Forgiving Dr. Mengele (2005)
First Run / Icarus Films
Abstract: "'Forgiving Dr. Mengele'tells the story of a shocking act of forgiveness by Auschwitz survivor Eva Mozes Kor and the firestorm of criticism it has provoked. Eva and her twin sister, Miriam, were victims of of Nazi doctor Josef Mengele's cruel genetic experiments – an experience that would haunt them their entire lives. We follow Eva's metamorphosis from embittered survivor to tireless advocate for reconciliation. This unexpected transformation was sparked when Eva, in an attempt to get information about the experiments, met with another former Auschwitz doctor. Eva's ideas about justice, revenge and the possibility of healing through forgiveness—as well as the passionate opposition from other survivors—became a window to a larger discussion of the many ways people define forgiveness." The Final Solution (2001)

Videocollection.com

Abstract: "It was perhaps the most horrifying crime ever committed against humanity—the systematic extermination of millions of Jews in German death camps during World War II. Now, in The Final Solution, the producers of the acclaimed series The World at War reveal how Hitler drove the nation to commit such terrible deeds. Extensive use is made of period photos and film as well as shocking footage filmed by the Germans themselves. Also featured are moving, personal stories, told by death camp survivors and in-depth interviews with former German participants. The Final Solution is an absorbing, intelligent, often disturbing account of one of history's greatest tragedies and one of mankind's most unspeakable acts." [Description from cassette box]

The four cassettes have individual titles and present the development of the Nazi campaign to eliminate the Jewish people chronologically. Volume 1 is "The Seeds of Hatred 1918-1939;" volume 2 is "Repression and Resettlement 1939-1941;" volume 3 is "The Last Journey 1941-1942;" and volume 4 is "Hell on Earth 1942-1945." The Seeds of Hatred 1918-1939. "The years following World War I were a time of national humiliation and economic misery for the German people. Throughout the 1920s, an Austrian named Adolf Hitler promised to unify the German-speaking peoples of Europe, and to expel all strangers, especially the Jews, whom he blamed for the nation's troubles. When he came to power in 1933, he began to make good that terrible promise. The Seeds of Hatred traces the origins of Hitler's campaign of state-sanctioned prejudice. What began as anti-Semitic propaganda, soon became organized boycotts of Jewish shops and legalized discrimination—what the unspeakable yet to come." [Description from the cassette box]

Repression and Resettlement 1939-1941. "With the annexation of Poland after the outbreak of World War II, Hitler began moving both German and Polish Jews to areas where, far away from German public opinion, he could do with them as he wished. Reprisal and Resettlement traces the Nazis' escalating hostility toward the Jews—from the forced wearing of yellow stars and confinement in growly overcrowded ghettos, to the implementation of the "Final Solution"—his plan to systematically destroy the Jewish peoples of Europe under the cover of war." [Description from the cassette box]

The Last Journey 1941-1942. "When mass shootings proved to be impractical for killing on the scale the Nazis envisioned, they devised a more hideous and diabolical plan. The Last Journey shows how, shrouded in secrecy, existing concentration camps were refitted with gas chambers and crematoriums and converted into extermination centers. Once the construction was completed, Jews throughout occupied Europe were systematically rounded up by the thousands, loaded into cattle cars, and transported to their deaths." [Description from the cassette box]

Hell on Earth 1942-1945. "Hell on Earth recounts the horrors of life and death at Auschwitz, the most notorious of Hitler's death camps. Witnesses describe how mass murders were routinely carried out with chilling efficiency by SS guards who regarded their prisoners as sub-human. It also raises the disturbing question of why, even in the last years of the war, the killing machine continued to function without hindrance." [Description from the cassette box]

Abstract: "The Eye of Vichy is a brilliantly chosen compilation of long forgotten film footage and newsreels, produced by the Nazis and French collaborators during World War II. From the small town of Vichy in central France, Field Marshall Petain's puppet government worked with their Nazi overlords in creating pro-Nazi propaganda. Seeking to turn the tide of public emotion against both the Allied Forces and the Jews, they skillfully produced a strange alternative history of the war years that is shocking and grimly fascinating. French New Wave founder Clude Chabrol creates a masterful look at the Nazis and media manipulation that is as engrossing as any of his thrillers."

[description from the dvd box] The program has English narration and includes bonus features of an inside the Third Reigh photographic tour; trailer gallery; and scene access.

Abstract: "One of the most important trials of the 20th century began in 1963, when 360 witnesses from 19 countries, including 211 Auschwitz survivors, confronted former members of Hitler's SS - many of whom had made comfortable lives in postwar West Germany - and accused them of taking part in the mass murder of millions. Using audio excerpts from the trial along with an incredible array of evidence, the filmmakers bring to life the investigation, the courtroom drama and the verdict in this historic trial involving perpetrators of the 'Final Solution'." [description from cassette] This program is in German with English subtitles. It includes bonus material of the directors' biography and filmography.

The Death Camps (1993)
CAV Video Productions
Abstract: "This is an official film record of the Nazi death camps as photographed by Allied forces advancing into Germany. Although by then the fires in the Third Reich's crematoria had been reduced to smoldering ash, the remaining evidence was so unspeakably horrible that were it not for this film the mind would refuse it. We are made witness to the half-dead prisoners, victims of "medical" experiments, gas chambers, and open mass graves of the camps whose very names have become synonymous with human suffering and degradation. Every frame of "The Death Camps" is irrefutable testimony to a lesson the world must never be permitted to forget." First Run Features
Abstract: "The Cross and the Star finds disturbing echoes of anti-Semitism in the otherwise profound lyrical Gospel of St. John, the sermons of St. Augustine, the writings of Martin Luther and in the voices of the Crusaders and the Spanish Inquisitors - all of which may have helped sow the ideological seeds that developed into Nazism."

The Architecture of Doom (1991)
First Run Features
Abstract: "Featuring never-before-seen film footage of Adolph Hitler and the Nazi regime, The Architecture of Doom captures the inner workings of the Third Reich and illuminates the Nazi aesthetic in art, architecture and popular culture. From Nazi party rallies to the final days inside Hitler's bunker, this sensational film shows how Adolph Hitler rose from being a failed artist to creating a world of ponderous kitsch and horrifying terror. Hitler worshipped ancient Rome and Greece, and dreamed of a new Golden Age of classical art and monumental architecture, populated by beautiful, patriotic Aryans. 'Degenerate' artists and 'inferior' races had no place in his lurid fantasy. As this riveting film shows, the Nazis went from banning art of modernists like Picasso to forced euthanasia of the retarded and sick, and finally to the persecution of homosexuals and the extermination of Jews." [description from cassette box]. The program is narrated by Sam Gray.

Hitler and the Nazis Box Set: The Architecture of Doom (1991); The Eye of Vichy (2003); and In the Shadow of the Reich (1997) and The Cross and the Star: Jews, Christians and The Holocaust (1992)
First Run Features
Abstract: This box set of videos contains a great deal of archival footage about the Nazi propaganda machine and the documentary truth of what happened under the Third Reich. Three titles are contained in the box set. The Architecture of Doom "looks at the rise of the Nazi Party in Germany from the perspective of Hitler's use of the arts in Nazi policy and propaganda." [description from World Cat record] "The Cross and the Star finds disturbing echoes of anti-Semitism in the otherwise profound lyrical Gospel of St. John, the sermons of St. Augustine, the writings of Martin Luther and in the voices of the Crusaders and the Spanish Inquisitors - all of which may have helped sow the ideological seeds that developed into Nazism." [description from the cassette box] "Nazi Medicine studies the step-by-step process that led the German medical profession down an unethical road to genocide. It graphically documents the racial theories and eugenics principles that set the stage for the doctors' participation in sterilization and euthanasia, the selections at the death camps, as well as inhuman and unethical human experimentation." [description from the cassette box] "The Eye of Vichy is a "compilation of long forgotten film footage and newsreels, produced by the Nazis and French collaborators during WWII. From the small town of Vichy in Central France, Field Marshall Petain's puppet government worked with their Nazi overlords in creating pro-Nazi propaganda. They skillfully produced a strange alternative history of the war years in order to turn public emotion against the Allies and the Jews." [description taken from WorldCat record]

Direct Cinema Limited

Abstract: "This powerful and provocative feature documentary explores the motivating principles and activities of the anti-Nazi resistance inside Germany from 1993 to 1945. This film is a deeply moving portrayal of individual destinies charting with dramatic power, passion, and depth the development of the underground resistance. The Restless Conscience highlights the tension between an individual's responsibility to a personal ethical code and to a tyrannical political system." Jewish Heritage Project
Abstract: "With stunning intimacy and openness, LODZ GHETTO brings us the voices of ordinary people trapped in an unbelievable time. They confide precisely what they felt during the darkest days of Nazi persecution. Scripted entirely from the secret diaries they left behind—hidden so the people of the future would know what they endured—this internationally acclaimed film reveals how 200,000 people in the longest surviving concentration of Jews in Nazi Europe struggled against what seemed an unstoppable war to crush them out. It brings us the voices of people who love life but can only hope for a miracle to save them." [description from the Jewish Heritage Project website]

The Wannsee Conference (1987) (German with English subtitles)
Winstar Direct/Winstar TV & Video Media

Abstract: On January 20, 1942 key representatives of the SS, the Nazi Party, and the German government bureaucracy met secretly at a house in Wannsee, a quiet Berlin suburb, to discuss plans to eliminate persons of Jewish background. The brief meeting included a buffet lunch, brandy, cigarettes, and a discussion of the "Final Solution." When the meal was over, plans had been confirmed for the systematic elimination of eleven million Jewish people. Actual notes taken at the meeting, letters written by Hermann Goering and Adolf Eichmann, and testimony given by Eichmann during his trial in Israel (1961) are used to re-create the conference, which itself, lasted only 85 minutes. "Viewers become stunned witnesses to the cold-blooded, matter-of-fact manner in which the most hideous crime in history was set in motion." [Description adapted from the cassette box].

The Courage to Care (1986)
Anti-Defamation League [ADL]

Abstract: The Courage to Care documents the "few but significant individuals who knowingly risked their lives during the Holocaust to aid Jews" [quote from Guide]. The film profiles both rescuers and the rescued. Profiled are: Elie Wiesel (deported as a teenager with his family to Auzchwitz); Odette Meyers (hidden as a child by Catholics and members of the Resistance); Irene Opdyke (a Polish Catholic who hid 12 Jews); Marion P. van Binsbergen Pritchard (helped find homes and hiding places for Jewish children and adults); Emanuel Tanay (a Polish Jew hidden in a monastery); and Magda and the Rev. Andre Trocme (who, with those in their village of Le Cambon-sur-Lignon in France, helped to shelter thousands of Jews during the Holocaust). A Teacher's Discussion Guide accompanies the video. The Guide provides a historical background and description of the ways in which a small number of people helped Jews during the Holocaust. It includes classroom activities and key questions for classroom use. Sections are: Section 1: "The Act of Rescue;" "Insiders and Outsiders" [and] Section 2: "Having the Courage to Care" [and] "Exploring: The Roots of Courage." This film was nominated in 1986 for an Academy Award by the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences as the Best Documentary Short. A United Way production for the United States Holocaust Memorial Council. The film was made possible by a grant from Mutual of America, New York, NY, William J. Flynn, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

The Search for Mengele (1985)
First Run Features
Abstract: "Josef Mengele, the 'Angel of Death,' was the most notorious SS doctor at Auschwitz. He sent hundreds of thousands of Jews to their deaths and performed appalling experiments on adults and children. After the end of World War II, Mengele was one of the world's most wanted criminals- yet for the next 35 years he escaped justice. Narrated and co-written by world famous TV legend David Frost, 'The Search for Mengele' traces Mengele's escape through Germany to Italy, then to Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil, where he finally met his end. It examines Mengele's life through the eyes of those who knew him, revealing how the infamous Nazi doctor lived out his last years, hiding out (in perverse irony) in a multi-racial society. And it confronts the fact that to simply dismiss Mengele as a solitary monster may be too convenient. Was Mengele alone responsible, or was he the product of a warped system of values? Can this dark moment in human history be repeated in the future? Why was he never caught? Filmed in ten countries including Germany, Israel, Poland and Brazil and featuring numerous interviews and photographs of Mengele through the years, this astonishing, disturbing film answers these questions by uncovering not only Mengele's life and crimes, but also the complicity of those who allowed him to escape justice. In the words of Rolf Mengele, who discovered one day that his 'Uncle Fritz' was in fact his father, 'if they really wanted to get him, they could have.'” [description from cassette]
