case of a lifetime. Matt Damon (Good Will Hunting) plays Rudy Baylor, a rookie lawyer in over his head	Paramount Pictures
The Right to Decide: Life Support for the Aged (1991)	1991	VHS	30 minutes	New York City physician Russell Kellogg offers guidelines for health care personnel in talking to the elderly about their views on advance directives and the kind of care they might wish to receive near the end of life. Three persons are interviewed: Max	Media Production Group
The Right to Die (1985)	1985	VHS	119 minutes	The film examines ethical and emotional issues surrounding a patient's request to have his ventilator turned off so that he may die. The perspectives of the patient's wife, his physician, and his nurse are presented as each speaks at a meeting of a hospital	Baxley Media Group
The Right to Die...The Choice is Yours (1987)	1987	VHS	14 minutes	The film depicts two "allowing to die" situations, and goes on to urge everyone to consider and to prepare living wills and to name surrogates to make health care decisions. A small seven page booklet accompanies this video. It consists of suggested questions	Choice in Dying
The Right to Die? (1989) [A rebroadcast of the 1988 documentary "Let My Daughter Die"] [Nancy Cruzan]	1989	VHS	119 minutes	The documentary opens with Dr. Ronald Cranford discussing Nancy Cruzan, the subject of the United States Supreme Court's first right to die case. Her hospital in Missouri is shown as well as footage of the patient (Nancy Cruzan), her family, and the health	PBS Video
The Right to Kill [documentary on euthanasia] (1989)	1989	VHS	58 minutes	Asking whether mercy killing is a blessing and an answer to terminal illness and intractable pain, or a beginning to a new holocaust, William F. Buckley, Jr. narrates the film. It includes short presentations by persons opposed to active euthanasia: Dame	American Portrait Films
The Right to...Let Die (1973)	1973	VHS	28 minutes	This early television classic continues to be used for education. Participants are Sidney Callahan, The Hastings Center; David C. Abrahamson, Georgetown pediatrician, Warren T. Reich, Kennedy Institute of Ethics scholar; and Charles Currie, Georgetown University	Bono Film & Video Services

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Role of the RIO [Research Integrity Officer] (2006 September)	2006		Main program 22 minutes; with approximately 5 hours additional footage	"In this DVD, four experienced RIOs [Research Integrity Officers] and three former and current members of ORI [The Office of Research Integrity] provide a broad overview of the knowledge and skills to meet the challenges of a RIO. Chapters include: 1) In	Office of Research Integrity [ORI]
The Scientist		VHS	60 minutes
The Search for Mengele (1985)	1985	DVD	80 minutes	"Josef Mengele, the 'Angel of Death,' was the most notorious SS doctor at Auschwitz. He sent hundreds of thousands of Jews to their deaths and performed appalling experiments on adults and children. After the end of World War II, Mengele was one of the wor	First Run Features
The Secret of Life (2003)	2003	DVD	57 minutes	"A half-century ago, three teams with three different approaches raced to unravel the structure of DNA. This program blends extensive interviews and firsthand narration with extraordinary graphics to tell the compelling story of how the perhaps unlikely d	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
The Secret of Nimh (1982)	1982	VHS	84 minutes	Heartwarming, enchanting, and beautifully crafted, this magical cartoon fantasy marks a new era for animation! Gorgeous to look at! raves TIME. It ll delight kids everywhere. (Newsweek). An extravaganza of dazzling animation, The Secret of Nimh is bas	MGM/JA Home Video
The Self-Made Man (2005)	2005	DVD	64 minutes	Robert Stern received a diagnosis of heart disease and cancer. Rather than undergo surgery or other treatment for these diseases, Mr. Stern decided to end his own life, and did so at the age of 77, after videotaping a statement of his reasons for doing	New Day Films
The Silent Scream (1984)	1984	VHS	28 minutes	Physician Bernard N. Nathanson, who once performed abortions and who was a founder of the National Abortion Rights Action League, but who is now ardently against abortion, explains the abortion procedure. Ultrasound technology is shown during the abortio	American Portrait Films
The Sleep Room (1998)	1998	VHS		Experiments carried out on persons with psychiatric disorders such as post-traumatic stress disorder; post-partum depression, etc., who went to the Allan Memorial Institute in Montreal seeking treatment. The experiments included massive electroshock thera	Criterion Films / VEC
The Smoking Dilemma (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The program raises questions concerning the responsibility for damage caused by smoking and asks if laws prohibiting smoking could pass.	PBS Video

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
The Suicide of a Camp Survivor: The Case of Primo Levi		DVD	72 minutes	"This is the story of an assimilated Italian Jew, a chemist of no particular renown whose efforts to survive in fascist Italy were finally thwarted when he was deported to Auschwitz, where he survived through no effort of his own while tens of thousands a	Films for the Humanities and Sciences
The SUPPORT Project to Improve Care at the End of Life		VHS		Overview of SUPPORT	Fanlight
The Treatment (2002)	2002	VHS	75 minutes	In this speech, Dr. Martha Stephens, former professor at the University of Cincinnati in Cincinnati, Ohio, discusses her investigative history of the Cincinnati Radiation Tests. Her book, The Treatment: The Story of Those Who Died in the Cincinnati Radia	C-SPAN Archives
The Truesteel Affair (1983) [Engineering / Construction / Business Ethics]	1983	VHS	24 minutes	The drama portrays an ethical situation for a small steel company with cash flow problems. Able to underbid due to its first rate designer, the business cannot afford to redo work on beams for a job when they are welded wrong. Having ignored the advice of	Fanlight Productions
The Vanishing Line (1998)	1998	VHS	52 minutes	Filmmaker and physician Maren Monsen examines the attitude toward death that is explicit and implicit in the medical profession, that death is the worst outcome. She reflects on choices and concerns made by patients and their physician	First Run / Icarus Films
The Wannsee Conference (1987) (German with English subtitle)	1987	VHS	85 minutes	On January 20, 1942 key representatives of the SS, the Nazi Party, and the German government bureaucracy met secretly at a house in Wannsee, a quiet Berlin suburb, to discuss plans to eliminate persons of Jewish background. The brief meeting included a b	Winstar Direct/Winstar TV & Video Media
The Whales of August (1987)	1987	VHS	91 minutes	Bette Davis and Lillian Gish. Two of Hollywood s longest-reigning leading ladies. Each a legend in her own time. Now, after careers that span the history of cinema, they re together on the screen for the first time in director Lindsay Anderson s (If, O	Alive Films Production with Circle Associates Ltd.
The What, How, and Why of Ethics Committees (1984)	1984	VHS	23 minutes	This early work by Jack Glaser, STD, and Ronald Cranford, MD, discusses the ethics committee as a body to translate theory to reality, and to facilitate consensus and good decisions. They say its functions are to educate, to develop policies and procedur	Sheed and Ward
The White Rose (1983)	1983	VHS		This program, in German and in English, focuses on the German Resistance Movement called the White Rose. The film is based on the true story of five German students and their professor who formed a secret society to protest the Nazi regime. Based in Mun	Amazon
The Woodstock Forum: Values Inside the Issues: Religious Voices on Health Care Reform (2008)	2008	DVD		"The Project was launched in April 2008 with the forum, ?Values Inside the Issues: Religious Voices Discuss Health Care Reform.? Panelists include Rabbi David, Saperstein, Director of the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism; Edmund Pellegrino, M.D.,	Woodstock Theological Center

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
There's Gotta Be Another Way: Addressing Parents' Fears about Opioid Analgesia (2003)	2003	DVD	9 minutes	"A dramatization of a conversation between health care professionals and parents of an 8-year-old patient. Parents raise and professionals respond to common fears and concerns regarding opioid pain medications." This video is intended for use in Module 2	Center for Applied Ethics, Education Development Center, Inc.
Those Who Stay Behind: When a Family Member is Dying (2000)	2000	DVD
Tibetan Medicine: A Buddhist Approach to Healing	1985	VHS	30 minutes	"Tibetan Medicine was filmed at the Tibetan Medical Center established in exile by the Dalai Lama in the Indian Himalayas--the only remaining center for Tibetan Medicine. Ama Lopsang Dolma, Tibet's first woman doctor, shows how medicines are made form a	Mystic Fire Video
Tim (1979)	1979	VHS	94 minutes	A love story with a challenge. Based on the novel by the best-selling author Colleen McCulloch (the Thorn Birds), TIM is an Australian film which tells the story of the relationship between a handsome, young man (Mel Gibson), and an attractive businesswo	Media Home Entertainment, Inc. Under License from Heron Communications, Inc.; Video Treasures, Inc.
Tissue Banking: Advancing Cancer Care (2007)	2007	DVD	15 minutes	This program is intended to educate patients and families about the opportunity and the need for donated human tissue removed during medical procedures (surgery, biopsy, or blood test) to be donated to a tissue bank for future research possibilities. The	Michael Murphy, Dana Farber Cancer Institute
To Choose No Harm: Ethical Decision-Making at the End of Life	1996	VHS	47 minutes	This documentary focuses on the decision-making process involved in caring for dying patients when conflicts exist between the wishes of the patient, their family, and the personal beliefs and clinical judgements of their healthcare professionals. Two ca	Fanlight Productions
To Hurt and To Heal (two parts) (1986)	1986	VHS	45 and 60 minutes	Ethical issues in neonatology and pediatrics are discussed presenting dilemmas faced by parents and health professionals in the care of very sick newborns. Part 1 contains an interview with the parents of a 13-week premature infant who died at age six wee	University of California Extension Media Center
Today's Bioethical Problems: Physician Assisted Suicide (1990 December 20)	1990	VHS	60 minutes	Three physicians, Nancy Cummings of the National Institutes of Health, Edmund D. Pellegrino, director of the Center for the Advanced Study of Ethics at Georgetown University, and Mark Seigler, director of the Center for Clinical Medical Ethics, University	Healthnet
Today's Life Choices #1212: "Religion and Culture: Religion and Euthanasia"		VHS	28 minutes 30 s		Golden Dome Productions
Tools for Research: Questions About Animal Rights (1983)	1983	VHS	38 minutes	The AV questions the ethics of using animals for laboratory research; noting that regulation is often inadequate, that results often do not apply to humans, and that the animals suffer needlessly.	Bullfrog Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Total Patient Care: The Child with an Intersex Condition (2002)	2002	VHS	00	Created as an educational tool address to medical and mental health professionals, this video discusses the health care needs of the intersex child. "'Intersex' is the general term used to denote a variety of conditions in which a person is born with mix	Intersex Society of North America [ISNA]
Tough Choices: Today and in History (1999)	1999	VHS	30 minutes	Rev. Vartan Hartunian, Gloria Johnson-Powell, M.D., and Katherine Fanning discuss personal choices they made earlier in their lives. As a five-year-old boy, Rev. Hartunian escaped the Turkish persecution of Armenians in the 1920. Dr. Johnson-Powell was	Institute for Global Ethics
Transplant Trade (2004)	2004	VHS	78 minutes	Despite condemnation of organ marketing, shortages of transplantable human organs in Westernized countries and desperate financial need in developing countries, have led an increasing number of Westerners to purchase life-sustaining organs from strangers	True Vision TV, Ltd. Productions
Treatment Decisions at the End of Life (1990)	1990	VHS	45 minutes	Four patients are depicted: Andy Jacobs, described as ``a baby born to die," whose mother refuses further treatment and takes him home; David Nalbert, who was diagnosed with muscular dystrophy at five and refuses ventilator assistance at age 25; Gail Wes	Catholic Health Association
Treatment of Handicapped Newborn (1985)	1985	VHS	?minutes	John Glaser, STD, and Barbara Meyer Lucas, M.D., open the program and discuss premature babies, the critically ill newborn, and handicapped infants, noting the disparity between physicians, hospitals, or geographic areas in the kinds of treatment provided	Sheed and Ward
Trial and Error: [A Family's Quest for Answers [Jesse Gelsinger] (2002)	2002	VHS	00	Jesse Gelsinger. Story of his life, his involvement in the gene therapy trials, his father Paul's efforts to find out what happened to his son and to bring about change to the oversight of human subject research, especially gene therapy trials. [Framed	Dateline
Truth and Confidences (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes	The film explores the physician-patient relationship in the light of the physician's responsibility to the patient and to society. Moderated by Arthur Miller.	PBS Video
Tuesdays with Morrie (1999)	1999	DVD	89 minutes	"Based on a true-life story, 'Tuesdays with Morrie' is a loving memoir to a man whose lessons in life have much to teach us about ourselves. Academy Award winner Jack Lemmon delivers an outstanding performance as Morrie Schwartz, the Brandeis University p	http://www.Amazon.com
Twilight of the Golds (1996)	1996	VHS; DVD	90 minutes	"A seemingly perfect family boasting a handsome son, a pregnant daughter married to a doctor, and caring parents is rocked by the perceived likelihood--determined by the daughter's geneticist husband--that the anticipated addition to their family may be g	Barnes & Noble online
Twins: A Cochlear Implant Story revised (2003)	2003	DVD	29 minutes	This program is a follow-up to Sound & Fury (2000). It "follows the twin children in that film and another set of twins for 3 years to compare language development between a deaf implanted identical tiwn and his hearing twin sibling." [quote from the Aro	Aronson Films

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Umbilical Cord Blood Banking: A New Birth Option for Your Fam	1997	VHS		"Modern medicine has brought about a new and exciting birth option for expectant parents--Umbilical Cord Blood Banking. 'Cord blood' is the blood that remains in a baby's umbilical cord and placenta immediately following birth. Recent medical breakthrough	Cord Blood Registry
Unnecessary Fuss (1985)	1985	VHS	26 minutes	"The abuses documented on this videotape led the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to terminate the annual one million tax dollar brain-damage experiments on primates at the University of Pennsylvania. This rare footage filme	PETA, People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals
Verdict on Auschwitz: The Frankfurt Auschwitz Trial 1963-1965 (1993, 2005)	1993	DVD	180 minutes	"One of the most important trials of the 20th century began in 1963, when 360 witnesses from 19 countries, including 211 Auschwitz survivors, confronted former members of Hitler's SS - many of whom had made comfortable lives in postwar West Germany - and	First Run Features
Videodiscovery: Bio-Ethics		VHS		This tapes has two accompanying guides and a record - 33.
Vision and Voice: Faithful Citizens and Health Care (2008)	2008	DVD		This DVD is part of a larger adult education resource "Vision & Voice: Faithful Citizens and Health Care." The print resources, including facilitators' manuals and participants' manuals are available free online without a charge at http://www.visionandvoi	Vision and Voice: Faithful Citizens and Health Care
Voices of Choice: Physicians Who Provided Abortions Before Roe v. Wade (2003)	2003	VHS	24 minutes	"Among the many doctors who put their lives and reputations on the line to make sure women had access to a safe medical procedure, here are a few who share their fascinating, surprising, and moving stories for the first time. What motivated these physici	Physicians for Reproductive Choice and Health
West 47th Street (2003)	2003	DVD	83 min	"This warm and intimate cin?ma verit? documentary follows four people with mental illness off the streets and out of homeless shelters, in and out of the hospital, at home and at work, over three years. The film offers an unprecedented window on the real	Lichtenstein Creative Media, Inc.
Whale Mission: Keepers of Memory	2006	VHS/DVD	52	Decimated by whaling in the 19th and 20th centuries, the northern right whale is the planet's most endangered large whale species -- today there are fewer than 350 left. Whale biologists who have studied these whales have charted their family trees and no	National Film Board of Canada
What Matters to Families: Big Choices, Little Choices (2003)	2003	DVD	9 minutes	"Mattie Stepanek, age 11, suffers from a rare and life-threatening form of muscular dystrophy. He and his mother explain the importance of understanding and integratingthe thoughts and feelings of ill children and their parents into the ongoing care of t

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
What Matters to Families: Knowing Who We Are (2003)	2003	DVD	14 minutes	"Rebecca Lilly died at age 16 after a six-year battle with brain cancer. Rebecca's parents and siblings relate their relationships with the health care system and express needs and concerns often identified by families coping with the life-threatening ill	Center for Applied Ethics, Education Development Center, Inc. [EDC]
What Matters to Families: Speaking the Same Language (2003)	2003	DVD	13 minutes	"Dean and Inez Davis, guardians of nine grandchildren, recount their experience with their granddaughter, Sherquanda, who was diagnosed with a brain tumor from which she died at age 9. They discuss the centrality of trust, respect, and caring in the rela	Center for Applied Ethics, Education Development Center, Inc. [EDC]
What Price?	2000	DVD	28	"This program delves into two very critical issues: inequalities in health care and health care delivery, and ethical considerations in allocating limited resources to alleviate this problem. Where does an individual's responsibility for practicing health	Aquarius Productions
When My Time Comes (1990)	1990	VHS	18 minutes	Prepared for the Washington State Catholic Conference, three cases are depicted: an elderly patient with a broken hip who lapsed into an unconscious state, an old woman with pneumonia, and an AIDS patient who dies in the hospice setting. A physician pries	Sheed and Ward
Where Do I Begin? (1987) [Organ and Tissue Donation]	1987	VHS	26 minutes	Consisting of six dramatic scenes, each illustrates one step or phase in a 'typical' organ and tissue donation conversation. Possible scenarios are enacted to help health personnel given the responsibility of discussing this organ donations with patients	Baxley Media Group
White Coat Ceremony: Georgetown University School of Medicine - Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D., Speaker, August 12, 2005	2005	DVD	00	This is the annual White Coat Ceremony for new first-year medical students (2005 ceremony for the Class of 2009) at Georgetown University School of Medicine. The students receive their white coats and take the Hippocratic Oath. Edmund D. Pellegrino, M.D.	Georgetown University School of Medicine
Who Gets to Know? Genetics and Privacy (2002)	2002	VHS	57 minutes	When it comes to genetic testing, how much should a patient be told? If the news is bad, who else should the patient inform? And could - or should - such privileged information be made available to employers, insurance companies, and others? [descriptio	Films for the Humanities & Sciences
Who Lives, Who Dies, Who Decides? (three parts) (1986)	1986	VHS	60 minutes each	Television news personality Ted Koppel moderates a nationwide video teleconference with discussion in three areas: 1) Introduction and Technology. Panelists are Thomas F. Ferris, Donald S. Frederickson, Albert Gore, Jr., and William B. Schwartz. 2) Resou	Pacific Presbyterian Medical Center
Who Lives, Who Dies? (1987)	1987	VHS	58 minutes	The film looks at three different facets in the allocation of health care resources: providing health care to the uninsured and poor, setting qualifications for organ transplantation, and using high-technology to care for the dying. Actor James Earl Jones	Filmakers Library

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Who Owns My Life? The Story of Sue Rodriguez	1994	VHS	47 minutes	Canadian Sue Rodriguez was diagnosed with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS). Seeking the ability to end her life when her symptoms became intolerable for her, Sue Rodriguez appealed her case all the way to the Supreme Court of Canada. Her plea was not	Filmakers Library
Who Pays for AIDS? (1989)	1989	VHS	58 minutes	AIDS patients in different American cities are interviewed. Their lives are looked at from the point of view of the difficulty each has in receiving health care and in finding funds to pay for it.	PBS Video
Who Shall Live / Who Shall Die? Healthcare Resource Allocation in America		VHS		Narrated by James Earl Jones. Tape used by Oklahoma University professor to teach about politics, health, economics, and bioethics.
Who Should Survive? (1971)	1971	VHS; DVD	26 minutes	Eunice Kennedy Shriver, Executive Vice President of the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, opens the film by describing, along with a simulated depiction, a birthing scene of a Down's Syndrome infant with duodenal atresia who is born to parents who decide	Bono Film & Video Services
Whose Death Is It Anyway?		VHS	55 minutes	"A look at the human side of end-of-life decision making in an emotionally charged one-hour public television program. The program examines: 1) Patient's Legal Rights; 2) Family Conflict about End-of-Life Decisions; 3) Advance Directives; 4) Palliative (Choice in Dying
Whose Life is it Anyway? (1981)	1981	DVD		Sculptor Ken Harrison is paralyzed in a car accident. He wants to end his life and takes his case to court to try to force his physician to help him end his life. "Gifted sculptor Ken Harrison is now a hospitalized quadriplegic. And no matter how much	Amazon.com
Why Did Jesse Have to Die? (2002)	2002	DVD	44 minutes		Gruppe 5 Filmproduktion GmbH
Why Do We Speak of Responsibility? (1994)	1994	VHS	25 minutes	This teaching video, presented by the North Carolina Board of Medical Examiners, addresses the legal and moral responsibility that board members have to monitor the safety of physicians in practice. Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino, Director of the Clinical Cen	Video Craftsmen, Inc.

Bioethics Research Library AV List - 7/10/2013

Title	Release Year	Format	Runtime	Abstract	Source
Winding Your Way Through DNA: Promise & Perils of Biotechnology: Genetic Testing	1996	VHS	25 minutes	This videotape is intended for high school and college biology classes and public education programs. The program was developed by a team of high school and college teachers, ethicists, historians, and scientists following a public symposium, "Winding Yo	Pyramid Media
Wit (2001)	2001	DVD		In the film version of Margaret Edson's Pulitzer Prize- winning play, Emma Thompson portrays Professor Vivian Bearing, a Donne scholar and professor of literature, as she experiences experimental chemotherapy for advanced metastatic cancer. The film foll	http://www.Amazon.com
Worlds Apart: A Four-Part Series on Cross Cultural Healthcare (2003)	2003	DVD	47 minutes	Four mini-programs provide insight into the role sociocultural barriers play in patient-provider communication and potential problems and issues about which healthcare professionals should be aware when providing care for culturally and ethnically diverse	Fanlight Productions
X-Men Collection (X-Men and X2) (2000)	2000	DVD		Unusual children born with a twist or X-factor in their genetic code are able to perform extraordinary feats. The plot raises questions related to the treatment of persons with altered genetic code and the relationship between "normal" and "mutant" perso	Amazon.com
Your Future: Who Decides? (1989)	1989	VHS	20 minutes, 30 s	Three situations are depicted in which the potential exists for older persons to lose control over decisions that are important for their later years. The scenarios occur in the hospital, at home, and at a beach house. This program is intended to help p	American Association of Retired Persons [AARP], Criminal Justice Services, Program Department
Zuo you [In Love We Trust]	2007	dvd	115 minutes	A divorced couple learns that their little daughter Hehe's fevers are because she has a blood disease. The doctor informs them that a bone marrow transplant might save her and that the best donor would be a sibling. Each of them has since remarried to o	Film Movement